To The Land Of Cattails Appelfeld Aharon:

To the Land of the Cattails Aharon Appelfeld, Aron Appelfeld, 1994-04-14 To the Land of the Cattails evokes the uncanny atmosphere of Europe on the brink of the Holocaust with the same dreamlike realism that made The Age of Wonders a modern classic In the summer of 1938 a Jewish woman living in Austria suddenly gripped by a longing for her native land departs with her adolescent son for the interior of Eastern Europe As she proceeds the landscape turns increasingly ominous and her son progressively more loutish Just short of their goal the young man falls into a drunken stupor When he finally rouses himself and rushes to join his mother he is told she has been shipped off on a mysterious train to an unspecified destination To the Land of Cattails is a haunting parable of the human spirit and an unforgettable account of the destiny of modern European Jewry To the Land of the Cattails Aron Appelfeld, 1986-01-01 Determined to visit her homeland in 1938 a Jewish woman and her son travel into Eastern Europe where their surroundings become more and more foreboding To the Land of the Cattails Aron Appelfeld, 1986-01-01 Aharon Appelfeld Yig'al Shvarts, 2001 A compelling study of the entire oeuvre of a widely published Israeli writer now available in English Voices of Israel Joseph Cohen, 2012-02-01 Cohen takes an in depth critical look at three novelists and two poets who stand at the forefront of contemporary Israeli literature and whose works have been widely read studied and admired in the Western world The critiques examine all English translations of these Israeli writers major works from the beginning of their careers up to the present Cohen demonstrates the vitality and virtuosity of the so called New Wave Israeli writers whose sources and influences are as ancient as the stories of the Hebrew Bible and as modern as the interiorization of reality found in Proust Faulkner Woolf and Joyce and the literary adaptation of relativity found in Borges Lowry and Durrell Complementing the critiques are interviews with the five Israeli writers The issues discussed the relation of politics and literature the influence of literature on life the role of the writer in society the moral responsibility of the writer combine with the essays to provide comprehensive insight into the contemporary Israeli psyche Studien der Forschungsstelle Ostmitteleuropa an der Universität Dortmund Forschungsstelle Ostmitteleuropa an der Universität Dortmund, The Immortal Bartfuss Aharon Appelfeld, 1994 Set in contemporary Israel The Immortal Bartfuss is perhaps the most profound and powerful portrait of a Holocaust survivor ever drawn Using the techniques of omission and indirection perfected in such masterpieces as Badenheim 1939 and To the Land of the Cattails Appelfeld tells the story of Bartfuss enigmatically the immortal because of his experience in the camps Now locked in a hopeless marriage Bartfuss struggles to suppress the emotions and recollections he fears and despises while trying to keep alive the poise dignity and compassion essential to a human being The Immortal Bartfuss is an overwhelming and unforgettable study of a man reduced to his tragic limits War and Genocide Doris L. Bergen, 2024-07-30 In examining one of the defining events of the twentieth century Doris L Bergen situates the Holocaust in its historical political social cultural and military contexts Unlike many other treatments of the Holocaust this revised fourth edition discusses not only the persecution of Jews but also other groups targeted by the Nazis people with disabilities Roma queer people Poles in leadership positions Soviet POWs and others deemed unwanted In clear and eloquent prose Bergen explores the two interconnected goals that drove the Nazi German program of conquest and genocide purification of the so called Aryan race and expansion of its living space and invites readers to reflect on how the Holocaust connects to histories of violence around the world Replete with firsthand accounts from victims survivors and eyewitnesses this book is immediate human and eminently readable

Laish Aharon Appelfeld,2016-11-02 A caravan of Jews wanders through Eastern Europe at the end of the nineteenth century on a heartbreaking quest Spiritual seekers and the elderly widows and orphans the sick and the dying con artists and adventurers victims of pogroms who have no place else to go they are all on a pilgrimage to the Holy Land but the journey is filled with unexpected detours and unanticipated disaster Among them is Laish a fifteen year old orphan through whose eyes we observe the interactions within this ragtag group of dreamers holy men misfits and thieves as they battle with one another try to stay one step ahead of the gendarmes and do what little they can to keep up their flagging spirits With the death of the rabbi who brought the group together they are now led by men whom Laish refers to as the dealers black market traders whose motives are questionable but who periodically infuse the group with the money they need to get to the next town Years pass tempers start to fray and the caravan grows smaller as people die or abandon the venture A brutal winter and typhoid epidemic further decimate the ranks and the pilgrims have begun to reach the limits of their endurance The dream of Jerusalem keeps the remnant going and against all odds they finally arrive emotionally and physically exhausted at the port city of Galacz They see their ship in the harbor but whether they will actually make it onto that ship is suddenly and tragically thrown into doubt This magnificent new novel from Aharon Appelfeld One of the greatest writers of the age The Guardian resonates with a universality of experience the will to survive the struggle to hold on to hope
