Worlds Apart Bosnian Lessons For Global Security:

WORLDS APART; BOSNIAN LESSONS FOR GLOBAL SECURITY SWANEE HUNT., 2011 Worlds Apart tells of a well meaning foreign policy establishment often deaf to the voices of everyday people Its focus is the Bosnian War but its implications extend to any situation that prompts the consideration of military intervention on humanitarian grounds Ambassador Swanee Hunt served in Vienna during the Bosnian War and was intimately involved in American policy toward the Balkans During her tenure as ambassador and after she made scores of trips throughout Bosnia and the rest of the former Yugoslavia attempting to understand the costly delays in foreign military intervention To that end she had hundreds of conversations with a wide range of politicians refugees journalists farmers clergy aid workers diplomats soldiers and others In Worlds Apart Hunt s eighty vignettes alternate between those living out the war and the internationals deciding whether or how to intervene From these stories most of which she herself witnessed she draws lessons applicable to conflicts throughout the world These lessons cannot be learned from afar Hunt says with insiders and outsiders working apart Only by bridging those worlds can we build a stronger paradigm of inclusive international security Surviving Peace Olivera Simic, 2014-08-01 How do you pick up the pieces after your life is shattered by war How do you continue living when your country no longer exists your language is no longer spoken and your family is divided not just by distance but by politics too What happens when your old identity is taken from you and a new one imposed one that you never asked for When Olivera Simic was seven years old President Tito died Old divisions re emerged as bitter ethnic conflicts unfolded War arrived in 1992 People were no longer Yugoslavs but Serbs Croats Bosnians Old friends became enemies overnight In this heartfelt account of life before during and after the Bosnian War and the NATO bombing of Serbia in 1999 Simic talks of her transition from peace to war and back again She shows how she found the determination to build a new life when the old one was irretrievable Traversing four continents she takes us on her winding journey from Bosnia to Australia revealing the complex challenges of adjusting to life in a new country and exposing the harsh reality of the post traumatic stress that accompanies her Simic strives to find the balance between wanting to move on to a different future and a pressing need to look back at a past that won t go away The pull of her homeland remains irresistible despite it being ravaged by destruction and her exposure of the war crimes that took place there means she is labeled both a traitor and a truth seeker Surviving Peace is one woman s story of courage that echoes the stories of millions of people whose lives have been displaced by war As we still face a world rife with armed conflict this book is a timely reminder that once the last gunshot has been fired and the last bomb dropped the new challenge of surviving peace begins Peace Works Frederick D. Barton, 2018-04-20 Bosnia Rwanda Haiti Afghanistan Iraq and Syria a quarter century of stumbles in America s pursuit of a more peaceful and just world American military interventions have cost thousands of lives and billions of dollars yet we rarely manage to enact positive and sustainable change In Peace Works America s Unifying Role in a Turbulent World ambassador and global conflict leader

Rick Barton uses a mix of stories history and analysis for a transformative approach to foreign affairs and offers concrete and attainable solutions for the future Drawing on his lifetime of experience as a diplomat foreign policy expert and State Department advisor Rick Barton grapples with the fact that the U S is strategically positioned and morally obligated to defuse international conflicts but often inadvertently escalates conflicts instead Guided by the need to find solutions that will yield tangible results Barton does a deep analysis of our last several interventions and discusses why they failed and how they could have succeeded He outlines a few key directives in his foreign policy strategy remain transparent with the American public act as a catalyzing not colonizing force and engage local partners But above all else he insists that the U S must maintain a focus on people Since a country s greatest resource is often the ingenuity of its local citizens it is counterproductive to ignore them while planning an intervention By anchoring each chapter to a story from a specific conflict zone Barton is able to discuss opportunities pursued and missed areas for improvement and policy recommendations This balance between storytelling and concrete policy suggestions both humanizes distant stories of foreign crises and provides going forward solutions for desperate situations The book begins and ends in Syria the ultimate failure of our current approach to foreign policy and with devastating consequences

