Proceedings of the International Conference on Education Research Reza Hosseini, Challenging the Representation of Ethnically Divided Cities Giulia Carabelli, Aleksandra Djurasovic, Renata Summa, 2021-05-24 The book Challenging the Representation of Ethnically Divided Cities Perspectives from Mostar questions the existing overrepresentation of Mostar as an ethnically divided city While acknowledging the existence of internal borders the chapters in this book assert that they are not solid nor fixed and by exploring how they become material or immaterial the book offers a deeper understanding of the city s complex dynamics Accordingly the chapters in this book are attentive to how ethnic divides materialise or lose importance because of socio political contingencies Events groups and spaces that promote reconciliation from the bottom up are examined not necessarily to assess their success and failures but rather to look at how they create networks gain trust and form platforms that generate novel understandings of ethnic loyalties and party memberships Further and drawing both on the empirical data and theoretical reflections this volume contributes to broader debates about divided cities by suggesting the need to engage with these cities in their complexities rather than reducing them to their ethno national divisions The book engages with socio political and economic complexities in order to shed light on how ethnic conflicts and resulting spatial partitioning are often just the surface of much more complex dynamics that are far less easy to disentangle and represent The chapters in this book were originally published in Space and Polity that defines social justice no longer merely in terms of the equitable distribution of resources but also and often primarily in terms of the just recognition of persons This collection of incisive essays recognizes that the growing interdependence of all of the people of the earth demands that labour rights are understood as an aspect of human rights and thus envisaged at the international level Contributions by twenty outstanding labour law scholars from a range of countries worldwide provide in depth analysis of such aspects of the debate as the following collective action in the interests of market effectiveness as well as fair outcomes for workers right to strike resilience of trade unions and collective bargaining as mechanisms of labour market regulation importance of national policy despite the influence of global market forces in shaping national outcomes work as the locus of the relationship between humans and nature search for a legal foundation for corporate social responsibility litigation as an alternative to collective bargaining the role of collective labour relations for immigrants and disabled people lessons that developed countries could learn from mechanisms pioneered in developing countries in coping with conditions of austerity and the trap of soft law and of declarations of intent that weigh lightly in the face of the power of the interests at play in international trade The essays take stock of the dimensions of the current situation and also explore paths leading to a better achievement of social justice in labour law These essays recognize that economic development and the pursuit of social justice are interwoven in a quest for social progress that includes mechanisms designed to eliminate unjustifiable inequality For lawyers and other parties committed to the emerging political will to not only respect fundamental rights but more broadly improve labour and environmental protection this book opens abundant avenues that can be pursued in practice and in policy The volume is based on a selection of papers presented at the 21st World Congress of the International Society for Labour and Social Security Law in Cape Town in 2015

From Hope to Action through Knowledge Ramesh Bharuthram, Larry Pokpas, 2020-10-27 Its November 2001 A university in dire straits financially bankrupt burdening a debt in excess of R100 million a disillusioned and demoralised staff complement still reeling from the trauma of retrenchments coupled with an academic project facing collapse as student numbers dwindle by a third to less than 10 000 Is there a future for such an institution described by some as a basket case with very bleak prospects of survival This was the landscape that confronted the newly appointed Vice Chancellor and Chief Executive Officer CEO of the University of the Western Cape Fast forward to December 2014 The CEO retires from office bestowing upon his successor a financially sound institution with a flourishing academic project recording unprecedented achievements enriching the lives of more than 20 000 students and widely acknowledged as a research led university This book narrates how visionary leadership with the steadfast belief that your past does not determine your future galvanised an entire organisation into believing that a better outcome was indeed achievable and the will to move forward as a collective with a redefined purpose and commitment to achieve that which was once deemed impossible
