Sermons That Sing Noel A. Snyder, 2021-08-17 Preaching and music are both regular elements of Christian worship yet they often don't interact or inform each other in meaningful ways Theologian pastor and musician Noel A Snyder considers how preaching that seeks to engage hearts and minds might be helpfully informed by musical theory so that preachers might craft sermons that sing

Scripting a Sermon Shauna Hannan, Gael Chandler, 2024-11-12 Scripting a Sermon approaches common challenges for crafting sermons looking toward the essential components of filmmaking to help preachers create more potent sermons In this third volume in the Preaching and series Shauna K Hannan and Gael Chandler combine their expertise to focus on the convergences between the crafts of homiletics and filmmaking Looking to enliven the preached word this book draws attention to the ways in which the sermon is set up to captivate the audience For example sermon openings which are frequently disconnected from the sermon's overall point or needlessly long are explored through the techniques of filmmakers who use opening shots to introduce the narrative Readers will be enlightened to how filmmakers use these openings to set the tone of the film involve the audience in the characters story and establish expectations for what the audience will encounter throughout the film Hannan and Chandler give detailed and practical advice on specific aspects of this and other processes that preachers could use to craft far more effective sermons Other chapters cover building scenes and characters being a good editor of your work and crafting effective sermon endings Equipped with the wisdom of the best filmmakers skilled preachers will gain greater insight into powerful methods for captivating hearers and impacting our world

Making a Scene in the Pulpit Alyce M. McKenzie, 2018-10-23 How can preachers ensure that their sermons continue to engage listeners in a world defined by visual media and the short segmented delivery of information Alyce McKenzie harnesses the element of drama and the human fascination with scenes to offer ministers a modern means of sermon development and delivery McKenzie's core strategy is to invite listeners into scenes whether from Scripture or contemporary life and once they are there to point them toward the larger story of God's relationship with humankind Creating such scenes unifies the whole process of preaching she says from the preacher's daily life observations to interpretation of scenes from Scripture to sermon shaping sequencing and delivery The process culminates in a specific understanding of the purpose of the sermon to send listeners out into the scenes they'll play in their lives for the next week equipped to act out their parts in ways that are kinder more just and more courageous than last week
