A Rhetoric of Aesthetic Power Christian Kock,2024-10-18 This book offers a theory of those formal properties of art that are apt to afford strong aesthetic experience a project resembling Aristotle s in the Poetics where he analysed structures in tragedies that condition the peculiar pleasure of tragedy However the book s scope cuts across all genres of literature and also includes classical music the formal art par excellence Drawing on a wide array of recent theoretical work and empirical evidence the book closely analyses dozens of examples of both art forms Besides Aristotle major inspiration comes from two modern master thinkers the linguist Roman Jakobson who defined the poetic function of language and the rhetorician Kenneth Burke who proposed a psychological concept of form Throughout the book argues for aesthetic experience as an end in itself and a component of quality of life one to which everyone should have access rather than just a means to other ends

Music, Art and Emotion Conroy Cupido,2023-03-01 This book explores the ways in which four visual artists make sense of referentialism and emotion in music By listening to five art songs by Schubert Strauss Faur and Berlioz they were inspired to create new artworks as a result of their understanding of the meaning of the art songs This was done without an understanding of the text and the artists had to rely on referential meaning in music as well as the perceived or evoked emotions elicited by listening to the art songs The artworks created as a result of this project were exhibited at the Aardklop National Arts Festival entitled Nagmusiek This was a multi modal exhibition featuring music art and text This book employs Artistic Research and Phenomenology in order to understand this phenomenon as I explored the artists creative processes experiences and the tacit knowledge embedded in their artefacts This book would provide readers access to 20 new artworks each created as a result of the artists interpretation of the meaning they ascribed to art song Their creative process is also examined and synthesised with existing literature on emotion and referentialism in music The 100 Greatest Composers and Their Musical Works Gary A.
