

Troy (2004 Movie) Study Guide

The movie Troy is not Homer's Iliad, as you will see. The movie begins before the war with Troy and takes the story past where the Iliad ends; in other words, it tries to cover the entire Trojan War, plus. Our task is to discern what changes the filmmakers made, as well as to theorize about why they made the choices they did with the story. In other words, what can we learn from the changes that are made about the cultural norms or expectations of a contemporary audience. The Iliad's audience was ancient Greeks and their expectations of how heroes ought to behave. Troy's audience is 21. century North American and their expectations about what is important. The differences are telling and should bring into sharp relief why stories are told the way they are.

As you watch the movie, be attentive to changes from Homer's story as well as how long it takes for everything to transpire. Here are your questions:

- How does the movie begin (i.e. with what event?)
- The Iliad refers to homelands as "cities." How does Troy reference homelands?
- Whereas the Iliad leaves the question of whether Helen left Sparta willingly unanswered, Troy leaves no doubt. What is the answer?
- In the movie, why does Agamemnon agree to support his brother Menelaus?
- Why does Achilles agree to go to war with the Greeks?
- Why does Priam agree to have Troy fight the war?
- In the film, who offends the god Apollo?
- Who is Briesis in the film?
- What happens in the battle between Paris and Menelaus in the film version?
- Who kills Ajax?
- Under what circumstances does Patroclus die?
- What is Achilles' motivation for fighting after the death of Hector, considering he sends his Myrmidon soldiers home?
- How do the Greeks spend the 12-day armistice for Hector's funeral?
- How and why does Achilles die?
- Do the filmmakers "side" with the Greeks or Trojans? Pay attention to the music as this often signals sympathies.
- How does the film end?
- How long does the war with Troy last?
