Curriculum Overload A Way Forward OECD, 2020-11-25 Schools are constantly under pressure to keep up with the pace of changes in society In parallel societal demands for what schools should teach are also constantly changing often driven by political agendas ideologies or parental pressures to add global competency digital literacy data literacy environmental literacy media literacy social emotional skills etc This curriculum expansion puts pressure on policy makers and schools to add new contents to already crowded curriculum

Working for the Public Good Leslie F. Weber Jr., 2025-10-21 Weber demonstrates conclusively that despite historical critiques of quietism European Lutherans developed a social ethics in the centuries following the Reformation that brought about fundamental systemic and structural changes in social services law education health care the formation of states and nations and public morality Those changes eventually led to the development of the welfare state In so doing Weber challenges interpretations by scholars such as the German Lutheran theologian Ernst Troeltsch who argued that Lutheran theology created a church operating at a remove from society's pressing questions Weber's comprehensive coverage of northern European society from the Reformation era through the nineteenth century utilizes the tools of sociology theology history and ethics to demonstrate that Lutheran ethical theory a Lutheran understanding of the social order and Lutheran social reforms lie at the heart of modern European social institutions Grounded in a Lutheran ethic of faith active in love for the neighbor Lutheran ethics transformed the household and polity developed government care for the poor protected public health and promoted social welfare within a new moral and legal order that continues to underpin contemporary social democracy across northern Europe
