Worldviews and Christian Education W. Shipton, E. Coetzee & R. Takeuchi, 2014-04 In Worldviews and Christian Education editors W A Shipton E Coetzee and R Takeuchi have brought together works by experts in cross cultural religious education The authors and editors have a wealth of personal experience in presenting the gospel to individuals with various worldviews that differ greatly from those held by Christians who take the Bible as authoritative They focus on the beliefs and issues associated with witnessing to seekers for truth coming from backgrounds as diverse and animism Buddhism Confucianism Hinduism Islam Marxism Taoism and postmodernism Back Cover Faith-Integrated Being, Knowing, and Doing Sarinah Lo, 2020-08-31 In this holistic study of the integration of faith and learning Dr Sarinah Lo challenges the Western tendency to privilege knowing over being and doing In the context of Indonesian higher education Dr Lo addresses the cognitive affective spiritual relational and vocational aspects of human nature She demonstrates that effective integration of faith and learning must reach beyond the academic disciplines to address the formation of a Christian perspective in all areas of life thought and practice Utilizing in depth interviews and qualitative analysis Dr Lo s field research explores the specific challenges facing Christian faculty in Indonesia where the rise of radical Islam and the pressure to conform to state ideology raise unique questions about the nature of faith learning integration The first study of its kind this is an excellent resource for educators wanting to think more broadly about what it means to follow Christ in the classroom pushing beyond Western models of integration to embrace the more holistic approach of faith integrated being knowing and doing

Mission in Context: In Search of Asian Strategic Communication of the Gospel Thang Deih Lian Davidlianno, 2018-05-09 There is a profusion of missional issues emerging in the Asian fields that call Christ s followers to actively witnessing the Truth Missionaries from different continents have come to serve the Asian nations and yet these God s loving missionaries effectiveness often seem to have left in the shade by some damaging fruits and sometimes being too much of Westernness stemming from a diversity of lacking knowledge particularly the local contexts to contextualize and lack of preparation The irrefutable finding is appealing within the Asian mission study in regard to the essentiality in equipping the Christians so that the ministries in Asia will experience the effectiveness in cultivating the diverse contexts cultures with the text Scripture they have Many principles and practical information from this book grew out of the authors experiences and the reflection of Missiologists and scholars such as Andrew Walls Christopher Wright Kazoh Kitamori Paul Hiebert etc Religious and Theological Abstracts , 1992 Cornell University Courses of Study Cornell University, 2003 Culture and Society in the Asia-Pacific Colin Mackerras, Richard Maidment, 2005-07-28 This important new text examines the crucial social and cultural factors associated with the rise of the Asia Pacific region at the end of the Twentieth Century It takes a close look at those areas which have affected the everyday life of the people most directly These include the family gender relations and the position of women religion the arts with specific reference to film ethnic relations and population migration education and the images of the Asia Pacific The authors discuss real tensions between tradition and modernity in different nations of the Asia Pacific exploring the effects that economic growth has on powerful traditional cultures

Building the Asia-Pacific Community Through Christian Education Yasuto Sano, Lee Won Sul, Lee Sang Yoon, 2003

Christian Mind in the Emerging World Peter Tze Ming Ng, Wing Tai Leung, Vaughan King Tong Mak, 2018-10-31 In response to challenges from the emerging world this book brings together essays that discuss and exemplify various related approaches to academic faith integration and explore how Christian faith should underpin scaffold and frame our understanding of academic disciplines leading to practical implications for work or action in modern society and culture Written by Christian scholars and practitioners from diverse backgrounds including the USA the UK Australia China Hong Kong South Korea and the Philippines the contributions here all contribute a global perspective while addressing some specific issue or case in the context of Asia They represent ingenious endeavors that illustrate the workings of a faith integrated approach in domains as wide as higher education business science psychology and counseling politics environment media social services leadership research and technology This volume will inform and inspire the reader into cross cultural and inter disciplinary studies particularly of religion education culture society and worldview

Divine Domesticities Hyaewol Choi, Margaret Jolly, 2014-10-29 Divine Domesticities Christian Paradoxes in Asia and the Pacific fills a huge lacuna in the scholarly literature on missionaries in Asia Pacific and is transnational history at its finest Co edited by two eminent scholars this multidisciplinary volume an outgrowth of several conferences seminars critically examines various encounters between western missionaries and indigenous women in the Pacific Asia Taken as a whole this is a thought provoking and an indispensable reference not only for students of colonialism imperialism but also for those of us who have an interest in transnational and gender history in general The chapters are very clearly written engaging and remarkably accessible the stories are compelling and the research is thorough The illustrations are equally riveting and the bibliography is extremely useful Theodore Jun Yoo History Department University of Hawai i The editors of this collection of papers have done an excellent job of creating a coherent set of case studies that address the diverse impacts of missionaries and Christianity on domesticity and therefore on the women and children who were assumed to be the rightful inhabitants of that sphere The introduction to the volume is beautifully written and sets up the rest of the volume in a comprehensive way It explains the book s aim to advance theoretical and methodological issues by exploring the role of missionary encounters in the development of modern domesticities showing the agency of indigenous women in negotiating both change and continuity and providing a wide range of case studies to show breadth and complexity and the local and national specificities of engagements with both missionaries and modernity My view is that all three aims are well and truly fulfilled Helen Lee Head Sociology and Anthropology La Trobe University Melbourne

