Travel And Imagination Current Developments In The Geographies Of Leisure And Tourism:

Travel and Imagination: Unsettling imaginations Garth Lean, Russell Staiff, Emma Waterton, 2014 Travel and Imagination Dr Garth Lean, Dr Russell Staiff, Dr Emma Waterton, 2014-04-28 Bringing together geographers sociologists cultural researchers philosophers anthropologists visual researchers archaeologists heritage researchers literary scholars and creative writers this edited collection explores the socio cultural phenomenon of imagination and travel The volume reflects upon imagination in the context of many forms of physical and non physical travel inviting scholars to explore this fascinating yet complex area of inquiry in all of its wonderful colour slipperiness mystery and intrigue The book intends to provide a catalyst for thinking discussion research and writing with the vision of generating a cannon of scholarship on travel and the imagination that is currently absent from the literature European Journal of Tourism Research ,2015-03-01 The European Journal of Tourism Research is an interdisciplinary scientific journal in the field of tourism published by Varna University of Management Bulgaria Its aim is to provide a platform for discussion of theoretical and empirical problems in tourism Publications from all fields connected with tourism such as management marketing sociology psychology geography political sciences mathematics statistics anthropology culture information technologies and others are invited The journal is open to all researchers Young researchers and authors from Central and Eastern Europe are encouraged to submit their contributions Regular Articles in the European Journal of Tourism Research should normally be between 4 000 and 20 000 words Major research articles of between 10 000 and 20 000 are highly welcome Longer or shorter papers will also be considered The journal publishes also Research Notes of 1 500 2 000 words Submitted papers must combine theoretical concepts with practical applications or empirical testing The European Journal of Tourism Research includes also the following sections Book Reviews announcements for Conferences and Seminars abstracts of successfully defended Doctoral Dissertations in Tourism case studies of Tourism Best Practices The European Journal of Tourism Research is published in three Volumes per year The full text of the European Journal of Tourism Research is available in the following databases EBSCO Hospitality and Tourism Complete CABI Leisure Recreation and Tourism ProQuest Research Library Individual articles can be rented via journal s page at DeepDyve The journal is indexed in Scopus and Thomson Reuters Emerging Sources Citation Index The editorial team welcomes your submissions to the European Journal of Tourism Research Travel and Transformation Garth Lean, Russell Staiff, 2016-02-24 Travel and tourism have a long association with the notion of transformation both in terms of self and social collectives What is surprising however is that this association has on the whole remained relatively underexplored and unchallenged with little in the way of a corpus of academic literature surrounding these themes Instead much of the literature to date has focused upon describing and categorising tourism and travel experiences from a supply side perspective with travellers themselves defined in terms of their motivations and interests While the tourism field can lay claim to several significant milestone contributions there have been few recent attempts at a rigorous re theorization of the issues arising from the travel transformation nexus The opportunity to explore the socio cultural dimensions of transformation through travel has thus far been missed Bringing together geographers sociologists cultural researchers philosophers anthropologists visual researchers literary scholars and heritage researchers this volume explores what it means to transform through travel in a modern mobile world In doing so it draws upon a wide variety of traveller perspectives including tourists backpackers lifestyle travellers migrants refugees nomads walkers writers poets virtual travellers and cosmetic surgery patients to unpack a cultural phenomenon that has captured the imagination since the very first works of Western literature Tourism, Creativity and Development Greg Richards, Julie Wilson, 2007-11-07 Addressing a wide range of examples from Europe North America Asia Australia and Africa this title analyses in critical terms the impact and effectiveness of creative strategies and charts the emergence of creative tourism Gender, Tourism Entrepreneurship and Social Policy Anna de Jong, Michael Zisuh Ngoasong, Albert Nsom Kimbu, 2024-11-07 This timely volume is a novel and important contribution to scholarly literature on gender and tourism entrepreneurship utilising feminist and post colonial frameworks to interrogate the role of social policies in facilitating inclusive tourism entrepreneurship Drawing on contributions and case studies from across the Global South and Global North this multi disciplinary collection identifies how regional variations in governance and policy influence the experiences and potentialities of tourism entrepreneurship as a promised avenue for inclusive growth for marginalised identities Problematising universalised constructions of entrepreneurs as necessarily masculine western and driven only by economic imperatives that seek to fix and dislocate entrepreneurial support this volume takes focus with place based approaches to explore the intersections between identity tourism entrepreneurship and social policy It is this geographically informed perspective that seeks to account for the complexity of entrepreneurial experience and the role of social policy within this that constitutes an original contribution to the field The focus on gender and social policy reflects the increasing importance of tourism entrepreneurship within the context of the UNWTOs Sustainable Development Goals This book will be a pivotal resource for students researchers academics and policy makers in tourism gender studies development studies sustainability and business The Media and the Tourist Imagination David Crouch, Rhona Jackson, Felix Thompson, 2005-06-15 Tourism studies and media studies both address key issues about how we perceive the world They raise acute questions about how we relate local knowledge and immediate experience to wider global processes and they both play a major role in creating our map of national and international cultures Adopting a multidisciplinary approach this book explores the interactions between tourism and media practices within a contemporary culture in which the consumption of images has become increasingly significant A number of common themes and concerns arise and the contributions included are divided between those written from media studies awareness perspective concerned with the way the media imagines travel and tourism written from the point of view of the study of tourism considering how tourism practices are affected or altered by the media that attempt a direct comparison between the practices of tourism and the media Incorporating case study material from the UK the Caribbean Australia the US France and Switzerland this significant text ideal for students of culture media and tourism studies discusses tourism and the media as separate processes through which identity is constructed in relation to space and place

