When Species Meet 07 By Haraway Donna J Paperback 2007:

When Species Meet Donna J. Haraway, 2013-11-30 In 2006 about 69 million U S households had pets giving homes to around 73.9 million dogs 90.5 million cats and 16.6 million birds and spending more than 38 billion dollars on companion animals As never before in history our pets are truly members of the family But the notion of companion species knotted from human beings animals and other organisms landscapes and technologies includes much more than companion animals In When Species Meet Donna J Haraway digs into this larger phenomenon to contemplate the interactions of humans with many kinds of critters especially with those called domestic At the heart of the book are her experiences in agility training with her dogs Cayenne and Roland but Haraway's vision here also encompasses wolves chickens cats baboons sheep microorganisms and whales wearing video cameras From designer pets to lab animals to trained therapy dogs she deftly explores philosophical cultural and biological aspects of animal human encounters In this deeply personal yet intellectually groundbreaking work Haraway develops the idea of companion species those who meet and break bread together but not without some indigestion A great deal is at stake in such meetings she writes and outcomes are not guaranteed There is no assured happy or unhappy ending socially ecologically or scientifically There is only the chance for getting on together with some grace Ultimately she finds that respect curiosity and knowledge spring from animal human associations and work powerfully against ideas about human exceptionalism Geographies of Us Sondra Fraleigh, Shannon Rose

Riley, 2024-03-13 Geographies of Us Ecosomatic Essays and Practice Pages is the first edited collection in the field of ecosomatics With a combination of essays and practice pages that provide a variety of scholarly creative and experience based approaches for readers the book brings together both established and emergent scholars and artists from many diverse backgrounds and covers work rooted in a dozen countries The essays engage an array of crucial methodologies and critical theoretical perspectives including practice based research in the arts especially in performance and dance studies critical theory ecocriticism Indigenous knowledges material feminist critique quantum field theory and new phenomenologies Practice pages are shorter chapters that provide readers a chance to engage creatively with the ideas presented across the collection This book offers a multidisciplinary perspective that brings together work in performance as research phenomenology and dance movement this is one of its significant contributions to the area of ecosomatics The book will be of interest to anyone curious about matters of embodiment ecology and the environment especially artists and students of dance performance and somatic movement education who want to learn about ecosomatics and environmental activists who want to learn more about integrating creativity the arts and movement into their work Integrative Contemporary Art and Science Practices J.D. Talasek, Barbara Stauffer, 2025-05-23 Contributors investigate the motivation behind scientifically embedded contemporary art practices as well as art based scientific research and engagement that attempt to shape society This edited volume reflects the rapidly developing practices comprising integrative and collaborative work across different knowledge domains including art and science the benefit of those processes to the individual to knowledge production and its complexity and ultimately the benefits to society why it is worth doing The book will provide an overview of the factors in which the exhibition and performance of scientifically engaged art inside and outside of traditional museum spaces has instigated cultural and aesthetic transformations and social interactions while presenting a variety of opportunities for educators scientists artists and the interested public to critically expand its engagement The book is intended for scholars interested in collaborative and or integrative work who study research methodology art history science and museum studies

Imagining LatinX Intimacies Edward A. Chamberlain, 2020-08-07 Imagining Latinx Intimacies addresses the ways that artists and writers resist the social forces of colonialism displacement and oppression through crafting incisive and inspiring responses to the problems that queer Latinx peoples encounter in both daily lives and representation such as art film poetry popular culture and stories Instead of keeping quiet queer Latinx artists and writers have spoken up as a way of challenging stereotypes prejudice and violence occurring in communities ranging from Puerto Rico to sites within the mainland United States as well as transnational flows of migration Such migrations are explored in several ways including the movement of queer people from Chile to the United States To address these matters artistic thinkers such as Gloria Anzaldúa Frances Negrón Muntaner and Rane Arroyo have challenged such socio political problems by imagining intimate social and intellectual spaces that resist the status quo like homophobic norms laws and policies that hurt families and communities Building on the intellectual thought of researchers such as Jorge Duany Adriana de Souza e Silva and José Esteban Muñoz this book explains how the imagined spaces of Latinx LGBTQ peoples are blueprints for addressing our tumultuous present and creating a better future

