The Transformation of Discontent Imre Szabó, 2024-11-08 The Transformation of Discontent demonstrates that far from disappearing from the workplaces of the Global North labor protest has merely changed character and now focuses on healthcare and education with white collar and white coat employees clashing with employers over wages working conditions and professional autonomy Based on in depth case studies of protest campaigns in four European countries Denmark Germany Hungary and Ireland this book explores the ways in which teachers nurses and medical doctors have developed a new repertoire of contention that unites their power to disrupt services with their duty to care for service users such as patients children and older people A study of the changes to labor mobilization including new protagonists and a shift from mass strikes to duty based protest this volume considers the impact of public sector unions on the labor movement and their role in renewing labor s power resources It will be of interest to sociologists and scholars of political economy social movements public services contentious politics and employment relations

The Journal of Central Asian Studies, 2011 The Korean Journal of Policy Studies, 2013 Europe and the Spectre of Post-growth Society Piotr Świtalski, 2014 Europe has been going through its most serious crisis of values since the fall of communism In public discourse economic and social pressures have overshadowed the other dimensions of the crisis including societal values However the crisis of values would appear to be more than simply an effect of the recession Europeans have lost trust in democratic institutions at all levels European national and local Rising xenophobia and discrimination against minorities undermine the vitality of the European model of tolerance Europe is plagued by endemic corruption which costs it more than 100 billion euro annually triggering political instability Some believe that once Europe is back on the path of growth the crisis of values will disappear and that there will be a resurgence of faith in European integration But in the long term growth in Western societies may be impaired by serious headwinds resulting from demographic trends and rising inequalities and Europe may become the first post growth society European societies are already changing their traditional characteristics as a result of exposure to the effects of two global mega trends the empowerment of the individual and cosmopolitisation Can the European project be of relevance when addressing these challenges What role in this process can be played by the Council of Europe which is the embodiment of the idea that Europe is bigger than the European Union and the European agenda is richer than the economy and politics Annual Report India. Ministry of Health and Family Welfare,2016 Canadian Journal of Forest Research ,2014-05 Energy Balances of OECD Countries International Energy Agency Staff,2012-07-30 This volume contains data on the supply and consumption of coal oil gas electricity heat renewables and waste presented as comprehensive energy balances expressed in million tonnes of oil equivalent Complete data are available for 2009 and 2010 and supply estimates are available for the most recent year i e 2011 Historical tables summarise production trade and final consumption data as well as key energy and economic indicators The book also includes definitions of products and flows explanatory notes on the individual country data and conversion factors from original units to energy units Yearbook of International Organizations 2014-2015 (Volume 4) Union Of International Associations,Union of International Associations,2014-09-17 The Yearbook of International Organizations provides the most extensive coverage of non profit international organizations currently available Detailed profiles of international non governmental and intergovernmental organizations IGO collected and documented by the Union of International Associations can be found here In addition to the history aims and activities of international organizations with their events publications and contact details the volumes of the Yearbook include networks between associations biographies of key people involved and extensive statistical data Providing both an international organizations and research bibliography Volume 4 cites over 46 000 publications and information resources supplied by international organizations and provides nearly 18 000 research citations under 40 subject headings This volume also includes a research bibliography on international organizations and transnational associations Outlook on Agriculture ,2013 African Social Development Index ,2016 Global Challenges in Asia ,2014 Industrial Development Report 2013 United Nations,2014-03-15 This Report demonstrates that a more sustainable energy future is within our reach and that industrial energy efficiency is key It shows how industrial energy efficiency can make a difference by providing a detailed comprehensive global assessment of potentials technologies economic benefits as well as cost and barriers to be removed It provides an overview of the policy instruments most useful for developing economies This innovative work also reminds us that we must act now if we are to unlock the potential of current and emerging energy efficiency technologies The opportunities are significant by reducing energy inputs per unit of output we will benefit from improvements in standards of living while protecting the environment National Human Development Report 2014 - Ethiopia United Nations Publications,2015 Over the 15 years since the countrys last National Human Development Report NHDR was published Ethiopia has undergone significant economic and social changes and has recorded some of the highest growth rates in the world over 10 per cent in some years However Ethiopias Human Development Index HDI and its relative ranking have not moved appreciably during the past decade Even though Ethiopia is one of the 10 countries globally that has attained the largest absolute gains in its HDI over the last several years it still ranks 173rd out of 186 countries in the latest UNDP Human Development Report It is this development challenge that underlines the fact that the preparation of the NHDR is so opportune now and why the focus of the report on inclusive growth for sustainable human development is so apposite In 1998 when the last NHDR was written the development challenges facing the country were considerably different
