Transnational Blackness M. Marable, 2008-09-29 Black intellectuals in the US have long thought of racism as a global phenomenon This book presents for the first time a full overview of the history critical analysis and theoretical perspectives of key black scholars and activists on the transnational dynamics of modern race and racism throughout the world

Transnational Blackness M. Marable, 2008-09-29 Black intellectuals in the US have long thought of racism as a global phenomenon This book presents for the first time a full overview of the history critical analysis and theoretical perspectives of key black scholars and activists on the transnational dynamics of modern race and racism throughout the world New

Social Movements in the African Diaspora L. Mullings, 2016-04-30 In the last few decades the people of the African diaspora have intensified their struggles against racial discrimination and for equality This account of these social movements include action in Latin America the Indian Ocean World Europe Canada and the United States Black

Genders and Sexualities S. McGlotten, D. Davis, 2012-12-06 Cutting across the humanities and social sciences and situated in sites across the black diaspora the work in this book collectively challenges notions that we are living in a post racial age and instead argue for the specificity of black cultural experiences as shaped by gender and sex The New Black History E.

Hinton, 2016-04-30 The New Black History anthology presents cutting edge scholarship on key issues that define African American politics life and culture especially during the Civil Rights and Black Power eras The volume includes articles by both established scholars and a rising generation of young scholars Pan-African Aesthetics Lena Dallywater, 2025-11-17

Pan Africanism has been a global project aiming to unite people of African descent since the late nineteenth century Notions of Black and African arts and aesthetics have functioned as a bridge and brought positive identification across national ethnic or class divides even when rifts have appeared unbridgeable They were able to mediate Africanity positively both prior to and during the struggle for liberation and at times when the dream of a unified African nation died This study explores central aspects proponents and opponents of Pan African aesthetics and shows that conceptualizations of Black African and Afrocentric aesthetics form a kaleidoscope that is constantly changing Based on historical sources in depth reading and qualitative interviews the study illustrates what happened to the discussions in the postcolonial era The story of unfolds along the life paths and approaches of four intellectuals from Anglophone and Francophone Africa Their framings can tell us more about the underlying themes contestations and contradictions of emancipatory projects in the mid twentieth century and show us that the study of Pan Africanism is not yet exhausted neither is the history of the idea and the movement

Racializing Justice, Disenfranchising Lives M. Marable, K. Middlemass, I. Steinberg, 2007-09-03 African Americans today face a systemic crisis of mass underemployment mass imprisonment and mass disfranchisement This comprehensive reader makes clear to students the mutual constitution of these three crises Barack Obama and African American

Empowerment M. Marable, 2009-11-09 This book examines the evolution of black leadership and politics since the Civil Rights Movement It looks at the phenomenon of Barack Obama from his striking emergence as a successful candidate for the Illinois State Senate to President of the United States as part of the continuum of African American political leaders

Black Routes to Islam M. Marable, 2009-08-03 Starting with 19th century narratives of African American travelers to the Holy Land the following chapters probe Islam's role in urban social movements music and popular culture relations between African Americans and Muslim immigrants and the racial politics of American Islam with the ongoing war in Iraq

Black Subjects in Africa and Its Diasporas B. Talton, Q. Mills, 2011-08-15 Through the research and experiences of 16 scholars whose native homes span ten countries this collection shifts the discussion of belonging and affinity within Africa and its diaspora toward local perceptions and the ways in which these notions are asserted or altered Seeking Higher

