Zelfportret Als Legkaart:

Making the Personal Political Jane Fenoulhet, 2017-12-02 Making the Personal Political is an interdisciplinary account of a now forgotten success story in the history of the society and culture of the Netherlands While Dutch women had apparently retreated into domesticity after gaining the vote in 1919 women writers were out there in the market place selling the inside story of women's lives Eight case studies of women writers between 1919 and 1970 trace the unconscious politics of the personal in narratives of women's identity and experience through close readings of texts located in the culture of the time Jane Fenoulhet whose knowledge of Dutch literature and culture in the twentieth century is unparalleled in the English speaking world tracks the public representation of women's private project of self development to the moment when the personal is finally accepted as politically important in Dutch society

Women's Writing from the Low Countries

1880-2010 Jacqueline Bel, Thomas Vaessens, 2010 This first of its kind anthology offers the English speaking readers a unique chance to become acquainted with the leading Dutch and Flemish women writers since the 1880s Covering a representative range of public and private genres from poetry critical essays travel literature and political commentary to diaries and journals the fifty six texts are arranged chronologically and are accompanied by brief introductions chronologies and brief guides to the authors and works An important contribution to our understanding of modern European literary canon and the long march of feminist history and literature Dutch ed Schrijvende vrouwen 978 90 8964 216 5

The Dutch Empire between Ideas and Practice, 1600-2000 René Koekoek, Anne-Isabelle Richard, Arthur Weststeijn, 2019-11-18 This volume explores the intellectual history of the Dutch Empire from a long term and global perspective analysing how ideas and visions of empire took shape in imperial practice from the seventeenth century to the present day Through a series of case studies the volume critically unearths deep rooted conceptions of Dutch imperial exceptionalism and shows how visions of imperial rule were developed in metropolitan and colonial contexts and practices Topics include the founding of the Dutch chartered companies for colonial trade the development of commercial and global visions of empire in Europe and Asia the continuities and ruptures in imperial ideas and practices around 1800 and the practical making of empire in colonial court rooms and radio broadcasting Demonstrating the relevance of a long term approach to the Dutch Empire the volume showcases how the intellectual history of empire can provide fresh light on postcolonial repercussions of empire and imperial rule Chapter 1 Chapter 3 Chapter 7 and Chapter 8 of this book are available open access under a CC BY 4.0 license at link.springer.com
