Home and Identity in Nineteenth-Century Literary London Lisa C. British Boarding Houses in Interwar Women's Literature Terri Mullholland, 2016-10-04 Embraced for the dramatic opportunities afforded by a house full of strangers the British boarding house emerged as a setting for novels published during the interwar period by a diverse range of women writers from Stella Gibbons to Virginia Woolf To use the single room in the boarding house or bedsit Terri Mullholland argues is to foreground a particular experience While the single room represents the freedoms of independent living available to women in the early twentieth century it also marks the precariousness of unmarried women's lives By placing their characters in this transient space women writers could explore women's changing social roles and complex experiences amateur prostitution lesbian relationships extra marital affairs and abortion outside traditional domestic narrative concerns Mullholland presents new readings of works by canonical and non canonical writers including Stella Gibbons Winifred Holtby Storm Jameson Rosamond Lehmann Dorothy Richardson Jean Rhys and Virginia Woolf A hybrid of the modernist and realist domestic fiction written and read by women the literature of the single room merges modernism's interest in interior psychological states with the realism of precisely documented exterior spaces offering a new mode of engagement with the two forms of interiority

Unplanned Visitors Olivier Vallerand, 2022-03-30 Sexuality and gender have long been influential in understanding the construction of domestic space its meanings often revealing a binary division of private and public female and male By reconstructing the foundation of queer critiques of space and by analyzing the representation of domesticity in contemporary art and architecture Unplanned Visitors shows the blurring of private and public that can occur in any domestic space and explores the potential of queer theory for understanding and designing the built environment Olivier Vallerand investigates how queer critiques building on pioneering feminist work question the relation between identity and architecture and highlight normative constructs underlying domestic spaces He draws out a genealogy of queer space in theoretical discourse in architecture studying projects by Mark Robbins Joel Sanders J Mayer H Elmgreen Dragset Andr s Jaque and MYCKET among others These works blur the traditional borders between architecture and art to emphasize the tensions between private and public and their impact on assumptions about domestic space and family structure The challenges in moving from experimental installations to built environments suggest how designers must acknowledge and respond to the social contexts that shape architecture rethinking how domestic spaces can be designed to allow everyone to better manage the expression of their self identification through their living environments Unplanned Visitors poses a challenge to traditional architectural theory and history but also suggests a renewed and more inclusive ethics whereby designers explicitly address social and political power structures The potential of a queer approach to architectural design history theory and education is precisely to enact a method that creates more inclusive buildings and safer neighbourhoods for everyone

Maintenance Architecture Hilary Sample, 2016-12-02 An inventive examination of a crucial but neglected aspect of architecture by an architect writing to architects Maintenance plays a crucial role in the production and endurance of architecture yet architects for the most part treat maintenance with indifference The discipline of architecture values the image of the new over the lived in the photogenic empty and stark building over a messy and labored one But the fact is homes need to be cleaned and buildings and cities need to be maintained and architecture no matter its form cannot escape from such realities In Maintenance Architecture Hilary Sample offers an inventive examination of the architectural significance of maintenance through a series of short texts and images about specific buildings materials and projects Although architects have seldom choose to represent maintenance imagining their work only from conception to realization artists have long explored subjects of endurance and permanence in iconic architecture Sample explores a range of art projects by artists including Gordon Matta Clark Jeff Wall and Mierle Laderman Ukeles to recast the problem of maintenance for architecture How might architectural design and discourse change as a building cycle expands to include post occupancy Sample looks particularly at the private home exhibition pavilion and high rise urban building giving special attention to buildings constructed with novel and developing materials technologies and precise detailing in relation to endurance These include Buckminster Fuller s Dymaxion House 1929 the Lever House 1952 the U S Steel Building 1971 and the O 14 2010 She considers the iconography of skyscrapers maintenance workforces both public and private labor saving technology and devices and contemporary architectural projects and preservation techniques that encompass the afterlife of buildings A selection of artworks make the usually invisible aspects of maintenance visible from Martha Rosler's Cleaning the Drapes to Inigo Manglano Ovalle's The Kiss Housing and Dwelling Barbara Miller Lane, 2006-11 A collection of thought provoking essays on the changing face of domestic architecture over two centuries highlighting the wide range of source materials and theoretical perspectives available to scholars of architectural history
