Tourists And Tourism Identifying With People And Places Ethnicity And Identity Series:

Tourists and Tourism Simone Abram, Don Macleod, Jackie D. Waldren, 2021-04-26 The fact that tourism is a major global industry forecast to continue its dramatic growth well into the twenty first century is often cited as a rationale for its analysis However while the connection between individual locations and the world s global markets is an obvious product of tourism the heart of the tourist experience is the construction of identity the relation of the traveller to resident populations the participants views of themselves and others tourists search for authenticity and their testing of boundaries This book significantly furthers current debates on tourism by asking important and vexing questions about the nature of the tourist experience folk museums that forget many of the folk who live in the areas represented the environments and events that are shaped to meet the imagined dreams of tourist spectators the categorization of visitors and returnees who take up residence and participate in the construction of local identities the evolving meanings associated with indigenous culture tradition heritage representation reality and authenticity In renegotiating the definitions of tourism for the new millennium this book represents a major contribution to an emerging and highly topical area of study Kolor. Nr. 2 , Recreation and Parks Betty Van der Smitten, 2005 Gaining an understanding of the recreation and parks profession is crucial to success in the field and to effective leadership within the field Recreation and Parks The Profession is a one of a kind resource that delineates the components that make this complex field a profession Written by well known recreation authority Betty van der Smitten this book defines the marks of the recreation and parks profession and identifies the steps involved in becoming a professional in the field profiles 62 professional organizations within the profession provides a Web site that features a time line of the development of areas and organizations of the profession and the most up to date Web addresses for organizations detailed in the text outlines a comparative history of 15 categories of the recreation and parks field in the United States and Canada and presents a classic to contemporary bibliography of resources that showcases an inclusive body of knowledge on the profession Part I describes recreation and parks as a profession and provides students with steps to lay a solid foundation to become a professional Part II grounds readers with a comparative historical overview of the recreation and parks field from the 1500s to the present day The author divides the field into 15 categories and offers suggestions on how to use the time line Part III profiles 62 professional organizations Each profile includes the organization s mission goals structure history publications services and professional credentialing information In addition it lists the organization s Web sites contact information and other vital information that students use in completing course work in applying for internships and in researching various aspects of the profession Part IV contains a bibliography of selected resources on recreation and parks from classic to the present Recreation and Parks The Profession includes a Web site that not only provides links to other current Web sites for the organizations profiled but it also is linked to a color coded version of the time line The time line is ready to download print and use in the classroom or office This version of the time line provides the most effective way to obtain an overall picture of the historical comparison of the categories in the recreation and parks profession Recreation and Parks The Profession is a unique resource for students professors and professionals in recreation and parks The text brings together the important aspects of the field as a profession Land and Territoriality Michael Saltman,2020-05-26 In the past territorial conflict usually involved major powers seeking hegemony over strategic spaces and resources More recently however the decline of opposing global power blocs has elevated ethnicity to a prime cause of conflict over land This book considers the multiple roles ethnicity plays in fostering territorial conflicts both violent and non violent across the globe While land disputes relating to nationalism have resulted in the loss of human life in some regions in others ties between ethnicity and land are asserted more peacefully Nationalism and challenges to the validity of the links between people and places have caused widespread bloodshed in the disputed territory of Palestine involving competing claims of Arabs and Jews have led to war In North America however indigenous Indians claims to land are settled in the courts rather than through violence This book shows how human behaviour is affected by the multiple ways in which people identify with land topography and natural resources In doing so it highlights the growing trend towards defining physical space in specific ethnic contexts associated with a contemporary world that facilitates global movement

Post-colonial Linkages Between Tourism and Agriculture in Martinique D'Arcy John Dornan,2004 Data was collected by questionnaire in depth interviews intercept surveys participant observation and case study surveys The results of the different analyses have allowed for a greater understanding of the importance and effectiveness of tourism development on the local agricultural structure The consequence of this research will be to assist those who are concerned with the socioeconomic development of the agriculture and tourism sectors of the Martiniquan economy and of elsewhere in the Caribbean

Encyclopedia of Tourism Jafar Jafari,2002-09-11 In fewer than three hundred years tourism has become a global service industry of great economic cultural and political importance Published to critical acclaim the Encyclopedia of Tourism now available as a Routledge World Reference title is the definitive one volume reference source to this challenging multisectoral industry and multi disciplinary field of study Comprising over one thousand entries this volume has been written by an international team of contributors to provide a comprehensive guide to both the manifest and hidden dimensions of tourism It explores the wide range of definitions concepts perspectives and institutions and includes comprehensive coverage of key issues and concepts definitions of all terms and acronyms entries on the significant institutions associations and journals in the field country specific tourism profiles from Greece to Japan and Kenya to Peru thorough analysis of the trends and patterns of tourism development and growth The extensive cross referencing and comprehensive index will assist the reader in making links between the diverse aspects of tourism studies and the suggestions for further reading are invaluable

