

The background of the book cover is a photograph of several pieces of green Depression glass. In the center-left is a tall, fluted glass tumbler with a wide rim. To its left is a smaller, similar glass. To the right is a large, ornate glass butter dish with a lid featuring a decorative finial. In the foreground, there is a large, shallow glass platter with a scalloped edge and a central decorative motif. The glassware is set against a light, neutral background.
