Try To Remember:

Try to Remember Jack Orbach, 2000 This riveting family saga about the son of a Polish Jewish immigrant to Canada is told in 17 short stories that blend tragedy and humor The overarching figure is Jacob who loses his mother at three and is raised by his stepmother His father from an orthodox Jewish home in Lodz escapes from the Polish army under bizarre circumstances and searches for a place to settle After a stint in Germany and Palestine as a chutzpah pioneer he tries to settle in the US but is hounded as an illegal immigrant and finally finds a home in Montreal where Jacob is born and bred After high school Jacob tries working in his father's printing shop but finds business not appealing His parents give him violin lessons and as a teenager he studies music seriously Near the end of World War II Jacob begins his academic career receiving his BA at McGill and his PhD at Princeton His mentors are two prominent neuropsychologists and his professional career is rich with anecdotes After a sexual apprenticeship he marries Raquel and has four children The tragic deaths of Raquel first and then of his eldest daughter shatter the family Jacob divorces twice before finding happiness with his present wife ProjectThink
