Transforming The Stone Preaching Through Resistance To Change:

Transforming the Stone Barbara K. Lundblad, 2001 Barbara Lundblad contends that to preach is to engage a specific community of Christians in a process of gradual growth and change While every parish has its unique attributes and needs there are some basic dynamics at work in moving a congregation through resistance and toward transformation Lundblad focuses our attention on these dynamics as she describes a program of preaching meant to re fashion a people The steps include building a foundation of grace re imaging Jesus naming and honoring the wounds of community members naming and removing obstacles to change describing alternative futures and daring hope The author addresses each of these themes separately in chapters that include a brief introduction two sample sermons and a conclusion This book for preachers provides a model for transformation preaching

Prophetic Preaching Leonora Tubbs Tisdale, 2010-08-09 Where have all the prophets gone And why do preachers seem to shy away from prophetic witness Astute preacher Leonora Tisdale considers these vexing questions while providing guidance and encouragement to pastors who want to recommit themselves to the task of prophetic witness With a keen sensitivity to pastoral contexts Tisdale s work is full of helpful suggestions and examples to help pastors structure and preach prophetic sermons considered by many to be one of the most difficult tasks pastors are called to undertake

Radical Welcome Stephanie Spellers, 2006-08 A theological inspirational and practical guide for congregations that want to move beyond diversity and inclusion to present a vision for the church of the future one where the transforming gifts voices and power of marginalized cultures and groups bring new life to the mainline church

Stand-Up Preaching Jacob D. Myers, 2022-10-06 Few vocations share more in common with preaching than stand up comedy Each profession demands attention to the speaker s bodily and facial gestures tone and inflection timing and thoughtful engagement with contemporary contexts Furthermore both preaching and stand up arise out of creative tension with homiletic or comedic traditions respectively Every time the preacher steps into the pulpit or the comedian steps onto the stage they must measure their words and gestures against their audience s expectations and assumptions They participate in a kind of dance that is at once choreographed and open to improvisation It is these and similar commonalities between preaching and stand up comedy that this book engages Stand Up Preaching does not aim to help preachers tell better jokes The focus of this book is far more expansive Given the recent popularity of comedy specials preachers have greater access to a broad array of emerging comics who showcase fresh comedic styles and variations on comedic traditions Coupled with the perennial Def Comedy Jams on HBO preachers also have ready access to the work of classic comics who have exhibited great storytelling and stage presence This book will offer readers tools to discern what is homiletically significant in historical and contemporary stand up routines equipping them with fresh ways to riff off of their respective preaching traditions and nuanced ways to engage issues of contemporary sociopolitical importance

Preaching to Korean Immigrants Rebecca Seungyoun Jeong, 2022-09-14 In terms of practical theology's critical reflection on marginalized people's wounds in a wider society this book investigates the question How to proclaim the good news in response to first generation Korean immigrants contextual suffering in the United States To answer the question the book starts with investigating Korean immigrant hearers' contextual predicaments in a new land to point out emerging practical theological issues in relation to the practice of preaching In this book the primary subjects are first generation Korean immigrants especially those who have relatively low socio-economic status and struggle with the purpose of their lives as immigrants particularly those whose material dreams have been shattered In order to proclaim the good news this book proposes a more appropriate immigrant theology for in the practice of preaching by reclaiming the priorities of God's future in our lives and confirming God's active identification with Korean immigrant congregations in the depths of their predicament Such reconstructive work for immigrant theology arises in response to their existential hardships marginality ethnic discrimination and relative powerlessness in life While acknowledging both the possibilities and limits of the diverse forms of current Korean immigrant preaching the book then offers a strategic proposal for a new homiletic theory namely a psalmic theological homiletic This proposed homiletic is deeply rooted in the theology of the Psalms and their rhetorical movement This re-envisioned mode of eschatological and prophetic preaching in times of difficulty recovers ancient Israel's psalmic rhetorical tradition that aims toward faith Its theological rhetorical strategy intends to both transform hearers' habitus of living in faith and enhance their hope-filled life through communal anticipation of God's coming future on the margins Specifically this proposed homiletic critically adopts key features from psalms of lament and their typical fourfold theological rhetorical movement i.e. lament retelling a story confessional doxology and obedient vow as now core elements of a revised Korean immigrant preaching practice
