Consumptive Chic Carolyn A. Day, 2017-10-05 During the late 18th and early 19th centuries there was a tubercular moment in which perceptions of the consumptive disease became inextricably tied to contemporary concepts of beauty playing out in the clothing fashions of the day With the ravages of the illness widely regarded as conferring beauty on the sufferer it became commonplace to regard tuberculosis as a positive affliction one to be emulated in both beauty practices and dress While medical writers of the time believed that the fashionable way of life of many women actually rendered them susceptible to the disease Carolyn A Day investigates the deliberate and widespread flouting of admonitions against these fashion practices in the pursuit of beauty Through an exploration of contemporary social trends and medical advice revealed in medical writing literature and personal papers Consumptive Chic uncovers the intimate relationship between fashionable women's clothing and medical understandings of the illness Illustrated with over 40 full color fashion plates caricatures medical images and photographs of original garments this is a compelling story of the intimate relationship between the body beauty and disease and the rise of tubercular chic

Oscar Wilde Prefigured Dominic Janes, 2016-11-10 I do not say you are it but you look it and you pose at it which is just as bad Lord Queensbury challenged Oscar Wilde in the courtroom which erupted in laughter accusing Wilde of posing as a sodomite What was so terrible about posing as a sodomite and why was Queensbury's horror greeted with such amusement In Oscar Wilde Prefigured Dominic Janes suggests that what divided the two sides in this case was not so much the question of whether Wilde was or was not a sodomite but whether or not it mattered that people could appear to be sodomites For many intimations of sodomy were simply a part of the amusing spectacle of sophisticated life Oscar Wilde Prefigured is a study of the prehistory of this queer moment in 1895 Janes explores the complex ways in which men who desired sex with men in Britain had expressed such interests through clothing style and deportment since the mid eighteenth century He supplements the well established narrative of the inscription of sodomitical acts into a homosexual label and identity at the end of the nineteenth century by teasing out the means by which same sex desires could be signaled through visual display in Georgian and Victorian Britain Wilde it turns out is not the starting point for public queer figuration He is the pivot by which Georgian figures and twentieth century camp stereotypes meet Drawing on the mutually reinforcing phenomena of dandyism and caricature of alleged effeminates Janes examines a wide range of images drawn from theater fashion and the popular press to reveal new dimensions of identity politics gender performance and queer culture Unsettling Colonial Modernity in Islamicate Contexts Kara Adbolmaleki,Roxana Akhbari,Siavash Saffari,2017-05-11 By focusing on colonial histories and legacies this edited volume breaks new ground in studying modernity in Islamicate contexts From a range of disciplinary perspectives the authors probe colonial modernity as a condition whose introduction into Islamicate contexts was facilitated historically by European encroachment into South Asia the Middle East and Northern Africa They also analyze the various modes through which in Europe itself and in North America by extension people from Islamicate contexts have been and continue to be otherized in the constitution and advancement of the project of modernity The book further brings to light a multiplicity of social political cultural and aesthetic modes of resistance aimed at subverting and unsettling colonial modernity in both Muslim majority and diasporic contexts Material Lives Serena Dyer,2021-01-28 Eighteenth century women told their life stories through making With its compelling stories of women s material experiences and practices Material Lives offers a new perspective on eighteenth century production and consumption Genteel women s making has traditionally been seen as decorative trivial and superficial Yet their material archives forged through fabric samples watercolours dressed prints and dolls garments reveal how women used the material culture of making to record and navigate their lives Material Lives positions women as makers in a consumer society Through fragments of fabric and paper Dyer explores an innovative way of accessing the lives of otherwise obscured women For researchers and students of material culture dress history consumption gender and women s history it offers a rich resource to illuminate the power of needles paintbrushes and scissors Drawing on the Dominant Eye Betty Edwards,2021-11-02 A fascinating follow up to the beloved bestseller Drawing on the Right Side of the Brain with new insights about creativity and our unique way of seeing the world around us Millions of readers have embraced art teacher Betty Edwards s Drawing on the Right Side of the Brain from art students and teachers to established artists corporate trainers and more all discovering a bold new way of drawing and problem solving based on what we see not what we think we see In this highly anticipated follow up Edwards assumptions about the representation of women and the superficiality of female collectors The Fair Women phenomenon complicated gender stereotypes and foregrounded women as cultural arbiters This book uncovers a wide range of texts and images to reveal that Fair Women brought together fashion modernity and gender politics in new and surprising ways It shows that while invariably absent in institutional histories women were vital to the development of the modern blockbuster exhibition This book will be of interest to scholars in art and gender studies museum studies feminist art history women artists and art history

A Forest of Symbols Andrei Pop, 2019-09-27 A groundbreaking reassessment of Symbolist artists and writers that investigates the concerns they shared with scientists of the period the problem of subjectivity in particular In A Forest of Symbols Andrei Pop presents a groundbreaking reassessment of those writers and artists in the late nineteenth century associated with the Symbolist movement For Pop symbolist denotes an art that is self conscious about its modes of making meaning and he argues that these symbolist practices which sought to provide more direct access to viewers and readers by constant revision of its material means of meaning making brushstrokes on a canvas words on a page are crucial to understanding the genesis of modern art The symbolists saw art not as a social revolution but as a revolution in sense and how to conceptualize the world The concerns of symbolist painters and poets were shared to a remarkable degree by theoretical scientists of the period who were dissatisfied with the strict empiricism dominant in their disciplines which made shared knowledge seem unattainable The problem of subjectivity in particular of what in one's experience can and cannot be shared was crucial to the possibility of collaboration within science and to the communication of artistic innovation Pop offers close readings of the literary and visual practices of Manet and Mallarmé of drawings by Ernst Mach William James and Wittgenstein of experiments with color by Bracquemond and Van Gogh and of the philosophical systems of Frege and Russell filling in a startling but coherent picture of the symbolist heritage of modernity and its consequences
