Desertification (Secretariat),2001 After a devastating dust storm that swept across Northern China in 2000 there was much interest in examining and analyzing experiences with dust storm mitigation prevention forecasting and control What has emerged from the writings collected in this publication is that sand and dust storms are both a symptom and cause of desertification They are often an early warning that things are going wrong Combating these storms demands political social biological economic educational and engineering approaches as well as the physical effort that has dominated efforts in the past This publication provides an analysis of the factors contributing to dust and sandstorms and also provides examples of how the menace can be brought under control through a series of measures ranging from mechanical interventions and bio remediation to policy change and legislative back up Bulletin of the Atomic Scientists ,1995-03 The Bulletin of the
