Building the Self-Efficacy Beliefs of English Language Learners and Teachers Mark Wyatt,Farahnaz Faez,2024-02-20 Building the Self Efficacy Beliefs of English Language Learners and Teachers explores juxtaposes and bridges two fields of research that have developed separately the self efficacy beliefs of English language learners and the self efficacy beliefs of English language teachers The aim is to expand understanding in each field and highlight how the two areas can mutually inform each other This should encourage fresh perspectives providing direction for researchers and improving learning teaching and teacher education Empirical research suggests that English language learners and teachers who believe they can fulfil a task are more likely to succeed than those who believe they cannot Based on a deep understanding of how self efficacy beliefs are formed and developed this book illustrates how such beliefs can be supported and researched amongst English language learners and teachers Bringing together the work of educators and researchers working in contexts including Algeria Bulgaria Canada China Iran Israel Japan T rkiye the UK the USA and Vietnam this volume includes meta analyses largely focusing on quantitative data and empirical studies employing qualitative approaches and mixed methods Studies included examine factors impacting the development of language teachers self efficacy beliefs and investigate domain specific dimensions of the self efficacy beliefs of English language learners and teachers This rigorous and original volume will appeal to an international readership of scholars teachers teacher educators and researchers with interests in language education teacher education TESOL linguistics and educational psychology

Carol Read's 101 Tips for Teaching Primary Children Carol Read,2020

Teaching English in Africa Anderson, Jason,2016-04-30 Teaching English in Africa is a practical guide written for primary and secondary school teachers working all over the continent This book relates the practice of English language teaching directly to the African context As well as covering the underlying theory of how children learn languages and how teachers can best facilitate this learning it also provides practical resources and ideas for activities and techniques that have proved successful in English classrooms in Africa both at primary and secondary level It is intended to be a practical guide so references and citations are kept to a minimum and concepts are presented using examples that are likely to be familiar to most teachers working in Africa If there is a bias in this book it is towards the needs of teachers working in low resource isolated contexts in Africa as these teachers are so often neglected by literature on teaching methodology

Envisioning TESOL through a Translanguaging Lens

Zhongfeng Tian,Laila Aghai,Peter Sayer,Jamie L. Schissel,2020-09-12 To respond to the multilingual turn in language education this volume constitutes a challenge to the traditional monolingual and native speakerism paradigm in the field of Teaching English to Speakers of Other Languages TESOL through a translanguaging lens The chapters offer complex global perspectives with contributions from five continents to open critical conversations on how to conceptualize and implement translanguaging in teacher education and classrooms of various contexts The researchers exhibit a shared commitment to transforming TESOL profession that values teachers and learners full linguistic repertoires This volume should prove a valuable resource for students teachers and researchers interested in English teaching and learning applied linguistics second language acquisition and social justice

Exploring Creativity Through Writing Alan Maley,Sharoon

Sunny,2025-08-01 The book explores the nature of human creativity and its importance in education with reference to past and ongoing work on creativity theory It aims to direct the attention of teachers to the need for creativity in education by dispelling the mystique surrounding it and the feelings of inadequacy or apprehension it may evoke in educators particularly in the Asia region The book offers an introduction to creativity in writing the rationale for including it in language programmes the benefits it can bestow and the results it can produce as well as dealing with common objections to it It divides creative writing into two major sections poetry and stories followed by a copious set of varied classroom activities For each activity a standard format is adopted to offer teachers maximum support in implementing the procedures including supplementary comments on each activity It is distinct for its accessibility and clarity its abundance of practical and ready to use classroom activities and its unique combination of theoretical underpinnings and practical implementation This book will be useful to students pre service teachers and researchers who are new to the teaching of English Language both in the Asian context and in the wider world It will also be an essential companion to practicing in service teachers and Teacher Trainers to further sharpen their concepts and skills

Translation, Translanguaging and Machine Translation in Foreign Language Education

David Coulson,Christopher Denman,2025-03-22 This book focuses on a wide range of topics about the current and emergent roles and uses of translation and translanguaging in the teaching and learning of foreign languages This is an area that has been gaining increasing momentum in recent years with traditional understandings and practices in the uses of translation for language instruction being challenged and in many cases disrupted by the rapid development of machine translation apps such as DeepL and the ChatGPT translator The improving quality and widespread deployment of such technologies are causing instructors and students around the world to reconsider not only their pedagogic approaches to the use of translation in the classroom but also what effective instruction looks like The contributing authors provide an up to date and detailed view of this area This includes voices from researchers and professional educators from around the world As the book s focus they examine the current and projected future roles of translation in foreign language learning and teaching within which a wide range of topics are explored This book will be of interest to researchers scholars and teachers in foreign and second language education EFL ESL translation studies applied linguistics multilingualism and education First and Second Language Use in Asian EFL Ross Forman,2016-05-16 Many Asian education systems discourage or even ban the use of L1 in L2 classrooms although in fact L1 remains widely used by teachers Why is L1 use still devalued in this context By observing classes and interviewing teachers this book explores three dimensions of L1 use in L2 teaching pedagogy what teachers actually do and what they say about it the personal what happens to identity when we perform a foreign tongue the professional how textbooks are used and what is distinctive about the EFL domain The Cambridge Guide to Learning English as a Second Language Anne Burns,Jack C. Richards,2018-03-15 This volume provides an up to date and comprehensive coverage of second language learning The focus throughout the book is primarily on language learning but each chapter also discusses the implications for teaching and assessment thus informing both understanding and practice The book contains nine sections which aim to organise and reflect different dimensions of the diverse and complex scope of learning English as a second or additional language Four themes which permeate the chapters are learning and learners learning and language learning and language development learning and learning context The 36 chapters are up to date and authoritative written by experts in the field The content is accessibly written with questions for discussion and follow up reading suggestions provided
