

The background of the slide is a historical painting, likely by Paolo Veronese, showing a Venetian galley in the Venetian Arsenal. The galley is a large wooden ship with multiple masts and sails, filled with soldiers and rowers. It is surrounded by other smaller boats and structures. The scene is set in a large, open area with buildings in the background. At the top of the slide, there are three portraits of Ottoman sultans, each wearing a white turban and a colorful robe. The text 'Venice and the Islamic World' is overlaid on the painting in a large, white, serif font. Below the main title, the dates '828-1797' are written in a smaller, white, serif font.
