Tonkin Gulf And The Escalation Of The Vietnam War:

Tonkin Gulf and the Escalation of the Vietnam War Edwin E. Moise, 2000-11-09 Retracing the confused pattern of planning for escalation of the Vietnam War Moise reconstructs the events of the night of August 4 1964 when the U S Navy destroyers Maddox and Turner Joy reported that they were under attack by North Vietnamese torpedo boats in the Gulf of Tonkin Using declassified records and interviews with the participants Moise demonstrates that there was no North Vietnamese attack the original report was a genuine mistake

Tonkin Gulf and the Escalation of the Vietnam War Edwin E. Moise, 1999-01 By carefully reconstructing the events of August 4 1964 when two U S Navy destroyers reported that they were under attack in the Gulf of Tonkin Moise conclusively demonstrates that there was no North Vietnamese attack Still he argues that the original report was not a lie concocted to provide an excuse for escalation but a genuine mistake

Tonkin Gulf and the Escalation of the Vietnam War, Revised Edition Edwin Moise, 2019-07-15 On July 31 the U S Navy destroyer USS Maddox DD 731 began a reconnaissance cruise off the coast of North Vietnam On August 2 three North Vietnamese torpedo boats attacked the ship On the night of August 4 the Maddox and another destroyer the USS Turner Joy DD 951 expecting to be attacked saw what they interpreted as hostile torpedo boats on their radars and reported themselves under attack The following day the United States bombed North Vietnam in retaliation Congress promptly passed almost unanimously and with little debate a resolution granting President Lyndon Johnson authority to take all necessary measures to deal with aggression in Vietnam The incident of August 4 1964 is at the heart of this book The author interviewed numerous Americans who were present Most believed in the moment that an attack was occurring By the time they were interviewed there were more doubters than believers but the ones who still believed were more confident in their opinions Factoring in degree of assurance one could say that the witnesses were split right down the middle on this fundamental question A careful and rigorous examination of the other forms of evidence including intercepted North Vietnamese naval communications interrogations of North Vietnamese torpedo boat personnel captured later in the war and the destroyers detailed records of the location and duration of radar contacts lead the author to conclude that no attack occurred that night

The Gulf of Tonkin Tal Tovy, 2021-04-22 The Gulf of Tonkin The United States and the Escalation in the Vietnam War analyzes the events that led to the escalation of the conflict in Vietnam and increased American involvement On August 4 1964 the captains of two American destroyers the USS Maddox and the USS Turner Joy reported that their ships were being attacked by North Vietnamese torpedo boats This report came on top of a previous report by the captain of the USS Maddox indicating that he had been attacked by torpedo boats two nights earlier The text introduces readers to the historiography of these incidents and how the perception of the events changed over time The attacks which were collectively called the Gulf of Tonkin incident are presented in the context not only of the Vietnam War but also of the Cold War and U S government powers enabling students to understand the events full ramifications Using essential primary

France Institut des Etudes Politiques course Cours specialis language English abstract Since the beginning of the escalation of the Vietnam War politicians and scientists are discussing the reasons for this intensification of military action One can find as much theories as theorists In the following I will present the most important and disseminated concepts To create a foundation for my presentation I will shortly describe the chronology of the events which frame the escalation and the escalation itself After that I will at first present the official government explanation for the escalation which is based on the containment of Communist aggression Subsequent to that I will portray the two most important theories the Quagmire Theory and the Stalemate Theory Furthermore some analysts saw the dilemma in the personality and the authority of the American Presidents At least there is the idea that the escalation was a result of political and economical interests of the USA Finally I will finish my work with my own conclusion about the intervention in the Vietnam War and its escalation

Fifteen American Wars Eugene G.
