Woven Threads Patterned Textiles Of The Aegean Bronze Age:

Woven Threads Maria C. Shaw, Anne P. Chapin, 2015-12-31 Woven textiles are produced by nearly all human societies This volume investigates evidence for patterned textiles that is textiles woven with elaborate designs that were produced by two early Mediterranean civilizations the Minoans of Crete and the Mycenaeans of mainland Greece that prospered during the Aegean Bronze Age c 3000 1200 BC contemporary with Pharaonic Egypt Both could boast of specialists in textile production Together with their wine oil and art Minoan and Mycenaean textiles were much desired as trade goods Artistic images of their fabrics preserved both in the Aegean and in other parts of the Mediterranean show elaborate patterns woven with rich decorative detail and color Only a few small scraps of textiles survive but evidence for their production is abundant and frescoes supply detailed information about a wide variety of now lost textile goods from luxurious costumes and beautifully patterned wall hangings and carpets to more utilitarian decorated fabrics A review of surviving artistic and archaeological evidence indicates that textiles played essential practical and social roles in both Minoan and Mycenaean societies Processions: Studies of Bronze Age Ritual and Ceremony presented to Robert B. Koehl Judith Weingarten, Colin F. Macdonald, Joan Aruz, Lara Fabian, Nisha Kumar, 2023-10-05 Robert Koehl has long considered processions to have played an integral role in Aegean Bronze Age societies Papers concentrate mainly on evidence from Crete the Cyclades and the Greek mainland with additional perspectives from abroad these geographic divisions forming the basic outline of this volume

Journal of Greek Archaeology Volume 3 2018 ,2018-10-31 True to its initial aims the latest volume of the Journal of Greek Archaeology runs the whole chronological range of Greek Archaeology while including every kind of material culture

Minoan Wall Painting of Pseira, Crete: A Goddess Worshipped in the Shrine ,2024-10-29 Short description Evidence is presented for restoring the fragmentary wall painting from the Minoan shrine on the islet of Pseira located just off the northeastern coast of Crete A large scale goddess faces a smaller suppliant in a presentation scene on an incurved altar platform Virtually restored to the east wall of Room 6 the goddess confirms the building as a shrine and religious center of the community The painting's Knossian style and technique and imported Knossian ritual vessels argue for a strong Knossian religious presence at Pseira Long description This study presents evidence for restoring the fragmentary painting from Pseira It argues against previous reconstructions finding errors including ignoring the fragments scales With the fragments scales accurately recorded the study reveals a large scale goddess facing a smaller suppliant in a presentation scene on an incurved altar platform The reconstruction is based on examinations drawings and photographs taken to scale of the fragments and digital imaging The painted garments are translated into modern cloth replicas that adorn live models that pose as goddess and suppliant Virtually restored to the east wall of Room 6 the goddess positively establishes the building already conjectured as a shrine and identifies it as the religious center of the community The painting's Knossian style and technique and imported Knossian ritual vessels argue for a strong Knossian religious presence at Pseira Knossian style religious processions likely culminated at the shrine to present offerings to the goddess

Naval Warfare and Maritime Conflict in the Late Bronze and Early Iron Age Mediterranean Jeffrey P. Emanuel, 2020-11-04 In Naval Warfare and Maritime Conflict in the Late Bronze and Early Iron Age Mediterranean Jeffrey P Emanuel examines the evidence for maritime violence in the Mediterranean region during both the Late Bronze Age and the tumultuous transition to the Early Iron Age in the years surrounding the turn of the 12th century BCE There has traditionally been little differentiation between the methods of armed conflict engaged in during the Late Bronze and Early Iron Ages on both the coasts and the open seas while polities have been alternately characterized as legitimate martial actors and as state sponsors of piracy By utilizing material documentary and iconographic evidence and delineating between the many forms of armed conflict Emanuel provides an up to date assessment not only of the nature and frequency of warfare raiding piracy and other forms of maritime conflict in the Late Bronze Age and Late Bronze Early Iron Age transition but also of the extent to which modern views about this activity remain the product of inference and speculation

