Veiled Empire Gender And Power In Stalinist Central Asia:

Veiled Empire Douglas T. Northrop, 2016-06-08 Drawing on extensive research in the archives of Russia and Uzbekistan Douglas Northrop here reconstructs the turbulent history of a Soviet campaign that sought to end the seclusion of Muslim women In Uzbekistan it focused above all on a massive effort to eliminate the heavy horsehair and cotton veils worn by many women and girls This campaign against the veil was in Northrop's view emblematic of the larger Soviet attempt to bring the proletarian revolution to Muslim Central Asia a region Bolsheviks saw as primitive and backward The Soviets focused on women and the family in an effort to forge a new liberated social order This unveiling campaign however took place in the context of a half century of Russian colonization and the long standing suspicion of rural Muslim peasants toward an urban colonial state Widespread resistance to the idea of unveiling quickly appeared and developed into a broader anti Soviet animosity among Uzbeks of both sexes Over the next quarter century a bitter and often violent confrontation ensued with battles being waged over indigenous practices of veiling and seclusion New local and national identities coalesced around these very practices that had been placed under attack Veils became powerful anticolonial symbols for the Uzbek nation as well as important markers of Muslim propriety Bolshevik leaders who had seen this campaign as an excellent way to enlist allies while proving their own European credentials as enlightened reformers thus inadvertently strengthened the seclusion of Uzbek women precisely the reverse of what they set out to do Northrop's fascinating and evocative book shows both the fluidity of Central Asian cultural practices and the real limits that existed on Stalinist authority even during the ostensibly totalitarian 1930s The Politics of Transition in Central Asia and the Caucasus Amanda E Wooden, Christoph H.

Stefes, 2009-06-08 Most books on the Caucasus and Central Asia are country by country studies This book on the other hand fills a gap in Central Eurasian studies as one of the few comparative case study books on Central Eurasia covering both the Caucasus and Central Asia it considers key themes right across the two regions highlighting both political change and continuity Comparative case study chapters written by regional experts from a variety of methodological backgrounds provide historical context and evaluate Soviet political legacies and emerging policy outcomes Key topics include the varied types and sources of authoritarianism political opposition and protest politics predetermined outcomes of post Soviet economic choices social and stability impacts of natural resource wealth variations in educational reform international norm influence on gender policy and the power of human rights activists Overall the book provides a thorough up to date overview of what is increasingly becoming a significant area of concern Soviet Postcolonial Studies Epp Annus, 2017-09-05

Postcolonial studies is a well established academic field rich in theory but it is based mostly on postcolonial experiences in former West European colonial empires This book takes a different approach considering postcolonial theory in relation to the former Soviet bloc It both applies existing postcolonial theory to this different setting and also uses the experiences of former Soviet bloc countries to refine and advance theory Drawing on a wide range of sources and presenting insights and material of relevance to scholars in a wide range of subjects the book explores topics such as Soviet colonality as co constituted with Soviet modernity the affective structure of identity creation in national and imperial subjects and the way in which cultural imaginaries and everyday materialities were formative of Soviet everyday experience Being Muslim in Central Asia ,2018-01-03 This volume explores the changing place of Islam in contemporary Central Asia understanding religion as a societal shaper a roadmap for navigating quickly evolving social and cultural values Islam can take on multiple colors and identities from a purely transcendental faith in God to a cauldron of ideological ferment for political ideology via diverse culture community and history based phenomena The volumes discusses what it means to be a Muslim in today s Central Asia by looking at both historical and sociological features investigates the relationship between Islam politics and the state the changing role of Islam in terms of societal values and the issue of female attire as a public debate Contributors include Aur lie Biard Tim Epkenhans Nurgul Esenamanova Azamat Junisbai Barbara Junisbai Marlene Laruelle Marantha Miles Emil Nasritdinov Shahnoza Nozimova Yaacov Ro i Wendell Schwab Manja Stephan Emmrich Rano Turaeva Alon Wainer Alexander Wolters Galina M Yemelianova Baurzhan Zhussupov Turkmenistan: Strategies of Power, Dilemmas of Development Sebastien Peyrouse,2015-02-12 This book is the first comprehensive introduction to contemporary Turkmenistan in English Kazakhstan - Ethnicity, Language and Power Bhavna Dave,2007-09-13 Kazakhstan is emerging as the most dynamic economic and political actor in Central Asia It is the second largest country of the former Soviet Union after the Russian Federation and has rich natural resources particularly oil which is being exploited through massive US investment Kazakhstan has an impressive record of economic growth under the leadership of President Nursultan Nazarbaev and has ambitions to project itself as a modern wealthy civic state with a developed market economy At the same time Kazakhstan is one of the most ethnically diverse countries in the region with very substantial non Kazakh and non Muslim minorities Its political regime has used elements of political clientelism and neo traditional practices to bolster its rule Drawing from extensive ethnographic research interviews and archival materials this book traces the development of national identity and statehood in Kazakhstan focusing in particular on the attempts to build a national state It argues that Russification and Sovietization were not simply top down processes that they provide considerable scope for local initiatives and that Soviet ethnically based affirmative action policies have had a lasting impact on ethnic lite formation and the rise of a distinct brand of national consciousness Expressions of Gender in the Altaic World Münevver Tekcan,Oliver Corff,2021-08-23 This collection of papers explores the facets of gender and sex in history language and society of Altaic cultures reflecting the unique interdisciplinary approach of the PIAC It examines the position of women in contemporary Central Asia at large the expression of gender in linguistic terms in Mongolian Manju Tibetan and Turkic languages and gender aspects presented in historical literary monuments as well as in contemporary sources The Oxford Encyclopedia of Women in World History Bonnie G. Smith,2008 The Encyclopedia of Women in World History captures the experiences of women throughout world history in a comprehensive 4 volume work Although there has been extensive research on women in history by region no text or reference work has comprehensively covered the role women have played throughout world history The past thirty years have seen an explosion of research and effort to present the experiences and contributions of women not only in the Western world but across the globe Historians have investigated womens daily lives in virtually every region and have researched the leadership roles women have filled across time and region They have found and demonstrated that there is virtually no historical social or demographic change in which women have not been involved and by which their lives have not been affected The Oxford Encyclopedia of Women in World History benefits greatly from these efforts and experiences and illuminates how women worldwide have influenced and been influenced by these historical social and demographic changes The Encyclopedia contains over 1 250 signed articles arranged in an A Z format for ease of use The entries cover six main areas biographies geography and history comparative culture and society including adoption abortion performing arts organizations and movements such as the Egyptian Uprising and the Paris Commune womens and gender studies and topics in world history that include slave trade globalization and disease With its rich and insightful entries by leading scholars and experts this reference work is sure to be a valued go to resource for scholars college and high school students and general readers alike Herders and Reformers in Central Asia's "island of Democracy" Jake E.