The Routledge History of World Peace since 1750

Christian Philip Peterson, William M. Knoblach, Michael Loadenthal, 2018-10-10 The Routledge History of World Peace since 1750 examines the varied and multifaceted scholarship surrounding the topic of peace and engages in a fruitful dialogue about the global history of peace since 1750 Interdisciplinary in nature the book includes contributions from authors working in fields as diverse as history philosophy literature art sociology and Peace Studies The book crosses the divide between historical inquiry and Peace Studies scholarship with traditional aspects of peace promotion sitting alongside expansive analyses of peace through other lenses including specific regional investigations of the Middle East Africa Latin America and other parts of the world Divided thematically into six parts that are loosely chronological in structure the book offers a broad overview of peace issues such as peacebuilding state building and or conflict resolution in individual countries or regions and indicates the unique challenges of achieving peace from a range of perspectives Global in scope and supported by regional and temporal case studies the volume is an essential resource for educators activists and policymakers involved in promoting peace and curbing violence as well as students and scholars of Peace Studies history and their related fields

Women and Gender in International History Karen Garner, 2018-06-28 Most governments and global political organizations have been dominated by male leaders and structures that institutionalize male privilege As Women and Gender in International History reveals however women have participated in and influenced the traditional concerns of international history even as they have expanded those concerns in new directions Karen Garner provides a timely synthesis of key scholarship and establishes the influential roles that women and gender power relations have wielded in determining the course of international history From the early 20th century onward women have participated in state to state relations and decisions about when to pursue diplomacy or when to go to war to settle international conflicts Particular women as well as masculine and feminine gender role constructs have also influenced the establishment and evolution of intergovernmental organizations and their political social and economic policy making regimes and agencies Additionally feminists have critiqued male dominated diplomatic establishment and intergovernmental organizations and have proposed alternative theories and practices This text integrates women and gender and feminist analyses into the study of international history in order to produce a broader understanding of processes of international change during the 20th and 21st centuries Voices of Powerful Women Zoe Sallis, 2019-02-26 An empowering collection of interviews with 40 successful and inspiring women throughout history including Maya Angelou and Jane Fonda as they reflect on their challenges and achievements Remarkable questions answered by remarkable women A fascinating collection Maya Angelou In this empowering book 40 amazing women who have exerted an influence on others in many different ways discuss their work their achievements their hopes and their fears offering women everywhere inspiration and optimism for the future through their fascinating explanations of what they have achieved Featuring politicians environmentalists humanitarians entrepreneurs musicians artists actors world leaders and Nobel Peace Prize winners this book encourages readers to believe that they can achieve their greatest ambitions and help change the world for the better The book is structured around ten questions with the 40 interviewees providing a pithy and insightful answer to each one Topics range from influential early experiences inspirations in life and most admired female figures to causes of anger greatest fears how to change the world and advice for the younger generation The full list of powerful women featured in the book is as follows Isabel Allende Christiane Amanpour Maya Angelou Hanan Ashrawi Joan Baez Benazir Bhutto Mary Kayitesi Blewitt Emma Bonino Shami Chakrabarti Jung Chang Kate Clinton Marie Colvin Marion Cotillard Severn Cullis Suzuki Carla Del Ponte Judi Dench Shirin Ebadi Tracey Emin Jane Fonda Tanni Grey Thompson Dagmar Havlov Swanee Hunt Bianca Jagger Nata a Kandi Kathy Kelly Martha Lane Fox Dame Ann Leslie Professor Wangari Maathai Mairead Maguire Mary McAleese Soledad O'Brien Sin ad O'Connor Yoko Ono Mariane Pearl Kim Phuc Paloma Picasso Sister Helen Prejean CSJ Paula Rego Louise Ridley Mary Robinson Jody Williams Bibliography of Sources on the Region of Former Yugoslavia Volume III Rusko Matuli?, 1998 This Was Not Our War Swanee Hunt, 2004-11-29 Combines Bosnian women's personal testimony about the recent war and its aftermath with Ambassador Hunt's analysis of the U.S. government's approach to the conflict World Focus, 1995 The Grolier Global Studies Library Scholastic Library Publishing, 1997 Global Studies: Russia, the Eurasian Republics, and Central/Eastern Europe Minton Goldman, 1996 The Christian Science Monitor Index, 1996 Air University Library Index to Military Periodicals, 1993 Newsweek, 2001 National Journal, 1995 Turkish Policy Quarterly, 2004 The Economist, 1999 The Middle East, Abstracts and Index, 1998 The Times Index, 2010 Indexes the Times Sunday times and magazine Times literary supplement Times educational supplement Times educational supplement Scotland and the Times higher education supplement Annual Index, 1999
