

cattle or any other property. So when she comes home after some time and asks her father where the money is, he answers something like the following:
 "I have often bought myself beer for your money and food my house, too."

And then he demands more money from his daughter.

81. Young Prostitute

"I have none," she now says to him reproachfully. "I always give you money and still you don't buy a cow for it." But she only says that; she gives him a part of her savings anyway. She gives more to her mother, who then secretly buys her a cow or a goat, but she keeps the secret of it.

Voodooeros Sexlife Of The African Aborigines:

Sexual Diversity in Africa S.N. Nyeck, Marc Epprecht, 2013-10-01 How does one address homophobia without threatening majority rule democracy and freedoms of speech and faith How does one Africanize sexuality research empirically and theoretically in an environment that is not necessarily welcoming to African scholars In Sexual Diversity in Africa contributors critically engage with current debates about sexuality and gender identity as well as with contentious issues relating to methodology epistemology ethics and pedagogy They present a tapestry of issues that testify to the complex nature of sexuality sexual practices and gender performance in Africa Essays examine topics such as the well established same sex networks in Accra and Bamako African traditions defined by European observers and the bizarre mix of faith pharmaceuticals and pseudo science used to cure homosexual men Their evidence also demonstrates the indefensibility of over simplified constructions of homosexuality versus heterosexuality modern versus traditional Africa versus the West and progress from the African closet towards Western models of out politics all of which have tainted research on same sex practices and scientific studies of HIV AIDS Asserting that the study of sexuality is intellectually and politically sustainable in Africa Sexual Diversity in Africa contributes to the theorization of sexualities by presenting a more sensitive and knowledgeable study of African experiences and perspectives Contributors include Olajide Akanji Christophe Broqua Cheryl Cooky Serena Owusua Dankwa Shari L Dworkin Marc Epprecht Melissa Hackman Notisha Massaquoi Crystal Munthree Kathleen O Mara Stella Nyanzi S N Nyeck Vasu Reddy Amanda Lock Swarr and Lisa Wiebesiek Readings in Sexualities from Africa Rachel Spronk, Thomas Hendriks, 2020-02-04 Images and stories about African sexuality abound in today's globalized media Frequently old stereotypes and popular opinion inform these stories and sex in the media is predominately approached as a problem in need of solutions and intervention The authors gathered here refuse an easy characterization of African sexuality and instead seek to understand the various erotic realities sexual practices and gendered changes taking place across the continent They present a nuanced and comprehensive overview of the field of sex and sexuality in Africa to serve as a guide though the quickly expanding literature This collection offers a set of texts that use sexuality as a prism for studying how communities coalesce against the canvas of larger political and economic contexts and how personal lives evolve therein Scholars working in Africa the U S and Europe reflect on issues of representation health and bio politics same sex relationships and identity transactional economies of sex religion and tradition and the importance of pleasure and agency This multidimensional reader provides a comprehensive view of sexuality from an African perspective

Heterosexual Africa? Marc Epprecht, 2008-08-15 Heterosexual Africa The History of an Idea from the Age of Exploration to the Age of AIDS builds from Marc Epprecht's previous book Hungochani which focuses explicitly on same sex desire in southern Africa to explore the historical processes by which a singular heterosexual identity for Africa was constructed by anthropologists ethnopsychologists colonial officials African elites and most recently health care workers seeking to address the HIV AIDS pandemic This is an eloquently written accessible book based on a rich and diverse range of sources that will find enthusiastic audiences in classrooms and in the general public Epprecht argues that Africans just like people all over the world have always had a range of sexualities and sexual identities Over the course of the last two centuries however African societies south of the Sahara have come to be viewed as singularly heterosexual Epprecht carefully traces the many routes by which this singularity this heteronormativity became a dominant culture In telling a fascinating story that will surely generate lively debate Epprecht makes his project speak to a range of literatures queer theory the new imperial history African social history queer and women s studies and biomedical literature on the HIV AIDS pandemic He does this with a light enough hand that his story is not bogged down by endless references to particular debates Heterosexual Africa aims to understand an enduring stereotype about Africa and Africans It asks how Africa came to be defined as a homosexual free zone during the colonial era and how this idea not only survived the transition to independence but flourished under conditions of globalization and early panicky responses to HIV AIDS

Sexuality and Social Justice in Africa Marc Epprecht, 2013-07-11 The persecution of people in Africa on the basis of their assumed or perceived homosexual orientation has received considerable coverage in the popular media in recent years Gay bashing by political and religious figures in Zimbabwe and Gambia draconian new laws against lesbians and gays and their supporters in Malawi Nigeria and Uganda and the imprisonment and extortion of gay men in Senegal and Cameroon have all rightly sparked international condemnation However much of the analysis has been highly critical of African leadership and culture without considering local nuances historical factors and external influences that are contributing to the problem Such commentary also overlooks grounds for optimism in the struggle for sexual rights and justice in Africa not just for sexual minorities but for the majority population as well Based on pioneering research on the history of homosexualities and engagement with current LGBTI and HIV AIDS activism Marc Epprecht provides a sympathetic overview of the issues at play and a hopeful outlook on the potential of sexual rights for all

