Knowles, 2021-06-25 With the ideological shift to neoliberalism and the introduction of austerity measures following the Global Recession the UK has experienced divestment in the National Health Service growing food bank use increasing housing problems and growing inequities in access to digital services These inequities have been both highlighted and compounded by the COVID 19 pandemic Questioning the ideology that economic growth should be prioritised above all else this book demonstrates that an alternative approach to social policy based on human rights and social justice is necessary to tackle the existing systemic inequalities brought to the foreground by COVID 19 Meeting the "other" Rieki Crins, 2008 Bhutan is unique amongst the small group of nations in the Himalayas It is peaceful and democratic Above all it emphasizes happiness that is not necessarily associated with possession of material goods It protects the environment by eschewing mass tourism that could trample its fragile land Bhutan is also known for creating the world's one and only Index of Happiness as a measure of wellbeing for its people which it prefers over the more materialistic and widely used index of Gross Domestic Product GDP In 1990 the Bhutanese government invited Western scientists to conduct research in one of Bhutan's most remote villages Bhutan is a country where spirituality is everywhere where the logic of the animist Buddhist religion ordains that life is experienced entirely in the present and where human gender is conceived of as part and parcel of the cosmos The people of Bhutan identify this experience explicitly as sustainability Meeting the New Iraq Juman Kubba, 2013-08-20 This book is about the new Iraq the Iraq that many say has finally after many years become a democracy which has brought freedoms and rights chaos and confusion The author relates lending her skills to help Iraq progress toward a better future She also gives an account of her feelings and experiences upon returning to her native city Baghdad with each new encounter provoking old memories and building new foundations and her view of the current Iraq from the perspective of someone who has lived in the United States for three decades Finally she offers her thoughts on where Americans and Iraqis are headed together with their lives intermingled as never before because of the recent war Transactions of the Annual