Fleming,2008 Anthropology & Archeology of Eurasia ,2008 Anti-Veiling Campaigns in Turkey Sevgi Adak,2022-02-24

The veiling and unveiling of women have been controversial issues in Turkey since the late Ottoman period It was with the advent of local campaigns against certain veils in the 1930s however that women s dress turned into an issue of national mobilisation in which gender norms would be redefined In this comprehensive analysis of the anti veiling campaigns in interwar Turkey Sevgi Adak casts light onto the historical context within which the meanings of veiling and unveiling in Turkey were formed By shifting the focus from the high politics of the elite to the implementation of state policies the book situates the anti veiling campaigns as a space where the Kemalist reforms were negotiated compromised and resisted by societal actors Using previously unpublished archival material Adak reveals the intricacies of the Kemalist modernisation process and provides a nuanced reading of the gender order established in the early republic by looking at the various ways women responded to the anti veiling campaigns A major contribution to the literature on the social history of modern Turkey the book provides a complex analysis of these campaigns which goes beyond a simple binary between liberation and oppression Politics of Modern Central Asia Bhavna Dave,2010 The focus for this set encompasses the region as a whole as well as each individual country comprising the Soviet legacy cultural and social institutions modern economic and political transition and geopolitics and security Feminist Periodicals ,2007 NewsNet American Association for the Advancement of Slavic Studies,2007 Slavic Review ,2005 Muslim Lives in Eastern Europe Kristen Rogheh

Ghodsee,2010 Muslim Lives in Eastern Europe examines how gender identities were reconfigured in a Bulgarian Muslim community following the demise of Communism and an influx of international aid from the Islamic world Kristen Ghodsee conducted extensive ethnographic research among a small population of Pomaks Slavic Muslims living in the remote mountains of southern Bulgaria After Communism fell in 1989 Muslim minorities in Bulgaria sought to rediscover their faith after decades of state imposed atheism But instead of returning to their traditionally heterodox roots isolated groups of Pomaks embraced a distinctly foreign type of Islam which swept into their communities on the back of Saudi financed international aid to Balkan Muslims and which these Pomaks believe to be a more correct interpretation of their religion Ghodsee explores how gender relations among the Pomaks had to be renegotiated after the collapse of both Communism and the region's state subsidized lead and zinc mines She shows how mosques have replaced the mines as the primary site for jobless and underemployed men to express their masculinity and how Muslim women have encouraged this as a way to combat alcoholism and domestic violence Ghodsee demonstrates how women's embrace of this new form of Islam has led them to adopt more conservative family roles and how the Pomaks new religion remains deeply influenced by Bulgaria's Marxist Leninist legacy with its calls for morality social justice and human solidarity Encyclopedia of Women's Folklore and Folklife: M-Z Liz Locke, Theresa A. Vaughan, Pauline Greenhill, 2009 Topics covered include Abortion Banshee Barbie Doll Best Friend Cinderella Courtship Cowgirl Cyber culture Erotic Folklore Folk Photography Glass Ceiling Hair Hip Hop Culture Rap Lesbian and Queer Studies Marriage Menstruation Muslim Women's Folklore Photocopy Lore Quilt making and many more In addition there are entries on women's folklore and folklife in 15 regions of the world such as the Caribbean Central Asia the Middle East and Western Europe Entries provide cross references and cite works for further reading and the encyclopedia closes with a selected bibliography of print and electronic resources Students learning about history world cultures religion and spirituality healing and traditional medicine and literature will welcome this companion to the daily life of women across time and continents FEATURES AND BENEFITS 4 substantial overview essays survey the present state of scholarship on women's folklore and folklife around the world Culture and Customs of the Central Asian Republics Rafis Abazov, 2007 Table of Contents Series Foreword Preface Acknowledgments Note on Transliteration Chronology Introduction Land People and History Folklore and Literature Media and Cinema Performing Arts Visual Arts Architecture Gender Courtship and Marriage Festivals Fun and Leisure Glossary Selected Bibliography Index The Journal of European Economic History, 2004 Central Eurasian Studies Review, 2004