The Oxford Handbook of Music and Disability Studies Blake Howe, Stephanie Jensen-Moulton, Neil William Lerner, Joseph Nathan Straus, 2016 Like race gender and sexuality disability is a social and cultural construction Music musicians and music making simultaneously embody and shape representations and narratives of disability Disability culturally stigmatized minds and bodies is one of the things that music in all times and places can be said to be about

Ecocriticism in the Modernist Imagination Kelly Sultzbach, 2016-08-24 Sultzbach's book provides a wide ranging investigation into how the works of Forster Woolf and Auden helped shape our environmental imagination

Ecopoetics and the Global Landscape Isabel Sobral Campos, 2018-12-27 Ecopoetics and the Global Landscape Critical Essays surveys ecopoetry from a global perspective across different historical epochs Its comparative approach foregrounds the importance of ecopoetics within the context of distinct national literatures and cultures to reveal the ubiquitous intersection of poetry with ecocriticism The collection analyzes environmental problems resulting from the legacies of colonialism and focuses on issues of environmental justice and indigenous issues as well as on the intersection of genocide studies and environmentalism It also examines ecologically informed modes of relating to the world In particular it engages with interactions between the human and nonhuman as well as mind and matter Finally it broadens the scope of place to include both the absent land of exiled peoples and the urban built environment Animal Oppression and Capitalism David Nibert, 2017-09-08 This important two volume set unapologetically documents how capitalism results in the oppression of animals ranging from fish and chickens to dogs elephants and kangaroos as well as in environmental destruction vital resource depletion and climate change Most traditional narratives portray humanity's use of other animals as natural and necessary for human social development and present the idea that capitalism is generally a positive force in the world But is this worldview accurate or just a convenient easy to accept way to ignore what is really happening a systematic oppression of animals that simultaneously results in environmental destruction and places insurmountable obstacles in the path to a sustainable and peaceful future David Nibert's Animal Oppression and Capitalism is a timely two volume set that calls into question the capitalist system at a point in human history when inequality and the imbalance in the distribution of wealth are growing domestically and internationally Expert contributors show why the oppression of animals particularly the use of other animals as food is increasingly being linked to unfavorable climate change and the depletion of fresh water and other vital resources Readers will also learn about the tragic connections between the production of animal products and global hunger and expanded regional violence and warfare and they will understand how many common human health problems including heart attacks strokes and various forms of cancer develop as a result of consuming animal products Lost Unicorns of the Velvet Revolutions: Heterotopias of the Seminar Miglena Nikolchina, 2013

Concerned with the institution of the seminar a meeting for philosophical face to face oral discussion outside of the confines of Communist academia which evolved into social movements on the street in the Eastern Europe of the 1980s and 1990s

Future Horizons Sarah Roger, Paul Barrett, 2023-06-13 Across more than twenty chapters Future Horizons explores the past present and future of digital humanities research teaching and experimentation in Canada Bringing together work by established and emerging scholars this collection presents contemporary initiatives in digital humanities alongside a reassessment of the field's legacy to date and conversations about its future potential It also offers a historical view of the important yet largely unknown digital projects in Canada Future Horizons offers deep dives into projects that enlist a diverse range of approaches from digital games to makerspaces sound archives to born digital poetry visual arts to digital textual analysis and that work with both historical and contemporary Canadian materials The essays demonstrate how these diverse approaches challenge disciplinary knowledge by enabling humanities researchers to ask new questions The collection challenges the idea that there is either a single definition of digital humanities or a collective national identity By looking to digital engagements with race Indigeneity gender and sexuality not to mention history poetry and nationhood this volume expands what it means to work at the intersection of digital humanities and humanities in Canada today Available formats trade paperback accessible PDF and accessible ePub
