Moore, 2003-05-22 How do we know music We perform it we compose it we sing it in the shower we cook sleep and dance to it Eventually we think and write about it This book represents the culmination of such shared processes Each of these essays written by leading writers on popular music is analytical in some sense but none of them treats analysis as an end in itself The book presents a wide range of genres rock dance TV soundtracks country pop soul easy listening Turkish Arabesk and deals with issues as broad as methodology modernism postmodernism Marxism and communication It aims to encourage listeners to think more seriously about the social consequences of the music they spend time with and is the first collection of such essays to incorporate contextualisation in this way

Hits and Misses Robert Toft, 2010-11-04 Hits and Misses examines a selection of songs and recordings through the lens of textual criticism and delineates the creative process as it unfolds from the initial conception of a song to the final mix presented on disc The book takes as its subject top 40 singles released between 1963 and 1971 in the USA Britain and Canada and considers the songs themselves and their transformation in the studio Robert Toft studies the methods by which recordists songwriters arrangers band members producers and engineers impart their ideas to audiences The first part of the book concentrates on songs and examines lyrics and the strategies songwriters employ to develop a story as well as the music that enhances the telling of those stories The second part of the book investigates the sonic surface of recordings and considers how recordists fashion musical material into effective musical discourse Hits and Misses will be an invaluable text for all those who are studying the sound craft and context of pop music
