Care for the Church and Its Liturgy William H. Johnston, 2013 In the apostolic letter Summorum Pontificum Pope Benedict XVI made the preconciliar Mass more widely available for Catholics who seek it designating it the extraordinary form of the Roman Rite The Mass as revised after Vatican II thus received the designation of ordinary form Liturgical Theology as a Research Program Joris Geldhof, 2020-06-02 This essay is centered around five questions i What is the proper place of liturgical theology ii Which evolutions have there been in the past and which current tendencies are there in the field of liturgical theology iii Which contents must liturgical theologians focus on iv How can liturgical theologians engage in research And v How can liturgical theology appropriately respond to what happens in Church and society Each question corresponds with one part The rationale behind ordering the content of this essay in this way is the following starting from a reflection about the non evident place of liturgical theology an attempt is made to give it a fitting profile again on the basis of its genealogy in the Liturgical Movement Correspondingly liturgical theology can be considered a full fledged research program which does not simply deal with Christian rituals festivals and sacraments but with the core of Christian faith

The Genius of the Roman Rite Keith F. Pecklers, 2009 The Roman Rite has evolved over the centuries in very diverse contexts and situations and it has endured to our own day precisely because of its capacity to adapt and be shaped by the distinct cultures where it has been celebrated In 2002 the Latin third edition of the Missale Romanum was promulgated and in subsequent years episcopal conferences have been busy at work producing vernacular translations of that Latin text As the English speaking world prepares to receive and implement the English translation of the Missal Dr Pecklers book is offered as an instrument of catechesis in helping clergy and laity alike to better grasp the rationale for the new translations by considering the wider context of the Rite itself Keith F Pecklers SJ is professor of liturgy at the Pontifical Gregorian University and professor of liturgical history at the Pontifical Liturgical Institute in Rome He is the author of the following titles published by Liturgical Press Dynamic Equivalence The Living Language of Christian Worship The Unread Vision The Liturgical Movement in the United States of America 1926 1955 Worship A Primer in Christian Ritual and editor of Liturgy for the New Millennium A Commentary on the Revised Sacramentary He is also the author of Liturgy from Trent to Vatican II included in the Handbook of Liturgical Studies published by Liturgical Press

Dynamic Equivalence Keith F. Pecklers, 2003 In studying the history of the vernacular in worship beginning with the Christian Scriptures Dynamic Equivalence uncovers the power of a living language to transform communities of faith How we pray when we come together for common worship has always been significant but the issue of liturgical language received unprecedented attention in the twentieth century when Latin Rite Roman Catholic worship was opened to the vernacular at Vatican II Worshiping in one's native tongue continues to be of issue as the churches debate over what type of vernacular should be employed Dynamic Equivalence traces the history of liturgical language in the Western Christian tradition as a dynamic and living reality Particular attention is paid to the twentieth century Vernacular Society within the United States and how the vernacular issue was treated at Vatican II especially within an ecumenical context The first chapter offers a short history of the vernacular from the first century through the twentieth The second and third chapters contain a significant amount of archival material much of which has never been published before These chapters tell the story of a mixed group of Catholic laity and clergy dedicated to promoting the vernacular during the first half of the twentieth century Chapter Four begins with a survey of vernacular promotion in the Reformation itself explores the issue of vernacular worship as an instrument of ecumenical hospitality and concludes with some examples of ecumenical liturgical cooperation in the years immediately preceding the Council The final chapter treats the vernacular debate at the Council with attention to the Vernacular Society's role in helping with the implementation of the vernacular Chapters are A Brief History of the Vernacular The Origins of the Vernacular Society 1946 1956 Pressure for the Vernacular Mounts 1956 1962 Vernacular Worship and Ecumenical Exchange Vatican II and the Vindication of the Vernacular 1962 1965 Keith F Pecklers SJ SLD is professor of liturgy at the Pontifical Gregorian University in Rome and professor of liturgical history at the Pontifical Liturgical Institute of Sant Anselmo He is the author of The Unread Vision The Liturgical Movement in the United States of America 1926 1955 and co editor of Liturgy for the New Millennium A Commentary on the Revised Sacramentary published by The Liturgical Press Christian Ritualizing and the Baptismal Process Susan Marie Smith, 2011-11-15 Most people even non Christians know that Christians gather for worship once a week and that they are right there to support each other when there is a baptism or a wedding or a funeral But what about other poignant vulnerable or life changing times How does the church help people handle changes that in the past in Christendom were considered secular Does the church have a role at retirement when one's ministry changes or when a family's children leave home and familiar patterns seem to grind to a halt Is there any rite possible for someone who is called to Christian ministry but not to ordination Or to someone whose vows are broken in divorce Christian Ritualizing and the Baptismal Process asserts that baptism marks the beginning of a process of participation in Christ's ministry so that no part of life can finally be considered secular Susan Marie Smith shows how every passage healing and ministry vocation is holy and she lays the groundwork needed for every church to create the rituals necessary to lament and celebrate the endings and beginnings that happen in every Christian life Preaching to Latinos Michael Kueber, Michael I. Kueber, 2022-11-08 There is a wide and growing gap in the Catholic Church in the United States between the clergy who are mostly of European descent and the large percentages of Catholics who identify as Latinos While the US Church has made a concerted effort to build Hispanic ministries many clergy and lay ministers are still ill equipped to understand the cultural background of their parishioners especially the large numbers who are foreign born Because of this disconnect the Church risks missing the Hispanic Moment in the US Church in which the faith and traditions of these newest waves of US immigration could not just exist in parallel to English language congregations but enrich and enliven the faith of the whole community while passing on the faith to subsequent generations Learning Spanish while helpful is not enough There are intercultural competencies that can only be developed through practice but it also helps already busy clergy to have a concise guide In addition to knowing the scholarly literature on cross cultural preaching and Hispanic culture Father Michael Kueber has twenty years of experience serving first generation Hispanic immigrants and their second generation children In Preaching to Latinos Kueber provides the readers with best practices for preaching to and leading their churches As a member of an ecumenical community he is able to speak to members of all Christian denominations Celebrating Good Liturgy James Martin, 2010-06 Transforming

