Tolerance Diversity Ireland North South:

Tolerance and diversity in Ireland, north and south Iseult Honohan, Nathalie Rougier, 2015-11-01 Examines the treatment of cultural and religious diversity indigenous and immigrant on both sides of the Irish border to analyse the current state of tolerance and the kinds of policies that need to be developed to respect diversity Northern Ireland and the crisis of anti-racism Chris Gilligan, 2018-09-25 Racism and sectarianism makes an important contribution to the discussion on the crisis of anti racism in the United Kingdom The book looks at two phenomena that are rarely examined together racism and sectarianism The author argues that thinking critically about sectarianism and other racisms in Northern Ireland helps to clear up some confusions regarding race and ethnicity Many of the prominent themes in debates on racism and anti racism in the UK today the role of religion racism and terrorism community cohesion were central to discussions on sectarianism in Northern Ireland during the conflict and peace process The book provides a sustained critique of the Race Relations paradigm that dominates official anti racism and sketches out some elements of an emancipatory anti racism Planning Law and Practice in Northern Ireland Stephen McKay, Michael Murray, 2017-02-03 Each of the jurisdictions within the UK and Ireland is refining the operational characteristics of its planning system and while there are some common practices it is also the case that there are substantive divergences In each territory the planning template is fundamentally shaped within a dynamic legal context and thus students and practitioners of planning need accessible informative and up to date literature dealing with this matter Planning Law and Practice in Northern Ireland provides an interpretive narrative of the statutes case law and planning procedures that have shaped its planning system with due regard being given to the combined influences emanating from European Union UK and Northern Ireland planning governance The contributions in this book explore the evolution of planning in Northern Ireland and discuss key facets of development management enforcement environmental law equality property law and professional ethics This book makes an important contribution to the wider literature in this field and provides an essential reference to students planning practitioners and researchers A Critical Approach to Youth Sector Peacebuilding Andy Hamilton, Mark Hammond, Eliz McArdle, 2025-04-17 Using Northern Ireland as a compelling case study this book offers a critique of peacebuilding approaches with young people in contested societies In the north of Ireland the spectre of murderous violence is increasingly distant for peace agreement generations However legacies stemming from the 30 years of protracted conflict are ever present in young people s segregated lives This book presents four distinctive viewpoints that inform contemporary peacebuilding work with young people revealing divergent purposes and conflicting aspirations Offering a new model to understand peacebuilding the authors urge peacebuilding communities around the globe to embrace an increasingly politicising and participative youth peace praxis Critical Perspectives on Hate Crime Amanda Haynes, Jennifer Schweppe, Seamus Taylor, 2017-05-15 This book provides a unique insight into the lived realities of hate crime in Ireland and its treatment within the criminal justice system The significance of the Irish case is contextualised within the European and global policy contexts and an overview of hate crime in Ireland both north and south and its differential treatment in each jurisdiction s criminal justice system is offered Presenting empirically grounded analyses of the experiences of commonly targeted identity groups in an Irish context this study also draws upon their exposure to hate crime and challenges encountered in seeking redress Combining theory research and practice this book represents legal social cultural and political concerns pertinent to understanding preventing deterring and combatting hate crime across Ireland It incorporates a variety of perspectives on the hate crime paradigm and addresses many of the cutting edge debates arising in the field of hate studies Contributions from Irish and international academic researchers are complemented by applied pieces authored by practitioners and policy makers actively engaged with affected communities This is a progressive and informed text which will be of great value to activists policy makers and scholars of hate crime and criminal justice

Ethnographic Methods in Gypsy, Roma and Traveller Research Martin Fotta, Paloma Gay y Blasco, 2024-01-29 EPDF and EPUB available Open Access under CC BY NC ND licence This edited volume discusses the methodological and ethical challenges that researchers are currently facing whilst attempting to document the impact of the COVID 19 pandemic on Gypsy Roma and Traveller communities throughout Europe

Reconciliation and Building a Sustainable Peace Cathy Bollaert, 2019-02-02 This book explores how competing worldviews impact on intergroup relations and building a sustainable peace in culturally diverse societies It raises the question of what happens in a culturally diverse society when competing values and ways of interpreting reality collide and what this means for peace building and the goal of reconciliation Moreover it provides a valuable and needed contribution to how peace building interventions can become more sustainable if tied into local values and embedded in a society s system of meaning making The book engages with questions relating to the extent transitional policies speak to universal values and individualist societies and the implications this might have for how they are implemented in collective societies with different values and forms of social organisation It raises the question of cultural equality and transformation and whether or not this is something that needs to be addressed within peace building theory It argues that inculcating worldview into peace building theory and practice is a vital part of restoring dignity and promoting healing among victims and formerly oppressed groups This book therefore makes an important contribution to what is at best a partially researched topic by providing a deeper understanding of how identity and culture intersect with peace building when seeking to build a sustainable peace

Ireland North and South Richard Breen, Anthony Francis Heath, Christopher T. Whelan, 1999 In this first ever systematic study of the social economic and political development of the two Irelands since partition a distinguished group of scholars have worked together to provide answers that are essential for any understanding of current political events Some important areas of convergence are demonstrated especially in fertility but in other respects the two Irelands remain distinct

The Musical Traditions of Northern Ireland and Its Diaspora David Cooper, 2010 Northern Ireland remains a

divided community in which traditional culture is widely understood as a marker of religious affiliation and ethnic identity David Cooper provides an analysis of the characteristics of traditional music performed in Northern Ireland as well as an ethnographic and ethnomusicological study of a group of traditional musicians from County Antrim In particular he offers a consideration of the cultural dynamics of Northern Ireland with respect to traditional music

Gender and Violence in Romani and Traveller Lives Paloma Gay Blasco, Iliana Sarafian, Raluca Roman, 2024-07-26 This is the first interdisciplinary collection to analyse the place of Romanies and Travellers within contemporary Europe through the lens of gender and violence In hospitals schools and social assistance centres in encounters with humanitarian agencies and the police and in media and state representations violence against Romanies and Travellers is always gendered The contributors disentangle the array of relations expectations and beliefs that make gendered violences against Romanies and Travellers appear necessary unavoidable or appropriate They examine forms of gendered violence that may develop within Romani and Traveller communities against this framework of oppression and attrition The volume foregrounds the methodological and ethical challenges involved in researching gendered violences in Romani and Traveller contexts questioning the relationships between gender violence and other experiences and concepts such as marginalisation oppression exclusion harm slow death social suffering and necropolitics The volume is grounded in reflexive feminist standpoints with a collaborative ethos that offers proposals for further analysis policy development and engaged practice It contributes to the theorising of gendered violence in the social sciences by assessing dominant models and perspectives in the light of overlooked Romani and Traveller experiences and is particularly relevant to scholars from anthropology gender studies sociology and social work
