embodies what it is to be a contemporary African man Of Ghanaian and German heritage he was raised in Lesotho and moved to South Africa at the age of 27 Forever curious Kojo has the enviable ability to simultaneously experience moments intimately and engage people and their views sincerely while remaining detached enough to think through his experiences critically He has earned a reputation as a thinker someone who lives outside the box and free of the labels that society seeks to place on us Listen to Your Footsteps is an honest and at times raw collection of essays from a son a father a husband a brother and a man deeply committed to doing the internal work Kojo reflects on losing his mother as a toddler being raised by his father forming an identity living as an immigrant his tussles with substance abuse as well as his experiences of fatherhood marriage and making a career in a fickle industry He gives an extended glimpse into the experiences that make boys become men and the battles that make men discover what they are made of all the while questioning what it means to be a man
