Verhulst,2002-01-12 This project originally developed for the European Community examines parental roles in controlling television programs watched by children in Europe The structure of the study includes an analysis of the technical devices available to assist in parental control of television broadcasting services including descriptions of devices their cost availability and the infrastructure needed to introduce them a corresponding analysis of potential ratings or labeling systems to work in conjunction with or in the place of technical devices enabling a comparative analysis of rating systems used in film video and online services and an overview and assessment of the educational and awareness measures in the field of protection of minors and harmful content providing the data for the review of available considerations in this field of viewer literacy In addition to these main strands of analysis the study provides for background information and analysis in the following areas an overview of the main media theories focusing on the effect and impact of specific types of content on children and their behavior an assessment of the economic impact and social efficacy of different protective measures and a comparison of the regulatory contexts and rating systems for film video television and online services concerning the protection of minors from harmful content This volume is intended for scholars and students in comparative media studies

Trailers Series Book 8 (Large Print) Joseph Alexander Altsheler,2015-03-01 A late sun red and vivid cast beams of light over a dark river flowing slowly The stream was a full half mile from shore to shore and the great weight of water moved on in silent majesty Both banks were lined with heavy forest dark green by day but fused now into solid blackness by the approach of night The scene was wild and primordial To an eye looking down it would have seemed that man had never come there and that this was the dawn of time The deep waters lapped the silent shore until a gentle sighing sound arose a sound that may have gone on unheard for ages Close to the water a file of wild ducks flew like an arrow to the north and in a little cove where the current came in shallow waves a stag bent his head to drink The Canadian Mining Journal Benjamin
