Contextualizing Global Flows of Competency-Based Education Kathryn Anderson-Levitt, Meg P. Gardinier, 2023-10-31 The new comparative research in this volume explores the global flow of competence based education curricular policy and frameworks for instructional practice Taking critical perspectives the chapters trace the pathways through which educators and policy actors adopted and reshaped competence based education as promoted by the OECD the World Bank and the European Union The authors ask What purposes do competence based educational reforms serve How are competence based models internationally deployed and locally modified What happens as competence based reforms get re contextualized and contested in particular cultural social and political contexts In their nuanced examination of these global flows the authors theorize how competence based reform strategies variously produce hybridity silent borrowing loud borrowing and new social imaginaries Although entangled with other hot topics in educational research skills and dispositions for citizenship and employment higher order and critical thinking and socio emotional learning competence itself has multiple fluid meanings The authors dissect this polysemy while documenting the pivotal role of key actors in the development design and deployment of reforms in diverse international contexts Contextualizing Global Flows of Competency Based Education will be a key resource for academics researchers and advanced students of comparative education educational research curriculum studies sociology and education leadership and policy This book was originally published as a special issue of Comparative Education

The Transnational in the History of Education Eckhardt Fuchs, Eugenia Roldán Vera, 2019-05-25 This edited volume reflects on how the transnational features in education as well as policies and practices are conceived of as mobile and connected beyond the local Like globalization the transnational is much more than a static reality of the modern world it has become a mode of observation and self reflection that informs education research history and policy in many world regions This book examines the sociocultural project that the transnational turn evident in historical scholarship of the last few decades represents and how a transnational history shapes how historians construct their objects of study It does so from a multinational perspective yet with a view of the different layers of historical meanings associated with the concept of the transnational

Europe in the Classroom Simona Szakács, 2017-10-13 This book provides an unconventional account of post 1989 education reform in Romania By drawing on policy documentation interviews with key players qualitative data from everyday school contexts and extensive textbook analysis this groundbreaking study explores change within the Romanian education system as a process that institutionalises world culture through symbolic mediation of the concept Europe The book argues that the education system's structural and organisational evolution through time is decoupled from its self depiction by ultimately serving a nation building agenda It does so despite notable changes in the discourse reflecting increasingly transnational definitions of the mission of the school in the post 1989 era The book also suggests that the notions of nation and citizen institutionalised by the school are gradually being redefined as cosmopolitan matching post war patterns of post national affiliations on a worldwide level Decoupling Ethan Michelson, 2022-03-31 Explores how China's divorce courts have generally done less to protect abused women than to empower and enable their abusers

The Global South and comparative and international education Charl C. Wolhuter, 2023-04-30 This book proposes and unpacks the construct Criticism against Northern Hegemony in the scholarly field of Comparative and International Education as bringing together a number of related strands in the field and as showing a promising future trajectory for the evolution of the field namely the affirmation of the Global South This construct captures a significant amount of what leading scholars in the field of Comparative and International Education are currently engaged with It also expresses a view of both the current epoch of education as well as of the societal contextual imperatives shaping education Criticism against Northern Hegemony in the field comes to the fore in a number of related strands in the current discourse in the field This scholarly book originates from the Research Unit of Human Rights Education in Diversity at North West University South Africa where the author is affiliated The book is grounded in the Creed for Human Rights From this perspective the book advocates for a new phase in the historical development of the field with a focus on advancing the affirmation of the Global South as a central moral foundation The author envisions that this shift will represent a significant advancement in Comparative and International Education propelling it to an unprecedented stage of value and importance

The Oxford Handbook of Education and Globalization Paola Mattei, Xavier Dumay, Eric Mangez, Jacqueline Behrend, 2023 The Oxford Handbook on Education and Globalization brings together in a unique way leading authors in social theory and in political science and reflects on how these two disciplines deal with the relation between globalization and education The handbook develops a firmer and tighter dialogue between social theory and education research and analyzes the political and institutional factors that shape the adoption of global reforms in education at multiple levels of governance It is a must read for anyone looking for a comprehensive overview of how globalization and education interact to result in distinct and varying outcomes across world regions

Keywords in Education Policy Research Andrew Wilkins, Steven J. Courtney, Nelli Piattoeva, 2024-01-10 The field of education policy research is a dense crowded space owing to its complicated relationship to different intellectual histories and the influence of various ontologies or turns To aid comprehension and clarity this book describes the history contribution and application of over 90 keywords in the field of education policy research It is designed as a reference learning and teaching tool to assist students educators and researchers with complex learning and teaching wider and background reading and knowledge building critical scholarship and research interdisciplinary thinking and writing and theory development and application Intercultural Transfer of Management Practices of German MNC to Brazil Madeleine Bausch, 2022-07-14 Multinational companies transfer managerial practices such as quality management globally Studies from different perspectives have examined cultural institutional and organizational challenges in practice transfer however little is known about the micro processes of intercultural transfer especially in complex cultural settings as Brazil Integrating the recontextualization perspective and Scandinavian institutionalist transfer as translation approach this book explores micro processes of transfer from German MNC to Brazilian subsidiaries from a multiple cultures perspective Findings show the complementary nature of micro processes of translation and recontextualization embedding them into a process model of four stages Preparation translation recontextualization and institutionalization Intercultural transfer can be considered an iterative and multi level process in which practices diffuse from individuals to teams to the organization The book contributes to international management by cross fertilizing the two approaches by highlighting cultural and institutional particularities of the Brazilian context using a culturally sensitive methodology and by showing the transformative power of managerial practices on organizations and ecosystems