Ground M. Marable, 2016-01-23 Hurricane Katrina of August September 2005 one of the most destructive natural disasters in U S history dramatically illustrated the continuing racial and class inequalities of America In this powerful reader Seeking Higher Ground prominent scholars and writers examine the racial impact of the disaster and the failure of governmental corporate and private agencies to respond to the plight of the New Orleans black community Contributing authors include Julianne Malveaux Melissa Harris Lacewell Ronald Walters Chester Hartman Gregory D Squires Mindy Thompson Fullilove Alan Stein and Gene Preuss This reader is the second volume of the Souls Critical Black Studies Series edited by Manning Marable and produced by the Institute for Research in African American Studies of Columbia University Migration Policy and Practice Harald Bauder, Christian Matheis, 2016-04-29 Building on contemporary efforts to theorize conflicts related to borders migration and belonging this book transforms existing analyses in order to propose critical interventions The chapters are written from multiple disciplinary perspectives and present rigorous empirical and theoretical analyses to advocate progressive transformation A Trace for the Next Generation Chike McLoyd, 2022-01-01 Based on eighteen months of ethnographic research in a high school E L L classroom this study contributes to the fields of new literacies studies and critical pedagogy by showing how transnational Black youth theorize and negotiate intersections of racism justice and education Drawing on a multidimensional approach for understanding how racism is reproduced and resisted across various domains of power the author shows how two young men from Haiti theorize the U N and INGO occupation of post earthquake Haiti a disjuncture between how Africa and Haiti are mis known in the U S and students lived realities in their respective countries of origin and finally students analysis of structural racism in the U S through a Justice for Trayvon unit that was co taught from March May 2012 when Trayvon Martin George Zimmerman and Stand Your Ground became household names The author concludes by suggesting that we move toward a lessons against white supremacies framework for critical pedagogy This framework draws on centering counter narratives and thinking through the notion of decolonial love to reframe everyday classroom praxis Culturally informed antiracist pedagogies must begin with students theoretical work and experiential knowledge Such an approach transforms classrooms into spaces for students to not only interrogate racism but also create counter texts that represent their subjectivities as young Black people in the 21st century The Routledge International Handbook of New Critical Race and Whiteness Studies Rikke Andreassen,Catrin Lundström,Suvi Keskinen,Shirley Anne Tate,2023-06-22 Since its foundation as an academic field in the 1990s critical race theory has developed enormously and has among others been supplemented by and dis integrated with critical whiteness studies At the same time the field has moved beyond its origins in Anglo Saxon environments to be taken up and re developed in various parts of the world leading to not only new empirical material but also new theoretical perspectives and analytical approaches Gathering these new and global perspectives this book presents a much needed collection of the various forms sophisticated theoretical developments and nuanced analyses that the field of critical race and whiteness theories and studies offers today Organized around the themes of emotions technologies consumption institutions crisis identities and on the margin this presentation of critical race and whiteness theories and studies in its true interdisciplinary and international form provides the latest empirical and theoretical research as well as new analytical approaches Illustrating the strength of the field and embodying its future research directions The Routledge International Handbook of New Critical Race and Whiteness Studies will appeal to scholars across the social sciences and humanities with interests in race and whiteness Chapter 34 of this book is freely available as a downloadable Open Access PDF at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com> under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives CC BY NC ND 4 0 license Race, Racism, and International Law Devon W. Carbado,Kimberlé Williams Crenshaw,Justin Desautels-Stein,Chantal Thomas,2025-08-19 What would it look like to place race at the center of international legal scholarship From its inception in the 70s and 80s critical race theory s target was the field of law revealing it to be a repository for racial power This particular critique of law was explosive because of law s putatively apolitical status making it a unique site for an intellectual sit in that has forever changed the way that race and racism are understood in American society Several decades later as indicators of populism and white nationalism spread across North America and Europe critical race theory remains markedly absent from discourses in global affairs and international law This volume opens the door for CRT to enter the international sphere Featuring contributions from 30 of today s leading scholars from around the world Race Racism and International Law explains how the concept of racial difference sits at the foundation of the legal political and social structures of hierarchy that shape the contemporary global order Helmed by four pioneering experts two in CRT and two in international law the volume s approach targets regimes of power and violence that implicate racism capitalism and colonialism This volume lays the groundwork for urgent and provocative new modes of critique and analysis New Developments in Critical Race Theory and Education Mike Cole,2017-02-14 This book considers new developments in Critical Race Theory CRT in times of austerity and assesses both the impact of British CRT or BritCrit and CRT s continuing growth in the US Following transatlantic impact of the first and only book length response from a Marxist perspective Critical Race Theory and Education A Marxist Response Cole includes a retrospective critique and development of certain arguments in that volume an evaluation of the influential Race Traitor movement including observations on the changing political perspectives of Ignatiev and Garvey and reflections on racialized neoliberal capitalism in the era of austerity and immiseration While acknowledging CRT s strengths this book stresses the need for neo Marxist analysis to fully understand and challenge racism in the UK and the US and to envision a socialism for the twenty first century

Exploring the Decolonial Imaginary P. Schechter,2012-01-02 This study explores two categories empire and citizenship that historians usually study separately It does so with a unifying focus on racialization in the lives of outstanding women whose careers crossed national borders between 1880 and 1965 It puts an individual intellectual and female face on transnational phenomena

Afro-Asian Connections in Latin America and the Caribbean Debbie Lee-DiStefano,Luisa Marcela Ossa,2018-11-27 Afro Asian Connections in Latin America and the Caribbean explores the connections between people of Asian and African descent in Latin America and the Caribbean Although their journeys started from different points of origin spanning two separate oceans their point of contact in this hemisphere brought them together under a hegemonic system that would treat these seemingly disparate continental ancestries as one Historically an overwhelming majority of people of African and Asian descent were brought to the Americas as sources of labor to uphold the plantation agrarian economies leading to complex relationships and interactions The contributions to this collection examine various aspects of these connections The authors bring to the forefront perspectives regarding history literature art and religion and engage how they are manifested in these Afro Asian relationships and interactions They investigate what has received little academic engagement outside the acknowledgement that there are groups who are of African and Asian descent In regard to their relationships with the dominant Europeanized center references to both groups typically only view them as singular entities What this interdisciplinary collection presents is a more cohesive approach that strives to place them at the center together and view their relationships in their historical contexts
