Textbook of Palliative Medicine Eduardo Bruera, Irene Higginson, Charles F von Gunten, 2009-01-30 Textbook of Palliative Medicine provides an alternative truly international approach to this rapidly growing specialty This textbook fills a niche with its evidence based multi professional approach and global perspective ensured by the international team of editors and contributing authors In the absence of an international curriculum for the study of palliative medicine this textbook provides essential guidance for those both embarking upon a career in palliative medicine or already established in the field and the structure and content have been constructed very much with this in mind With an emphasis on providing a service anywhere in the world including the important issue of palliative care in the developing nations Textbook of Palliative Medicine offers a genuine alternative to the narrative approach of its competitors and is an ideal complement to them It is essential reading for all palliative care physicians in training and in practice as well as palliative care nurses and other health professionals in the palliative care team Innovations in End-of-life Care Mildred Z. Solomon, Anna Romer, Karen S. Heller, 2002

Pain and Palliative Care in the Developing World and Marginalized Populations M.r. Rajagapol, 2004-03-31 Essential information for anyone involved in palliative care programs for deprived patients In this comprehensive resource leading healthcare professionals describe pioneering work on the front lines of pain and palliative care service planning and implementation for underserved populations Pain and Palliative Care in the Developing World and Marginalized Populations A Global Challenge explores the challenges and barriers preventing satisfactory pain management for patients who urgently need it This book provides you with true accounts of palliative care programs from around the world to help you meet the needs of disadvantaged clients This essential volume includes a Foreword written by a world leader in palliative care Jan Stjernsward Former Chief of the Cancer and Palliative Care Program of the World Health

Organization and currently International Director of the Oxford International Centre for Palliative Care in the United Kingdom Pain and Palliative Care in the Developing World and Marginalized Populations A Global Challenge addresses issues of vital importance for the global health care community such as Why do so many people in the developing world suffer excruciating pain for months and years when simple inexpensive medication could make them comfortable They get MRI scans why don t they have access to palliative care Why do some palliative care programs fail to reach the needy How could a palliative care delivery system be adapted to local needs Why are medical and nursing students not taught the fundamentals of pain management What direction should palliative care education take Could health care resources be channeled to deliver care in a more just and equitable manner This book chronicles the efforts of ambitious pain management care professionals to confront these questions working toward an end to needless preventable pain and suffering It examines their programs and acknowledges their successes and failures to date with commentaries by international experts This indispensable manual discusses palliative care programs in developing countries such as India Chile Argentina Saudi Arabia Thailand Hong Kong Malaysia and others Pain and Palliative Care in the Developing World and Marginalized Populations also offers an important look at pain management programs geared toward several specific underserved populations in both developing and developed countries including Native Americans and inmates in a New Zealand prison Illustrated with figures graphs and tables this book is essential for practitioners and officials in both palliative and public health care All proceeds from sales of this book will be used to support the growth of palliative care programs in India

Exploring Issues of Care, Dying and the End of Life ,2020-05-06 In Exploring Issues of Care Dying and the End of Life practitioners and academics from a range of disciplines and nationalities discuss matters pertinent to the end of life Together they explore a variety of issues including communication facing up to and handling death as well as investigating what constitutes the good death

Palliative Day Care in Practice Julie Hearn,Kathryn Myers,2001 Day care for people with advanced diseases is one of the most rapidly expanding components of palliative care in the UK and is increasingly a focus of new service development throughout the world Many benefits in terms of quality of life holistic care for the patient and family and increased time at home are claimed by day care Palliative Day Care in Practice provides a comprehensive overview of the current philosophy patterns and policies of palliative day care It places emphasis on the need to evaluate performance in palliative day care and describes in detail aspects such as audit health economics research and their associated problems and pitfalls For readers new to the field it aims to survey the broad concepts and components of palliative day care and the philosophies and practical issues that relate to them For those more experienced in the field it seeks to highlight some of the questions challenges and dilemmas that palliative day care services face and which will need to be addressed in the years ahead It will prove valuable to specialist palliative care practitioners researchers and purchasers interested in establishing or evaluating palliative day care

Palliative Medicine Roger Woodruff,2004 In this thoroughly revised fourth edition of Palliative Medicine Roger

Woodruff draws on recent research and new developments in treatment to survey the principles of palliative care and related ethical issues. The primary focus is on the management and treatment of pain and other symptoms experienced by patients with advanced cancer. The author contributes to the delivery of better care to more patients with a terminal illness through thorough analysis and application of methods of pain relief and treatment of other symptoms in the terminally ill patient. All the work is firmly grounded in an evidence based approach and is thoroughly referenced to the latest research in the area.
