Worms And Other Alien Encounters:

Worms and Other Alien Encounters Robert P. Hansen, 2015-03-02 Why would aliens visit earth I asked myself that question early in my writing career and rejected the more benign responses like They want to be our friends or They want to help us progress toward a new age of Enlightenment because well an advanced alien species encountering us would hardly be impressed quite the contrary After all they would be advanced as in dramatically superior to us I also didn't want to have them show up to blow us to bits which they could easily do being superior to us since that's been a bit overdone since H G Wells The War of the Worlds So I thought about it came up with a few plausible responses that fell between these two extremes and wrote some stories for the ones that seemed to make the most sense