FOR PASTORS AND PLANNERS WHAT YOU WISH YOU LEARNED IN SCHOOL William D. Kirkwood, 2023-11-10 There has to be more to leading worship than what I ve been doing That nagging thought drove William Kirkwood to develop this primer on worship for all lead pastors and worship planners who have wondered the same thing Most pastors come out of seminary with little training in worship yet are ultimately responsible for the worship life of their church Most worship planners leaders have musical and leadership skills but little theological background in worship Kirkwood brings his decades of worship leading experience and education from the Robert E Webber Institute for Worship Studies into the pages of this timely book He explores the biblical historical theological and cultural foundations of worship and brings them together with practical guidance on how to create vibrant worship services that facilitate a divine human interaction The primer is written for leaders in contemporary free churches traditional liturgical churches and charismatic Pentecostal churches Each chapter includes thoughtful exercises and questions to help in your own church context as well as recommended resources for further study

Celebrating Divine Mystery Catherine Vincie, 2016-03-24 Christians are identified by their participation in liturgy In this primer Catherine Vincie introduces readers to current liturgical theology by providing them with the foundational themes of the field She explains that liturgy draws us into the paschal mystery of Jesus Christ that it should create a space in which we attempt to name toward God by employing an abundance of metaphors and images and that the sacraments are communicated and understood through the use of symbols Vincie is grounded in the liturgical reforms of the Second Vatican Council As such Celebrating Divine Mystery seeks to draw readers into full conscious and active participation in the liturgy by informing them about recent scholarship and challenging them to enter the divine mystery as informed and engaged participants Catherine Vincie RSHM PhD is professor of sacramental and liturgical theology at the Aquinas Institute of Theology in St Louis She is also author of The Role of the Assembly in Christian Initiation and many articles on initiation Eucharist and liturgy and justice As a practicing liturgical musician she is also interested in the role of the arts in past and current liturgical celebration

Giving the Church Michael Moynagh, 2024-05-30 The nucleus of the church's vocation is to join the Spirit in giving communion in Christ to others in the form of new Christian communities for the benefit of the world But can the church be a welcome gift In Giving the Church leading ecclesialogist Michael Moynagh draws together recent thinking from the worlds of ecclesiology and missiology with significant sociological work on the idea of gift to provide a much needed theological rationale for some of the key missiological and ecclesiological movements in today's church Part 1 reworks some of the big themes in ecclesiology from this giving perspective the nature of the church the four marks the visible hidden church and inclusion exclusion Part 2 meanwhile draws on the extensive literature on gifts to offer an ethical framework for giving the church to others and uses this framework to provide fresh readings of liberationist herald and eucharistic models of the church It concludes by arguing that giving the church away can be a route to making the church a more attractive gift

The Eucharist and World Hunger Izunna Okonkwo, 2011-12-21 Hunger is a menace in different parts of the globe It has more unnatural than natural causes Though efforts have been made towards alleviating its causes and consequences more actions still need to be taken for its genuine alleviation and eventual eradication in the world For Joseph Grassi painful hunger is a daily occurrence that must be countered by ongoing effective programs that enter into the lives of every Christian Such position not only recognises the frequency and excruciating nature of hunger but also suggests that Christians and other religious groups have a very important role to play in order to eradicate hunger and its devastating effects This book explores the nuances of hunger its causes dimensions and approaches as well as its connection to the Eucharist It argues that hunger can be eradicated and that the Eucharist stands out as a veritable model

The Catholic Church John L. Allen Jr., 2014-03-03 Roman Catholicism stands at a crossroads a classic best of times worst of times moment On the one hand the Catholic Church remains by far the largest branch of the worldwide Christian family and is growing at a