Ministry Across Cultures Warren R. Beattie, 2017-12-11 At a time when more and more Christians are coming across people from different cultural backgrounds this book addresses a number of important questions How do we understand what culture is all about How do we reach out to people from different cultures What impact does culture have on making disciples What impact does culture have on the local church This book seeks to address and answer these questions it is relevant to all Christians including those who are members or leaders of local churches who want to reach out to their neighbours and encourage them to be part of the church as well It would also be useful for those about to engage in mission in a new culture This book is therefore useful for missionaries evangelists tent makers theological educators and church leaders It is in fact useful for all Christians living in a world where local realities are no longer mono cultural Dr Robert Solomon formerly Bishop of the Methodist Church of Singapore Kirk The 21st century has introduced new challenges for communicating the gospel particularly in burgeoning places of urbanization on all continents especially in Asia Therefore the reflections examples and missiological foundations presented from a variety of authors will be helpful to anyone called to minister in similar situations Franklin Executive Director Wycliffe Global Alliance In recent years the subject of contextualisation has been a prominent topic among mission workers and missiologists The debate has focused on how far we can go in contextualising the Gospel I welcome OMF s commitment to this important subject with the publication of Ministry Across Cultures Sharing the Christian Faith in Asia Malcolm McGregor former SIM International Director 2003 to 2013 The issue of contextualization lies at the heart of mission in every situation without exception I rejoice therefore in this book as a significant contribution to this debate It is my prayer that God s people in every continent and country may be encouraged in the application of contextualization principles both personally and in their church Martin Goldsmith Author and Associate Lecturer All Nations Christian College Ware UK Warren R Beattie has been a missionary involved in mission and missional education in Belgium South Korea Singapore and the UK for over thirty years He is the M A Programme Leader at All Nations Christian College in the U K was a Faculty Member at the Discipleship Training Centre in Singapore Director for Mission Research with OMF International and has a Ph D in World Christianity from the University of Edinburgh

Asian Worldviews Rein Raud, 2021-01-05 An ambitious comparative introduction to Asian thought expertly written for undergraduate courses in Asian Studies Asian philosophy and neighboring disciplines Recent decades have witnessed a sharp increase of interest in the cultures and regions of South and East Asia owing in part to the prominent role Asian economies have played in the era of globalization Asian Worldviews Religions Philosophies Political Theories is a unique reader friendly introduction to the intellectual heritage of the region Assuming no previous background in Asian cultural history Asian Worldviews moves beyond chronological and geographic boundaries to present an integrated treatment of the beliefs teachings and ideologies that have shaped the worldviews of approximately half of the global population Rein Raud explores forms of knowledge in China India Tibet Japan Korea and Southeast Asia providing balanced coverage of all historical periods from antiquity to the modern day Asian Worldviews embraces the connections rather than the divisions between the religious and philosophical dimensions of South and East Asian thought and emphasizes a robust engagement with each culture's political, social and economic contexts. Clear, accessible chapters discuss the development of religious, philosophical and political thought in India, China and Japan, and provide succinct overviews of the history of ideas in Korea, Tibet and Southeast Asia. Throughout the book, Raud uses a comparative approach to examine the mutual influence and productive dialogue past and present between Asian cultures as well as with the West, and considers the impact of various worldviews on the development of modern Asian societies. Comprehensive and well informed by recent developments in the scholarship, Asian Worldviews: Religions, Philosophies, Political Theories is an unparalleled resource for a broad range of courses in Asian studies, philosophy, religious studies and global politics, as well as an excellent introduction for non-specialist readers looking for a contextual foothold in the rich cultural and intellectual history of South and East Asia.

Future of Religion and Education in the Asia-Pacific Age Jin Hui Ong, 1984 Globalisation Joseph A. Camilleri, Chandra Muzaffar, 1998-01-01 Ministry Across Cultures Warren R. Beattie, 2016

At a time when more and more Christians are coming across people from different cultural backgrounds, this book addresses a number of important questions: How do we understand what culture is all about? How do we reach out to people from different cultures? What impact does culture have on making disciples? What impact does culture have on the local church? This book seeks to address and answer these questions; it is relevant to all Christians, including those who are members or leaders of local churches who want to reach out to their neighbours and encourage them to be part of the church, as