Migrants of Identity Nigel Rapport,Andrew Dawson,1998-09 Global movement is commonly characterized as one of the quintessential experiences of our age Market forces territorial conflicts and environmental changes uproot an increasing number of people while mass communication travel tourism and a global market of commodities texts tastes fashions and ideologies place individuals more than ever in a global arena As traditional conceptions of individuals as members of stationary fixed and separate societies and cultures no longer convince to what extent does movement become central to individuals self conceptions How do people cultivate negotiate nurture and maintain an identity To what extent do individuals become migrants of identity whose home is movement Defining home as where one best knows oneself this pioneering book explores the various ways in which people perceive themselves to be at home in today s world Through a series of case studies authors show that for a world of travellers labour migrants exiles and commuters home comes to be found in behavioural routines and techniques in styles of dress and address in memories myths and stories in jokes and opinions In short people who live their lives in movement make sense of their lives as movement

The Media and the Tourist Imagination David Crouch,Rhona Jackson,Felix Thompson,2005-06-15 Tourism studies and media studies both address key issues about how we perceive the world They raise acute questions about how we relate local knowledge and immediate experience to wider global processes and they both play a major role in creating our map of national and international cultures Adopting a multidisciplinary approach this book explores the interactions between tourism and media practices within a contemporary culture in which the consumption of images has become increasingly significant A number of common themes and concerns arise and the contributions included are divided between those written from media studies awareness perspective concerned with the way the media imagines travel and tourism written from the point of view of the study of tourism considering how tourism practices are affected or altered by the media that attempt a direct comparison between the practices of tourism and the media Incorporating case study material from the UK the Caribbean Australia the US France and Switzerland this significant text ideal for students of culture media and tourism studies discusses tourism and the media as separate processes through which identity is constructed in relation to space and place

Reimagining Culture Sharon Macdonald,1997-11 Since the 1960s policies to revive minority cultures and languages have flourished But what does it mean to have a cultural identity And are minorities as deeply attached to their languages and traditions as revival policies suppose This book is a sophisticated analysis of responses to the Gaelic renaissance in a Scottish Hebridean community Its description of everyday conceptions of belonging and interpretations of cultural policy takes us into the world of Gaelic playgroups crofting local history religion and community development Historically and theoretically informed this book challenges many of the ways in which we conventionally think about ethnic and national identity This accessible and engaging account of life in this remote region of Europe provides an original and timely contribution to questions of considerable currency in a broad range of social science disciplines

As the first the second edition will provide a comprehensive and integrated survey of the discipline Practicing Anthropology, 2000 Tourism Alternatives Valene L. Smith, William R. Eadington, 2016-11-11 Tourism over the past three decades has grown phenomenally but is continually modified by ongoing events and forces such as increasing or abating pollution and congestion issues, new forms of transportation and altered economic, social or political conditions. The contributions in this work are of great importance to the advancement of knowledge of tourism and as a first theoretical book in the area it establishes a significant benchmark for subsequent tourism research. The volume includes contributions by tourism specialists from Australia, France, Canada, the Netherlands, New Zealand, the United Kingdom and the United States: Richard Butler, Professor of Geography, University of Western Ontario, London, Ontario, Canada; Graham Dann, Senior Lecturer in Sociology, University of West Indies, Bridgetown, Barbados; Emanuel de Kadt, Director, Institute of Development Studies, University of Sussex, Brighton, Sussex, United Kingdom; Bryan Farrell, Professor of Geography, University of California, Santa Cruz; Nelson H. Graburn, Professor of Anthropology, University of California, Berkeley; Martinus J. Kusters, Director of the Netherlands Institute for Tourism and Transport, Breda; Marie Françoise Lanfant, Director of Recherche Scientifique, Paris; Dennison Nash, Professor of Anthropology, University of Connecticut; Douglas G. Pearce, Professor of Geography, University of Canterbury, Christchurch, New Zealand; John Pigram, Associate Professor of Geography and Planning and Executive Director, Center for Water Policy Research, University of New England, Armidale, NSW, Australia; and Geoffrey Wall, Professor of Geography, University of Waterloo, Waterloo, Ontario, Canada. Tourism Alternatives is a provocative and important book that will be of interest to tourism planners at all levels of government and private enterprise and to scholars and students in the fields of tourism and resort development.