Neoliberalism and the Political Economy of Tourism Jan Mosedale, 2016-03-10 Tourism has become increasingly shaped by neoliberal policies yet the consequences of this neoliberalisation are relatively under explored This book provides a wide ranging inquiry into the particular manifestations of different variants of neoliberalism highlighting its uneven geographical development and the changing dynamics of neoliberal policies in order to explain and evaluate the effects of neoliberal processes on tourism Covering a variety of different aspects of neoliberalism and tourism the chapters investigate how different types of tourism are used as part of more general neoliberalisation agendas how neoliberalism differs according to the geographic context the importance of discourse in shaping neoliberal practices and the different approaches of putting the neoliberal ideology into practice Aiming to initiate debates about the connections between neoliberalism and tourism and advance further research avenues this book makes a timely contribution which discusses the relationships between markets nation states and societies from a social science perspective Neoliberalism is considered as a political economic ideology as variants of the global neoliberal project as discourse and practices through which neoliberalism is enacted

Sacred Mobilities Avril Maddrell, Alan Terry, 2016-03-03 This collection draws on the Mobilities approach to look afresh at notions of the sacred where they intersect with people objects and other things on the move Consideration of a wide range of spiritual meanings and practices also sheds light on the motivations and experiences associated with particular mobilities Drawing on rich situated case studies this multi disciplinary collection discusses what mobility in the social sciences arts and humanities can tell us about movements and journeys prompted by religious more broadly spiritual and secular sacred practices and priorities Problematising the fixity of sacred places and times as territorially and temporally bounded entities that exist in opposition to profane everyday life this collection looks at the intersection between the embodied emotional spiritual experience of places travel belief practices and communities It is this geographically informed perspective on the interleaving of religious spiritual secular notions of the sacred with the material and more than representational attributes of associated mobilities and related practices which constitutes this volume s original contribution to the field

Moral Encounters in Tourism Mary Mostafanezhad, Kevin Hannam, 2016-04-15 This first full length treatment of the role of morality in tourism examines how the tourism encounter is also fundamentally a moral encounter Drawing upon interdisciplinary perspectives leading and new authors in the field address topics that range from volunteer tourism to fertility tourism to reveal new insights into the ways tourism encounters are implicated in and contribute to broader moral reconfigurations in Western and non Western contexts Illustrating the role of power and power relations in tourism encounters within different political economic environmental and cultural contexts the authors in this anthology analyse theoretically and empirically the implications of the privileging of some moralities at the expense of others Key themes include the moral consumption of tourism experiences embodiment in tourism encounters environmental moralities as well as methodological aspects of morality in tourism research Crossing disciplinary and chronological boundaries Moral Encounters in Tourism provides a much anticipated overview of this new interdisciplinary terrain and offers possible routes for new research on the intersection of morality and tourism studies Catherine Palmer, Jacqueline Tivers, 2018-07-27

Creating Heritage for Tourism What does heritage mean in the twenty first century Traditional ideas of heritage involve places where objects landscapes people and ideas are venerated and reproduced over time as an inheritance for future generations To speak of heritage is to speak of a relationship between the past the present and the future However it is a past recreated for economic gain hence sectors such as culinary tourism ecotourism cultural tourism and film tourism have employed the heritage label to attract visitors This interdisciplinary book furthers understanding on how heritage is socially constructed interpreted and experienced within different geographic and cultural contexts in both Western and non Western settings Subjects discussed include Welsh linguistic heritage tango mushroom tourism Turkish coffee literary tourism and the techniques employed to construct tourist accommodation By focusing upon heritage creation in the context of tourism the book moves beyond traditional debates about authentic heritage to focus on how something becomes heritage for use in the present This timely volume will be of interest to students and researchers in tourism heritage studies geography museum studies and cultural studies Catherine Palmer, Jacqueline Tivers, 2018-07-27

