When My Brother Was An Aztec:

When My Brother Was an Aztec Natalie Diaz, 2012-12-04 I write hungry sentences Natalie Diaz once explained in an interview because they want more and more lyricism and imagery to satisfy them This debut collection is a fast paced tour of Mojave life and family narrative A sister fights for or against a brother on meth and everyone from Antigone Houdini Huitzilopochtli and Jesus is invoked and invited to hash it out These darkly humorous poems illuminate far corners of the heart revealing teeth tails and more than a few dreams I watched a lion eat a man like a piece of fruit peel tendons from fascia like pith from rind then lick the sweet meat from its hard core of bones The man had earned this feast and his own deliciousness by ringing a stick against the lion s cage calling out Here Kitty Kitty Meow With one swipe of a paw much like a catcher s mitt with fangs the lion pulled the man into the cage rattling his skeleton against the metal bars The lion didn t want to do it He didn t want to eat the man like a piece of fruit and he told the crowd this I only wanted some goddamn sleep Natalie Diaz was born and raised on the Fort Mojave Indian Reservation in Needles California After playing professional basketball for four years in Europe and Asia Diaz returned to the states to complete her MFA at Old Dominion University She lives in Surprise Arizona and is working to preserve the Mojave language

American Indian Literature Kimberly Wieser-Weryackwe, 2025-07-10 Discover the essential people works movements and themes in American Indian literature

American Indian literature is a varied and vibrant collection of Indigenous artistic expression. American Indian novelists, poets, essayists, and critics have over the last four centuries asserted powerful forms of intellectual and artistic sovereignty writing in English while building on discrete tribal oral traditions and forms of storytelling. This encyclopedia introduces readers to the key historical and contemporary figures in American Indian literature and their defining works. From the fiery sermons of Methodist minister William Apsess to the Pulitzer Prize winning novel House Made of Dawn by N. Scott Momaday to the critically acclaimed and commercially successful novels of Louise Erdrich, this book illustrates the indelible and influential imprint American Indians have on the landscape of American letters. Readers are also introduced to the key themes and context of American Indian literature exploring how it is inextricable from American literary history, the American literary canon, and the narrative of American history, not on the fringes of the American experience but central to it.

Other Musics
Cynthia Cruz, 2019-04-25

Latina poets occupy an important place in today's literary landscape. Coming from diverse backgrounds, they share an understanding of what it means to exist within the margins of society. As artists, they possess a dedication to their craft and a commitment to experimentation. Their voices, sometimes lyrical, sometimes autobiographical, sometimes politically charged, are distinctly female. Whereas previous anthologies have merged the works of Latino and Latina poets, this collection is the first to showcase Latina poetry on its own terms. For years, readers have admired the poetry of prominent Latina authors: Cherríe Moraga, Ana Castillo, and Sandra Cisneros. Building on their inspirational legacy, Other Musics heralds a new generation of Latina poets whose work blends traditional forms and styles with postmodern innovations. These poets do not fit neatly into one category. They come from all walks of life, from remarkably varied class, ethnic, occupational, and educational backgrounds. Their topics and concerns are wide-ranging. All of the poets, according to volume editor Cynthia Cruz, are creating a new kind of music, one that embraces the in-between and bicultural world that Latina women must constantly straddle. The fifteen poets featured in this anthology are: Desirée Alvarez, Karen Bradway, Xochiquetzal Candelaria, Diana Maria Delgado, Natalie Diaz, Carolina Ebeid, Sandy Florian, Carrie Fountain, Leticia Hernández, Linares Ada Limón, Sheryl Luna, Kristin Naca, Deborah Paredez, Emmy Pérez, and Carmen Giménez Smith. Along with an ample selection of each of their poems, Other Musics features an artist statement by each poet in which she discusses her work, her writing practice, how she became a writer, and her views on the purpose and mission of poetry in the contemporary world.
