Speaking the Truth in Love: The Catechism and the New Evangelization Petroc

Willey, Scott R. Sollom, 2020-01-08 It is now just over twenty five years since the publication of the Catechism of the Catholic Church It is also more than thirty five years since St John Paul II called for a new evangelization to be characterized by a new ardor a new expression and new methods The conviction common to the contributors in this volume is that the Catechism flows from just such an ardor Speaking the Truth in Love draws together a group of Catholic scholars and field practitioners to focus on the capacity of the Catechism to be a powerful point for the renewal of Christian catechesis education and culture through its reclamation of the Christian heritage its explanatory power and its compelling articulation of a civilization characterized by faith hope and love A special focus of the book is how the Catechism provides a creative reference point for pedagogical renewal in the Church Since the publication of the Catechism of the Catholic Church in 1992 catechists and pastors of souls have discovered how it has served as a great instrument of the New Evangelization We have awaited this volume as a mature reflection on its vital place in the hope expressed by St John Paul II for a springtime of New Evangelization In these pages you will find testimony on how through the Catechism this springtime is already taking shape Most Rev Mark Davies Bishop of Shrewsbury Province of Birmingham England

Interreligious Curriculum for Peace Education in Nigeria Isaiah Ekundayo Dada, 2019-04-18 Nigeria a country under a military regime for several years transitioned to a civilian regime in May 1999 Since this change violent conflicts between Christians and Muslims have continued to erupt They constitute one of the gravest dangers facing Nigeria a country with a population of 189 million people What have Nigerian religious leaders done about this situation especially in educational circles Have they received formal educational training to understand the causes of this violence and especially how to provide alternatives for more peaceful relations within Nigeria Does the current educational system in Nigeria provide the main ingredients for the promotion of a culture of peace The absence and neglect of interreligious peace education as part of a peace education core program and the lack of an interreligious curriculum for peace education in the training of religious leaders are the two problems contributing towards the lack of effectiveness of religious leaders in promoting less violent and more peaceful living The solution to the problem is proposed in this book entitled Interreligious Curriculum for Peace Education in Nigeria The book develops a one year curriculum building on Yoruba Islamic Christian conceptions of peace and teaches how to create safe caring spiritual peaceful and successful interfaith relationships between all Nigerian religious communities In the long term the book helps to educate religious leaders to contribute in themselves and with the help of their respective religious communities to reducing the growing religious violence in Nigeria The Origins of the Common Core D.

Handbook for Guiding Students in Modern Foreign Languages United States. Office of Education. Division of Elementary and Secondary Education,Abul Hassan K. Sassani,Albert Piltz,Charles Christian Hauch,Duncan Grant Morrison,Ilo Remer,James Peter Steffensen,Seymour Michael Rosen,University Film Foundation,Vera Tomich,Warren Gibson Cutts,Wilhelmina Hill,Nellie Mary Apanasewicz,Don G. Williams,Kenneth August Brunner,William John Gruver,Luella V. Snyder,Sebastian Vincent Martorana,1963 Moral Transformation Andrew J. Wallace,R. D. Rusk,2011 Recent scholarship has challenged post Reformation ideas about the early Christian doctrines of salvation This ground breaking book draws together the conclusions of recent scholarship into a compelling and clear view of the early Christian paradigm of salvation It presents the case that the early Christians focussed not on Christ s death on the cross or saving faith but on moral transformation They saw Jesus as God s appointed teacher prophet and leader who died as a martyr in order to teach them a new way of life Their paradigm of salvation centred upon this way of life taught by Jesus and on following faithfully his example and teachings Part 1 How the Gospels present Jesus explores the way in which the early Christians understood the teaching of Jesus It highlights five themes of Jesus message economics and wealth moral purity social equality the temple system and physical and spiritual affliction It shows why people viewed Jesus as a divinely appointed teacher prophet and leader and saw his death as a martyrdom for his cause and movement Part 2 Doctrines of the early Christians presents the key early Christian doctrines of salvation and shows why several post Reformation doctrines conflict with their views It shows that the early Christians believed God s final judgment is made on the basis of character and conduct They believed that by following Jesus and transforming their lives morally they would obtain positive judgment and resurrection This part shows how the early Christians ideas of faith justification forgiveness and grace all fit into this paradigm Part 3 The importance of Jesus looks at why the early Christians considered Jesus so significant they focussed on the moral transformation he brought to their lives This part highlights what they believed Jesus achieved for them and how they used sacrificial language to explain these beliefs It explores the evidence for viewing Jesus death as a martyrdom and for seeing his resurrection as equally important Part 4 Ideas throughout history shows that Christians held this paradigm of salvation for several centuries

It outlines the key changes that occurred from the 4th century through to the Reformation which moved tradition away from the early Christian ideas Finally it offers a critique of modern post Reformation doctrines of salvation
