Toward Holy Ground Margaret Guenther, 1995-01-25 The second half of life which we can enter at any age is that time when we begin the process essential to a mature faith discovering who we are exploring our relationship with God and beginning to let go This part of life has a depth and spirituality all its own a need for structure and rule a tolerance of ambiguity an exploration of limitation and mortality and the deep work of discipline and detachment Margaret Guenther brings her insights as a spiritual director to the gifts and opportunities of those of us who are on this journey to holy ground In each chapter Toward Holy Ground explores the practical aspects of spirituality in midlife intercessory prayer a sense of community a rule of life lightheartedness detachment and stripping down preparing for a good death A final chapter discusses practical aspects of ministry to the frail aged

Holy Listening Margaret Guenther, 1992-01-25 Guenther uses the images of the spiritual director as host teacher and midwife to describe the ministry of spiritual direction today She pays particular attention to spiritual direction for women and addresses such down to earth questions as setting time and privacy The stories of real people bring the practice of spiritual direction alive In the pages that follow I will attempt to describe the shape that spiritual direction might take for people of our time aware that the subject is an elusive one I am speaking to the beginner those persons lay or ordained with or without formal theological training who find themselves drawn to this ministry Perhaps they feel the stirring of their own unacknowledged gifts Or perhaps they wonder about receiving direction whether it is a ministry available to ordinary people or reserved for the especially holy I hope some dark corners will be illuminated and some questions answered

Bidwell's work shows what spiritual directors can learn from the short term therapy model especially about enabling people briefly but effectively to learn to listen on their own and with others for God's presence Focusing on how God is already active in the directee's life allows the participants to identify God's action and respond in ways that collaborate with that identified movement of the Spirit
