Interregional Interaction in Ancient Mesoamerica
 Joshua Englehardt, Michael D. Carrasco, 2019-05-27 Interregional Interaction in Ancient Mesoamerica explores the role of interregional interaction in the dynamic sociocultural processes that shaped the pre-Columbian societies of Mesoamerica. Interdisciplinary contributions from leading scholars investigate linguistic exchange and borrowing, scribal practices, settlement patterns, ceramics, iconography, and trade systems, presenting a variety of case studies drawn from multiple spatial, temporal, and cultural contexts within Mesoamerica. Archaeologists have long recognized the crucial role of interregional interaction in the development and cultural dynamics of ancient societies, particularly in terms of the evolution of sociocultural complexity and economic systems. Recent research has further expanded the archaeological, art historical, ethnographic, and epigraphic records in Mesoamerica, permitting a critical reassessment of the complex relationship between interaction and cultural dynamics. This volume builds on and amplifies earlier research to examine sociocultural phenomena, including movement, migration, symbolic exchange, and material interaction, in their role as catalysts for variability in cultural systems. Interregional cultural exchange in pre-Columbian Mesoamerica played a key role in the creation of systems of shared ideologies, the production of regional or international artistic and architectural styles, shifting sociopolitical patterns, and changes in cultural practices and meanings. Interregional Interaction in Ancient Mesoamerica highlights, engages with, and provokes questions pertinent to understanding the complex relationship between interaction, sociocultural processes, and cultural innovation and change in the ancient societies and cultural histories of Mesoamerica, and will be of interest to archaeologists, linguists, and art historians. Historical and Archaeological Perspectives on the Itzas of Petén, Guatemala Prudence M. Rice, Don S. Rice, 2018-03-01 Historical and Archaeological Perspectives on the Itzas of Petén, Guatemala is the first exhaustively detailed and thorough account of the Itzas, a Maya group that dominated much of the western lowland area of tropical forest swamps and grasslands in Petén, Guatemala. Examining archaeological and historical evidence, Prudence Rice and Don Rice present a theoretical perspective on the Itzas' origins and an overview of the social, political, linguistic, and environmental history of the area, explain the Spanish view of the Itzas during the Conquest, and explore the material culture of the Itzas as it has been revealed in recent surveys and excavations. The long but fragmented history of the Petén Itzas requires investigation across multiple periods and regions. Chapters in this six-part overview interweave varying data pertaining to this group: archaeological, artifactual, indigenous, textual, Spanish historical, from multiple languages and academic fields such as anthropology, archaeology, linguistics, ecology, and history. Part I introduces the lowland Itzas, northern and southern, with an emphasis on those of the central Petén lakes area. Part II discusses general Itza origins and identities in the Epiclassic period, while part III reviews Spanish perceptions and misconceptions of the Pet n Itzas in their Contact period writings With these temporal anchors parts IV and V present the archaeology and artifacts of the Pet n Itzas including pottery architecture and arrow points from varied sites and excavations but primarily focusing on the island capital of Tayza Nojpet n Part VI summarizes key data and themes of the preceding chapters for a new understanding of the Pet n Itzas A companion volume to The Kowoj a similar treatment of the Pet n Itzas regional neighbors Historical and Archaeological Perspectives on the Itzas of Pet n Guatemala demonstrates the unique physical cultural and social framework that was home to the Pet n Itza along with their backstory in northern Yucat n Archaeologists historians art historians and geographers who specialize in the Maya and the Postclassic Contact and Colonial periods will find this book of particular interest Contributors Mark Brenner Leslie G Cecil Charles Andrew Hofling Nathan J Meissner Timothy W Pugh Yuko Shiratori
