Global Pentecostalism: An Inquiry into the Cultural Dimensions of Globalization Matthias Deininger, 2014-02-01 The rapid global expansion of Pentecostal Christianity is one of the most striking religious phenomena in our contemporary world Today Pentecostalism is by no means some marginal or peculiar denomination within world Christianity It is not simply a niche product in the global religious market but the most dynamic and fastest growing religious movement within the contemporary Christian world From Singapore over Brazil to Ghana Pentecostal Christians are historically and presently rooted in many cultural contexts throughout the world As such Pentecostalism is a religious movement that is both shaped by globalization processes but also a major contributor to the globalization of religion Until recently social scientific approaches to Christianity have often been informed by a rather selective understanding of Christianity stressing its ascetic components premised on a body spirit dualism and seeing its importance mainly as a harbinger of secular modernity Hence where Christianity was studied outside the West it has usually been peripheral and viewed as an alien intrusion undermining local cosmologies However rather than a religious rejection of the world Pentecostalism accommodates to the world and modernity It transcends locality by promulgating a universal imaginary of the world while at the same time incorporating itself successfully into the socio cultural contexts of any new cultures it encounters The fundamental fluidity of the transnational Pentecostal network is conducive for its flexibility to react on the enormous upheavals and changes in a globalized world and to accommodate to them in constructive ways Thus Pentecostalism can be regarded as a paradigmatic case of a glocalised religion it has the ability to adapt itself to local conditions while maintaining and preserving its distinct religious features at the same time This study focuses on the different theoretical attempts made to explain the massive global expansion of Pentecostalism and its relation to broader processes of globalization It discusses to what extent and in what complex ways the Pentecostal movement is interrelated to processes of cultural globalization By looking at the internal religious characteristics of Pentecostal discourse and discursive practices and their articulations within the external circumstances of globalization it tries to untangle some of the complexities that emerge when theorizing the globalization of Pentecostalism

The Spirit of Praise Monique M. Ingalls, Amos Yong, 2015-06-18 In The Spirit of Praise Monique Ingalls and Amos Yong bring together a multidisciplinary scholarly exploration of music and worship in global pentecostal charismatic Christianity at the beginning of the twenty first century. The Spirit of Praise contends that gaining a full understanding of this influential religious movement requires close listening to its songs and careful attention to its patterns of worship. The essays in this volume place ethnomusicological, theological, historical and sociological perspectives into dialogue. By engaging with these disciplines and exploring themes of interconnection, interface and identity within musical and ritual practices, the essays illuminate larger social processes such as globalization, sacralization and secularization as well as the role of religion in social and cultural change. Aside from the editors, the contributors are Peter Althouse, Will Boone, Mark Evans, Ryan R. Gladwin, Birgitta J. Johnson, Jean Ngoya, Kidula Miranda Klaver, Andrew Mall, Kimberly Jenkins Marshall, Andrew M. McCoy, Martijn Oosterbaan, Dave Perkins, Wen Reagan, Tanya Riches, Michael Webb and Michael Wilkinson.

The Diaspora of Brazilian Religions, 2013-03-27 The Diaspora of Brazilian Religions explores the global spread of religions originating in Brazil, a country that has emerged as a major pole of religious innovation and production. Contributors include Ushi Arakaki, Dario Paulo Barrera, Rivera Brenda, Carranza Anthony, D'Andrea Sara, Delamont Alejandro, Frigerio Alberto, Groisman Annick, Hernandez Clara, Mafra Cecilia, Mariz Deirdre, Meintel Carmen, Rial Cristina, Rocha Camila, Sampaio Clara, Saraiva Olivia, Sheringham Neil, Stephens Jos, Claudio Souza Alves, Claudia Swatowski and Manuel A. Csordas,2009-03-31 This innovative collection examines the transnational movements effects and transformations of religion in the contemporary world offering a fresh perspective on the interrelation between globalization and religion Transnational Transcendence challenges some widely accepted ideas about this relationship in particular that globalization can be understood solely as an economic phenomenon and that its religious manifestations are secondary The book points out that religion s role remains understudied and undertheorized as an element in debates about globalization and it raises questions about how and why certain forms of religious practice and intersubjectivity succeed as they cross national and cultural boundaries Framed by Thomas J Csordas s introduction this timely volume both urges further development of a theory of religion and globalization and constitutes an important step toward that theory Spiritual Economies Daromir

Violent Conversion Linda van de Kamp, 2016 Examines Pentecostal conversion as a force of change revealing new insights into its dominant role in global Christianity today There has been an extraordinary growth in Pentecostalism in Africa with Brazilian Pentecostals establishing new transnational Christian connections initiating widespread changes not only in religious practice but in society This book describes its rise in Maputo capital of Mozambique and the sometimes dramatic impact of Pentecostalism on women Here large numbers of urban women are taking advantage of the opportunities Pentecostalism offers to overcome restrictions at home pioneer new life spaces and change their lives through the power of the Holy Spirit Yet conversion can also mean a violent rupturing with tradition with family and with social networks As the pastors encourage women to cut their ties with the past including ancestral spirits they come to see their kin and husbands as imbued with evil powers and many leave their families Conquering spheres that used to be forbidden to them they often live alone as unmarried women sometimes earning more than men of a similar age They are also expected to donate huge sums to the churches often money that they can ill afford bringing new hardships Linda van de Kamp is Assistant Professor in the Department of Sociology University of Amsterdam The Netherlands

