Forthcoming Books Rose Arny, 1999 Caste system and case studies # indian_society Bhaskar Pandey, 2019-10-15 The caste system in India is the paradigmatic ethnographic example of caste It has origins in ancient India and was transformed by various ruling elites in medieval early modern and modern India especially the Mughal Empire and the British Raj It is today the basis of educational and job reservations in India The caste system consists of two different concepts varna and jati which may be regarded as different levels of analysis of this system The caste system as it exists today is thought to be the result of developments during the collapse of the Mughal era and the rise of the British colonial regime in India The collapse of the Mughal era saw the rise of powerful men who associated themselves with kings priests and ascetics affirming the regal and martial form of the caste ideal and it also reshaped many apparently casteless social groups into differentiated caste communities go through the book you can have a piece of very deep knowledge about caste and politics past and till date

Subject Guide to Books in Print, 2001 Aesthetic Hybridity in Mughal Painting, 1526-1658 Valerie Gonzalez, 2016-03-03 The first specialized critical aesthetic study to be published on the concept of hybridity in early Mughal painting this book investigates the workings of the diverse creative forces that led to the formation of a unique Mughal pictorial language Mughal pictoriality distinguishes itself from the Persianate models through the rationalization of the picture's conceptual structure and other visual modes of expression involving the aesthetic concept of mimesis If the stylistic and iconographic results of this transformational process have been well identified and evidenced their hermeneutic interpretation greatly suffers from the neglect of a methodologically updated investigation of the images conceptual underpinning Valerie Gonzalez addresses this lacuna by exploring the operations of cross fertilization at the level of imagistic conceptualization resulting from the multifaceted encounter between the local legacy of Indo Persianate book art the freshly imported Persian models to Mughal India after 1555 and the influx of European art at the Mughal court in the sixteenth and seventeenth centuries The author's close examination of the visuality metaphysical order and aesthetic language of Mughal imagery and portraiture sheds new light on this particular aspect of its aesthetic hybridity which is usually approached monolithically as a historical phenomenon of cross cultural interaction That approach fails to consider specific parameters and features inherent to the artistic practice such as the differences between doxis and praxis conceptualization and realization intentionality and what lies beyond it By studying the distinct phases and principles of hybridization between the variegated pictorial sources at work in the Mughal creative process at the successive levels of the project intention the practice realization and the result product the author deciphers the modalities of appropriation and manipulation of the heterogeneous elements Her unique