The Erotic Margin Irvin C. Schick, 2020-05-05 Gender and sexuality have long held an important place in western attitudes towards the people and regions of the world from the titillating accounts of harem life in the Middle East to terrifying captivity narratives of North America The Erotic Margin is a first attempt to pull together the large disparate and often contradictory literature and view it as a corpus Schick argues that such images served to construct spatial difference and thereby helped Europe represent its own place in the world during an age of rapid geographical expansion Informed by the recent literature on human geography as well as feminist and postcolonial theory The Erotic Margin focuses on erotica and sexual anthropology as well as travel literature in which from the eighteenth century on both traveler and destination were portrayed in unmistakably gendered and sexualized terms Reviewing examples ranging from the New World to India the Near East to black Africa and the South sea islands to the Barbary Coast the book reflects on why foreign women were variously portrayed as alluring or threatening foreign men as effeminate weaklings or dangerous rapists and foreign lands as sexual idylls or hearts of darkness Gender and Sexuality in Kenyan Societies Babacar M'Baye, Besi Brilliant Muhonja, 2022-07-07 In Gender and Sexuality in Kenyan Societies Centering the Human and the Humane in Critical Studies edited by Besi Brilliant Muhonja and Babacar M Baye contributors explore the application of ubuntu utu responsive perspectives and methods to critical studies Through the lens of ubuntu utu the contributors to this Kenya focused volume draw from the diverse fields of postcolonial studies literary studies history anthropology sociology political science environmental studies media studies and development studies among others to demonstrate the urgency and necessity of humane scholarship research in gender and queer studies By centering decolonial approaches and the human and humane concentrating on subjects and identities that have been largely neglected in national and scholarly debates the chapters are subversive complex and inclusive They advance within Kenyan studies themes and elements of alternative non binary variant and non heteronormative gender identities sexualities and voices as well as approaches to doing knowledge Underscoring the timeliness of such a text is evidence rendered in sections of the collection highlighting the significance of ubuntu utu centric scholarship Challenging the erasure of the human in academic works the chapters in this volume look inward and locate the voices and experiences of Kenyan peoples as the pivotal locus of analysis and epistemological derivation The Ugandan Morality Crusade Deborah Kintu, 2017-11-28 In 1999 General Museveni Uganda's autocratic leader ordered police to arrest homosexuals for engaging in behavior that he characterized as un-African and against Biblical teaching A state sanctioned campaign of harassment of LGBT people followed With the approval of sections of Uganda's clergy and with the support of U.S. evangelicals harsh morality laws were passed against pornography and homosexual acts The former law disproportionately affected urban women curtailing their freedoms The latter known as the kill the gays bill called for life imprisonment or capital punishment for homosexuals The author weaves together a series of vignettes that trace the development of Uganda's morality laws amidst Machiavellian politics religious fundamentalism and the human rights struggle of LGBT Ugandans Sex, the World History John R. Gregg, 2019-07-26 Sex The World History Through Time Religion and Culture is a daring exploration of human sexuality from the ancient to the modern world Sex The World History traces sexual attitudes from the transcendent to the bizarre throughout world cultures Unmasked are sexual practices and beliefs previously omitted or obscured from all historical telling In a scathing condemnation of religion and its control of sex the book explores the intricate dance between spirituality and sexuality Revealed for the first time is a history of bisexuality in the majority of human cultures Prior to Christianity bisexual orientation was common in Asia the Pacific Africa the Americas and Europe Religions have controlled sex and gender orientation throughout time The history of LGBTQ across the globe is illuminated here How have women been exploited in sexual and cultural roles from prehistory to present day How does religion affect women's sexuality throughout time The supremacy of the Mother Earth Goddess throughout most of human existence and her relatively recent fall have had drastic consequences for women's sexual expression and identity Other topics included are sex slavery and human trafficking child brides forced marriages Roman Catholic abuses war time sexual crimes Victorian licentiousness the evolution of sexual attitudes in North and South America the sexual revolution of the counter culture Offered here is an encyclopedic tour of the sexuality of humankind Out in Africa Chantal J. Zabus, 2013 Homosexuality was and still is thought to be quintessentially un African Yet in this book Chantal Zabus examines the anthropological cultural and literary representations of male and female same sex desire from early colonial contacts between Europe and Africa in the nineteenth century to the present Covering a broad geographical spectrum from Mali to South Africa and from Senegal to Kenya and adopting a comparative approach encompassing two colonial languages English and French and some African languages Out in Africa charts developments in Sub Saharan African texts and contexts through the work of 7 colonial and some 25 postcolonial writers Routledge Revivals: Homosexuality: A Research Guide (1987) Wayne R. Dynes, 2017-02-17 First published in 1987 this book encompasses a broad range interdisciplinary research into homosexuality displaying a full spectrum of points of view and given that the major traditions of modern homosexual research began in Europe is not restricted to works in English In general topics that are densely covered in the literature are presented in this guide selectively with some less studied topics such as Economics and Music fleshed out with signposts to more comprehensive research It seeks to not only mirror existing publications but also to stimulate new work by pinpointing neglected themes and methods This book will be of interest to students of sociology
