Transition Magician 2 More Strategies For Guiding Young Children In Early Childhood Programs:

Transition Magician 2 Mary Henthorne, Nola Larson, Ruth Chvojicek, 2000 Transitions are difficult for small children Whether it s getting Johnny to put down his crayon because it s time for lunch or coordinating a group to put away the toys helping little ones to adjust from one activity to another is a constant challenge for the grownups who care for them in homes schools and day care centers

Transition Magician for Families Ruth Chvojicek, Mary Henthorne, Nola Larson, 2001 The third volume in the Transition Magician series this book is designed to help early childhood professionals in supporting the parents of young children The book provides activities for parents and young children for home and away from home to guide children through difficult transition times and to make the most of valuable opportunities for building skills and relationships Chapter 1 discusses ways early childhood professionals can support parents to help their children manage transitions The next five chapters present a collection of activities to use during everyday transition times The activities are divided into five categories according to the type of transition in which they might be used and children s developmental needs during transition times The transition categories are 1 everyday routines such as leaving the house in the morning picking up toys or getting ready for bed 2 busy time when parents are busy with household routines and responsibilities 3 together times quality activities for parent and child in between the routines of the day 4 on the move activities for travel time both to school or child care and on longer trips and 5 while you wait activities while waiting at the doctor s office laundry or religious services All activities are written in a reproducible form so that they may be photocopied and given to parents The final chapter shows how early childhood programs can design and set up two workshops one for parents only and the other for parents and children using the transition ideas and props from this book Three appendices include a list of eight resources workshop activity lists and handouts and examples KB