Trust, Tourism Development and Planning Robin Nunkoo, Stephen L.J. Smith, 2014-08-07 The dynamics of trust and distrust are central to understanding modern society social relations and development processes However numerous studies suggest that societal trust and citizen's trust in government and its institutions are on the decline challenging the legitimacy of government and leading to an undemocratic and unsustainable form of development Recognizing its importance the authors for the first time situate trust within the context of tourism development and planning This volume discusses trust in tourism from different yet intrinsically connected perspectives Chapters review how diminishing societal trust may have adversely affected tourism planning systems the role of trust in good tourism governance and sustainable tourism how trust can be used as a facilitator of participatory tourism planning political trust in tourism institutions power and how tourism development can be a basis for trust creation among society members by using social capital theory In addition a final section on Researching Trust in Tourism Development means that readers are not only provided a thorough theoretical framework on trust and an understanding of its importance for sustainable tourism and good governance of the sector but also methodological aspects of research on trust in the context of tourism development and planning This significant volume is valuable reading for students academics and researchers interested in tourism development and planning

Tourism and Citizenship Raoul Bianchi, Marcus Stephenson, 2014-02-24 More than sixty years since the 1948 Universal Declaration of Human Rights first enshrined the right to freedom of movement in an international charter of human rights the issue of mobility and the right to tourism itself have become increasingly significant areas of scholarly interest and political debate However despite the fact that cross border travel implies certain citizenship rights as well as the material capacity to travel the manifold intersections between tourism and citizenship have not received the attention they deserve in the literature This book endeavours to fill this gap by being the first to fully examine the role of tourism in wider society through a critically informed sociological reflection on the unfolding relationships between international tourism and distinct renderings of citizenship with particular emphasis on the ideological and political alignments between the freedom of movement and the right to travel The text weaves its analysis of citizenship and travel in the context of addressing large scale societal transformations engendered by globalization neoliberalism and the geopolitical realignments between states as well as comprehending the internal reconfiguring of the relationship between citizens and states themselves By doing so it focuses on key themes including tourism and social citizenship rights race culture and minority rights states markets and the freedom of movement tourism peace and geo politics consumerism and class and ethical tourism global citizenship and cosmopolitanism The book concludes that the advancement of genuinely democratic and just forms of tourism must be commensurate with demands for distributive justice and a democratic politics of mobility encompassing all of humanity This timely and significant contribution to the sociology and politics of international tourism through the lens of citizenship is a must read for students and scholars in both in the fields of tourism and social science The royalties received from this book will be donated to the International Porter Protection Group Scuba Diving Tourism

Ghazali Musa,Kay Dimmock,2013-06-26 This volume offers new insight into an important and largely under examined area of marine leisure and tourism scuba diving tourism Knowledge of scuba diving has long been hidden among broad discussions of water based sports and activities and this focused book aims to shed further understanding and knowledge on this popular international activity The book examines the current issues central to research into and management of scuba diving Tourism from multidisciplinary perspectives such as health and safety climate change policy and regulation and the recreation leisure context It further reveals critical management issues of economic environmental and socio cultural impacts related to scuba diving tourism which extends to the influence of climate change on the industry s operations and future This significant volume which conceptualizes the issues surrounding scuba diving tourism now and in the future is written by leading experts in this field and will be valuable reading for all those interested in marine leisure and tourism Peace through Tourism

Lynda-ann Blanchard,Freya Higgins-Desbiolles,2013-08-15 Peace through tourism refers to a body of analysis which suggests tourism may contribute to cross cultural understanding tolerance and even peace between communities and nations What has been largely missing to date is a sustained critique of the potential and capacities of tourism to foster global peace This timely volume fills this void by providing a critical look at tourism in order to ascertain its potential as a social force to promote human rights justice and peace It presents an alternative characterisation of the possibilities for peace through tourism embedding an understanding of the phenomenon in a deep grounding in multi disciplinary perspectives and envisioning tourism in the context of human rights social justice and ecological integrity Such an approach engages the ambivalence and dichotomy of views held on peace tourism by relying on a pedagogy of peace It integrates a range of perspectives from scholars from many disciplinary backgrounds non governmental organisations NGOs tourism industry operators and community all united by an interest in critical approaches to understanding peace through tourism Additionally diverse geo political contexts are represented in this book from the USA India Japan Israel Palestine Kenya the Koreas Indonesia East Timor and Indigenous Australia Written by leading academics this groundbreaking book will provide students researchers and academics a sustained critique of the potential and capacities of tourism to foster global peace
