Theological Reflection Across Religious Traditions The Turn To Reflective Believing:

Theological Reflection Across Religious Traditions Edward Foley, 2015 Theological reflection connecting real life ministry and religious traditions is a core component of most pastoral training It is also a hallmark of practical theology and a common spiritual exercise among ordinary Christians trying to discern how their beliefs might influence daily living Yet our society is increasingly pluralistic with growing numbers of people from varying belief systems from Islam to Buddhism as well as an increasing number of atheists In this book Edward Foley reimagines theological reflection in interfaith contexts and with those of no faith tradition The book addresses and celebrates diverse beliefs and envisions the practice of theological reflection in such contexts Theological Reflection Across Religious Traditions introduces readers to the basics of traditional forms of theological reflection then considers how it might be reconceived in different contexts from interfaith ministers working together to reduce poverty and homelessness to people of diverse or no faith traditions strategizing to secure the dignity of undocumented immigrants Beyond suggestions for collaborative social action the book offers tools for productive interfaith conversation through a process Foley calls reflective believing This is a groundbreaking rethinking of theological reflection for today's world proposing that people across the religious landscape can participate in reflective believing for personal and communal benefit without sacrificing their own integrity Pro Ecclesia Vol 24-N4 Joseph Mangina, Associate Professor of Theology & Director of Advanced Degree Studies, Wycliffe College, Toronto, Pro Ecclesia, 2015-11-19 Pro Ecclesia is a quarterly journal of theology published by the Center for Catholic and Evangelical Theology Pro Ecclesia Vol 25-N3 Pro Ecclesia, Joseph Mangina, Associate Professor of Theology & Director of Advanced Degree Studies, Wycliffe College, Toronto, 2016-08-25 Pro Ecclesia is a quarterly journal of theology published by the Center for Catholic and Evangelical Theology Overhearing a Christian Apology to the Nones Thomas E. Rodgerson, 2021-11-03 While the steady increase of the religiously unaffiliated Nones in America has generated anxious responses about rising secularism and loss of national identity this book suggests a wider meaning making approach wherein the Nones are seen as valuable dialogue partners necessary in this pivotal moment for the revealing of still hidden truths about culture spirituality and religion Christians who overhear this dialogue may find upon self reflection an emerging truth about their relationships embedded stories level of faith development and susceptibility to a culturally conditioned transactional religion Nones who choose to engage in dialogue may find that the nothingness they bring to the dialogue is more significant than they realize revealing truths of an apophatic spiritual path necessary for generating a transformational faith of freedom and capable of rebalancing a divisive consumer driven society The religious and the not religious who are often seen as being on opposite sides of an imagined religious threshold may instead be seen as standing together in a liminal space that opens in wordless silence to yet unseen possibilities and from which emerge new stories aligned with the heart of Creation Pro Ecclesia Vol 25-N2 Joseph Mangina, Associate Professor of Theology & Director of Advanced Degree

Hammann, 1987-09-15 His Hiding Place Is Darkness Francis X. Clooney S.J., 2013-12-04 His Hiding Place is Darkness explores the uncertainties of faith and love in a pluralistic age In keeping with his conviction that studying multiple religious traditions intensifies rather than attenuates religious devotion Francis Clooney s latest work of comparative theology seeks a way beyond today s religious and interreligious uncertainty by pairing a fresh reading of the absence of the beloved in the Biblical Song of Songs with a pioneering study of the same theme in the Holy Word of Mouth 9th century CE a classic of Hindu mystical poetry rarely studied in the West Remarkably the pairing of these texts is grounded not in a general theory of religion but in an engagement with two unexpected sources the theopoetics theodramatics and theology of the 20th century Catholic theologian Hans Urs von Balthasar and the intensely perceived and written poetry of Pulitzer Prize winner Jorie Graham How we read and write on religious matters is transformed by this rare combination of voices in what is surely a unique and important contribution to comparative studies and religious hermeneutics

Interrupting Tradition Lieven Boeve, 2003 Not so long ago it would have been fair to say that the Catholic Church and the Catholic faith determined human life and social existence more or less unquestioned in Flanders and in a large part of Western Europe The Catholic faith community in Flanders today however is struggling with the fact that the transmission of the Christian tradition has been flagging in recent years This has not only led to diminished faith engagement and a massive decline in church attendance it has also had its effects in the cultural domain culture has become de traditionalised traditional Christian culture is worn out Even convinced Christians are having problems reflecting on the plausibility of their faith precisely because of the chasm that has opened up between faith and culture The author of the present study argues that every new context challenges the Christian tradition to recontextualise its presentation of meaning and purpose in a cogent and credible fashion Christians today do themselves a disservice when they withdraw into a world of absolute self justification At the same time however the author avoids any form of appeal for an extensive adaptation to the postmodern context Only a new dialogue between tradition and culture respectful of and indeed thanks to the growing division between both can claim to offer a future In the first part of the book the author provides a pithy description of the vicissitudes of the Christian tradition in modernity and postmodernity Against this background he attempts to clarify the situation in which the Christian tradition finds itself today The second part of the book is devoted to an analysis of the actual context with a view to establishing points of intersection on the basis of which the dialogue between faith and culture may be revived The third part of the book endeavours to provide this dialogue with concrete form The reader is introduced to a challenging image of Jesus an image that is contextual and theologically motivated prior to being invited by the author into a reopened reflection on God The volume concludes by drawing renewed attention to the place of the Christian faith in relation to the other world religions The results of Boeve's study reveal that Christians do indeed have the capacity to reflect on their faith in a credible and relevant manner in relation to the actual context in which they find themselves and without relapsing into the extremes of traditionalism or relativism Lieven Boeve is professor of Fundamental Theology at the Faculty of Theology K U Leuven Belgium He is also co ordinator of the research group Theology in a postmodern context
