Under Fire: Women and World War II Eveline Buchheim, Ralf Futselaar, 2014 Since the 1970s when the dominance of military histories of the World Wars ended and social historical histories of conflict rose to prominence women have come to play an increasingly important role in mainstream stories about the Second World War Although this is undeniably a valuable development the perspectives on women that arose have in many respects remained limiting although in new ways Women have been portrayed as carers as victims notably of sexual violence but rarely as agents of their own fate This volume focuses on this last group In spite of the undeniable suffering and victimization that befell so many women during the war for others the war also opened opportunities and awakened ambitions The articles in this volume which cover both Europe and Asia bring together some of the women who took initiatives of which they sometimes suffered the dire consequences sometimes enjoyed the fruits

Hitler's Bounty Hunters Ad van Liempt, 2005-04-01 Why were the Nazis so successful in deporting Jews Why did families such as Anne Frank's get turned in Investigative journalist Ad van Liempt pulls back the curtain on the shocking practice of Dutch bounty hunters of the Jews and reveals that ordinary citizens were prepared to turn over their Jewish countrymen in exchange for cash Van Liempt examines in great detail the careers of bounty hunters and describes some particularly horrifying cases The most gripping are those involving young children In one case two bounty hunters traveled hundreds of miles to get their hands on a two year old girl living in a safe house a month later she was gassed at Sobibor In court the bounty hunters consistently maintained that they received no premiums for their work but the author shows the opposite to be true and traces the money involved This haunting book uncovers a facet of the Holocaust that has previously been largely neglected and brings to light the day to day workings of the persecution of the Jews The Netherlands and Northern Belgium, a Selective Bibliography of Reference Works Margrit Beran Krewson, 1988

The club is led by Henry Winter, a brilliant and charismatic young man. Henry is obsessed with Greek mythology and philosophy, and he quickly draws Richard into his world. The other members of the Classics Club are equally as fascinating. Bunny Corcoran is a wealthy and spoiled young man who is always looking for a good time. Charles Tavis is a quiet and reserved young man who is deeply in love with Henry. Camilla Macaulay is a beautiful and intelligent young woman who is drawn to the power and danger of the Classics Club. The students are all deeply in love with Morrow, and they are willing to do anything to please him. Morrow is a complex and mysterious figure, and he seems to be manipulating the students for his own purposes. As the students become more involved with Morrow, they begin to commit increasingly dangerous acts. The Secret History is a exceptional and gripping novel that will keep you speculating until the very end. The novel is a warning tale about the dangers of obsession and the power of evil.
