Nobody's Psychic Dani Lamorte, 2025-09-30 In Nobody's Psychic Dani Lamorte sets out to define his sense of self and the world in a discordant collection of memories both vivid and surreal Raised in a church driven by apocalyptic paranoia and homophobic fear Lamorte had an upbringing marked by a unique tension between wanting to remain invisible and needing to be observed These competing desires pushed him toward performance drag and gardening each a reflection of the struggle to find and maintain an image With every encounter whether in religion gender roles or the natural world from a prophetess predicting destruction to the kaleidoscope of a drag queen s sequins Lamorte delves into what it means to have an image inside and outside the gaze of others Nobody's Psychic defies easy answers inviting readers to contemplate life s contradictions in essays that navigate the complexities of feeling unseen and sometimes nonexistent Interlacing personal reflections with broader cultural and spiritual insights Lamorte creates a space for change identity and the elusive nature of time This is not a story with a resolution but one that challenges us to sit with the uncertainties of who we are and where we are headed

Danville-Riverside Bridge Project, Montour and Northumberland Counties, 1996 Trees of Pennsylvania, the Atlantic States, and the Lake States Hui-Lin Li, 2017-01-30 Trees are the glory of the American landscape A text of impeccable authority drawings of matchless precision and delicacy and fine photographs combine to make this beautiful edition an indispensable guide and valued possession Pennsylvania Penn s Woods is the meeting place of America s southern and northern tree flora magnolia and hemlock Spanish oak and yellow birch flourish alike This extraordinarily complete handbook covers all trees native to the state and most naturalized species Appalachian Autumn Marcia Bonta, 2011-12-01 Like her popular Appalachian Spring Marcia Bonta s new book offers a day by day account of the changing world of nature in the mountains of central Pennsylvania This time she chronicles the beauties of the autumn months as she walks the familiar roads and trails of her 500 acre mountain top farm noting the minute transformations of the season as well as the more dramatic ones But her quiet sojourn in the natural world is shattered by the intrusion of a lumberman who insists upon clear cutting a neighboring property The massive bulldozers and skidders crush every tree and shrub weed and wildflower leaving only rubble in their wake The Bontas become involved in a lawsuit challenging this violation of the land they love and seeking to protect their own property from the effects of the logging Autumn is a bittersweet time Bonta writes a season of good byes when after the flaming leaves fall and start the inevitable process of decay we are left with only the bare bones of nature Fleeing from the whine of chain saws and the crash of falling trees she roams the mountain top watching wild turkeys forage in the field flocks of migrating birds feast on wild grapes does and bucks eye each other in their mating ritual But she can never completely evade the insistent question What is the relationship between humans and nature Does ownership give one the right to do as one pleases with the land and all the flora and fauna living on it Does the natural world exist solely to satisfy mankind s desire for profit The answer is not simple it cannot be drawn in winter s black and white But the issues must be of concern to every thoughtful person Marcia Bonta s Appalachian Autumn offers a new voice in the ongoing debate
