Chapter 1

"That was the summer Dill came to us."

1. Where does the novel take place? How would you describe the town in which the story takes place? What kind of community is it?
2. What does the children's father, Atticus Finch, do for a living? What do you make of this with respect to the type of community in which the Finches live?
3. From whose point of view will the story be told? So far, what can you tell about the narrator as a character?
4. Who is Calpurnia? Discuss the relationship she has with Jem, Scout, and Atticus.
5. During the summer when Dill arrives, the children play one game in particular. What game is this and why do they find it so entertaining?
6. What did Boo Radley do that got him into a bit of trouble with the law? What was his father's response? What eventually came of this incident?
7. According to Jem's description, what does Boo look like?
8. What act of "courage" on Jem's part ends the chapter? For what reason do you think he chose to do this?

Chapter 2

"We'll do like we always do at home," [Jem] said, "but you'll see - school's different."

The Routledge Companion to American Film History Pamela Robertson Wojcik, Paula J. Massood, 2025-02-12 Presenting new and diverse scholarship, this collection brings together original essays that explore American film history from a fresh perspective. Comprising an introduction and 34 chapters written by leading scholars from around the globe and edited by Pamela Robertson Wojcik and Paula J. Massood, this collection offers discussions of the American film industry from previously unexplored vantage points. Rather than follow a chronological format as with most film histories, this Companion offers a multiplicity of approaches to historiography and is arranged according to often underdeveloped or overlooked areas in American film, including topics such as alternate archives, hidden labor, histories of style, racialized technologies, cinema's material cultures, spectators and fans, transnational film production, intermedial histories, history in and about films, and the historical afterlives of cinema. An exciting collection for serious film studies students and scholars interested in new perspectives and fresh approaches to thinking about and doing American film history. Telling Tales Out of School Dale Davis, 2008-02 Finding himself unemployed, Cyrus Henshaw does something he swore he would never do: he applies for and receives a teaching position. He is gradually honed into a teaching machine under the tough tutelage of a domineering principal, an eclectic group of faculty misfits, and a horde of unconcerned students. Telling Tales Out of School is a must have for anyone that has ever taught or thought of teaching. Not only will Dale Davis wit keep you laughing, you'll also fall in love with all of the colorful characters.
