Visit www.scouting.org/Youth/ContinueAdventure/Venturing.aspx.

Planning your year's program is probably the single most important activity you will be involved in. Not only will you help determine the activities your crew will be doing, you will also learn how to plan.

In this chapter, we will discuss the following areas to help you plan a meaningful and successful program:

- The qualities of a good program
- Learning the steps in the planning process
- The planning of an individual activity
- Making your program dynamic throughout the year

The planning process itself should contribute to people growing and learning, and to officers and crew members feeling responsible for ensuring that their program is a good program.

Qualities of a Good Program

Every crew wants a successful and satisfying crew program. How can you achieve that kind of program for your crew? Every program will be different because every crew is unique, but certain things contribute to that uniqueness. A good crew program

- Demonstrates a good match between the program capability inventory forms and the Venturing activity interest surveys
- Addresses the needs and interests of the crew members
- Reflects a balanced program
- Involves as many crew members as possible through the course of the year in (1) suggesting ideas for activities, (2) planning the activities, and (3) participating in the activities
- Is a dynamic and action-oriented program, changing and adjusting through the year to the growth and development of crew members
- Is based on careful, consistent planning by the Venturers
- Emphasizes new skills, new ideas, new experiences, and new challenges