Babaylan Sing Back Grace Nono, 2021-11-15 Babaylan Sing Back depicts the embodied voices of Native Philippine ritual specialists popularly known as babaylan These ritual specialists are widely believed to have perished during colonial times or to survive on the margins in the present day They are either persecuted as witches and purveyors of superstition or valorized as symbols of gender equality and anticolonial resistance Drawing on fieldwork in the Philippines and in the Philippine diaspora Grace Nono's deep engagement with the song and speech of a number of living ritual specialists demonstrates Native historical agency in the 500th year anniversary of the contact between the people of the Philippine Islands and the European colonizers their own institutional structures practices and agendas Home Across Borders Jagath Bandara Pathirage,2024-10-08 This book studies how transnational migrants create a sense of home in their host countries It draws on case studies of Sri Lankan migrants living in Australia to argue that home is an existential experience rather than a fixed entity The author looks at how the sense of home arises as a fresh category which is critical in defining one's existentiality in the host society Going beyond the conventional methodological approach of an ethnographer objectivizing other's sense of home into fixed categories the book attempts to foreground the immigrant's articulation of home which evolves parallel to their being It reveals how three important aspects of our lives time space and memory intersect with the trajectories of migration The author also delves into the ways in which migrants engage in building a home as a way of creating materiality in their dwelling practice Unique and compelling the book will be highly useful in studies of diaspora globalisation and transnational migration It will be of interest to students researchers and scholars of anthropology migration and transnational studies as well as sociology and other related disciplines

Fires of Gold Lauren Coyle Rosen,2020-04-21 Fires of Gold is a powerful ethnography of the often shrouded cultural legal political and spiritual forces governing the gold mining industry in Ghana one of Africa's most celebrated democracies Lauren Coyle Rosen argues that significant sources of power have arisen outside of the formal legal system to police adjudicate and navigate conflict in this theater of violence destruction and rebirth These authorities or shadow sovereigns include the transnational mining company collectivized artisanal miners civil society advocacy groups and significant religious figures and spiritual forces from African Islamic and Christian traditions Often more salient than official bodies of government the shadow sovereigns reveal a reconstitution of sovereign power one that in many ways is generated by hidden dimensions of the legal system Coyle Rosen also contends that spiritual forces are central in anchoring and animating shadow sovereigns as well as key forms of legal authority economic value and political contestation This innovative book illuminates how the crucible of gold itself governed by spirits serves as a critical site for embodied struggles over the realignment of the classical philosophical triad the city the soul and the sacred The ^AOxford Handbook of Music and World Christianities Suzel Ana Reily,Jonathan M. Dueck,2016-03-25 The Oxford Handbook of Music and World

Handbook of Religion and the Asian City Peter van der Veer, 2015-05-19 Handbook of Religion and the Asian City highlights the creative and innovative role of urban aspirations in Asian world cities It does not assume that religion is of the past and that the urban is secular but instead points out that urban politics and governance often manifest religious boundaries and sensibilities in short that public religion is politics The essays in this book show how projects of secularism come up against projects and ambitions of a religious nature a particular form of contestation that takes the city as its public arena Questioning the limits of cities like Mumbai Singapore Seoul Beijing Bangkok and Shanghai the authors assert that Asian cities have to be understood not as global models of futuristic city planning but as larger landscapes of spatial imagination that have specific cultural and political trajectories Religion plays a central role in the politics of heritage that is emerging from the debris of modernist city planning Megacities are arenas for the assertion of national and transnational aspirations as Asia confronts modernity Cities are also sites of speculation not only for those who invest in real estate but also for those who look for housing employment and salvation In its potential and actual mobility the sacred creates social space in which they all can meet Handbook of Religion and the Asian City makes the comparative case that one cannot study the historical patterns of urbanization in Asia without paying attention to the role of religion in urban aspirations

Stewart, Andrew Strathern, 2014-01-16 Ritual has emerged as a major focus of academic interest As a concept the idea of ritual integrates the study of behavior both within and beyond the domain of religion Ritual can be both secular and religious in character There is renewed interest in questions such as Why do rituals exist at all What has been and continues to be their place in society How do they change over time Such questions exist against a backdrop of assumptions about development modernization and disenchantment of the world Written with the specific needs of students of religious studies in mind Ritual Key Concepts in Religion surveys the field of ritual studies looking at it both historically within anthropology and in terms of its contemporary relevance to world events