Ancient Textile Production from an Interdisciplinary Perspective Agata Ulanowska, Karina Grömer, Ina Vanden Berghe, Magdalena Öhrman, 2022-04-29 The diverse developments in textile research of the last decade along with the increased recognition of the importance of textile studies in adjacent fields now merit a dedicated full length publication entitled Ancient Textile Production from an Interdisciplinary Perspective Humanities and Natural Sciences Interwoven for our Understanding of Textiles With this volume the authors and the editors wish to illustrate to the current impact of textile archaeology on the scholarly perception of the past not limited to archaeology alone The volume presents new insights into the consumption meaning use and re use of textiles and dyes all of which are topics of growing importance in textile research As indicated by the title we demonstrate the continued importance of interdisciplinarity by showcasing several interwoven approaches to environmental and archaeological remains textual and iconographic sources archaeological experiments and ethnographic data from a large area covering Europe and the Mediterranean Near East Africa and Asia The chronological span is deliberately wide including materials dating from c 6th millennium BCE to c mid 14th century CE The volume is organised in four parts that aim to reflect the main areas of the textile research in 2020 After the two introductory chapters Part I About this Volume and Textile Research in 2020 follow two chapters referring to dyes and dyeing technology in which analytical and material based studies are linked to contextual sources Part II Interdisciplinarity of Colour Dye Analyses and Dyeing Technologies The six chapters of Part III Interdisciplinary Approaches to Textile Tools discuss textiles and textile production starting from the analyses of tools whether functional or as representative of technological developments or user identity Archaeological and cultural contexts as well as textile traditions are the main topics of the six chapters in Part IV Traditions and Contexts Fibres Fabrics Techniques Uses and Meanings The two final chapters in Part V Digital Tools refer to the use of digital tools in textile research presenting two different case studies

The Routledge Companion to Ecstatic Experience in the Ancient World Diana Stein, Sarah Kielt Costello, Karen Polinger Foster, 2021-12-30 For millennia people have universally engaged in ecstatic experience as an essential element in ritual practice spiritual belief and cultural identification This volume offers the first systematic investigation of its myriad roles and manifestations in the ancient Mediterranean and Near East The twenty nine contributors represent a broad range of scholarly disciplines seeking answers to fundamental questions regarding the patterns and commonalities of this vital aspect of the past How was the experience construed and by what means was it achieved Who was involved Where and when were rites carried out How was it reflected in pictorial arts and written records What was its relation to other components of the sociocultural compact In proposing responses the authors draw upon a wealth of original research in many fields generating new perspectives and thought provoking often surprising conclusions With their abundant cross cultural and cross temporal references the chapters mutually enrich each other and collectively deepen our understanding of ecstatic phenomena thousands of years ago Another noteworthy feature of the book is its illustrative content including commissioned reconstructions of ecstatic scenarios and pairings of works of Bronze Age and modern psychedelic art Scholars students and other readers interested in antiquity comparative religion and the social and cognitive sciences will find much to explore in the fascinating realm of ecstatic experience in the ancient world Death in Late Bronze Age Greece Joanne M. A. Murphy, 2020-01-06 Late Bronze Age tombs in Greece and their attendant mortuary practices have been a topic of scholarly debate for over a century dominated by the idea of a monolithic culture with the same developmental trajectories throughout the region This book contributes to that body of scholarship by exploring both the level of variety and of similarity that we see in the practices at each site and thereby highlights the differences between communities that otherwise look very similar By bringing together an international group of scholars working on tombs and cemeteries on mainland Greece Crete and in the Dodecanese we are afforded a unique view of the development and diversity of these communities The papers provide a penetrative analysis of the related issues by discussing tombs connected with sites ranging in size from palaces to towns to villages and in date from the start to the end of the Late Bronze Age This book contextualizes the mortuary studies in recent debates on diversity at the main palatial and secondary sites and between the economic and political strategies and practices throughout Greece The papers in the volume illustrate the pervasive connection between the mortuary sphere and society through the creation and expression of cultural narratives and draw attention to the social tensions played out in the mortuary arena The Art and Archaeology of the Aegean Bronze Age

Jean-Claude Poursat, 2022-06-09 The Art and Archaeology of the Aegean Bronze Age offers a comprehensive chronological and geographical overview of one of the most important civilizations in human history Jean Claude Poursat's volume provides a clear path through the rich and varied art and archaeology of Aegean prehistory from the Neolithic period down to the end of the Bronze Age Charting the regional differences within the Aegean world his study covers the full range of material evidence including architecture pottery frescoes metalwork stone and ivory all lucidly arranged by chapter With nearly 300 illustrations this volume is one of the most lavishly illustrated treatments of the subject yet published Suggestions for further reading provide an up to date entry point to the full richness of the subject Originally published in French and translated by the author s collaborator Carl Knappett this edition makes Poursat s deep knowledge of the Aegean Bronze Age available to an English language audience for the first time The Textile Revolution in Bronze Age Europe Serena Sabatini, Sophie Bergerbrant, 2020 Discusses both the revolutionary cultural social and economic impact of Bronze Age textile production in Europe and innovative methodologies for future studies
