realized that I had the opportunity of a lifetime by expressing the Humanitarian attributes that these professionals continually made. After many years of writing I realized that the Remington Company had a distinct and noble purpose and perhaps we could not change the present but we could certainly try to change our future. With that we created our Mentorship Program which gets these prolific stories out to the children. We wrote the stories with zest but never crossed the line of respect or dignity. We wished to capture the hearts of our audience and prove to them that giving was not an option but more so our duty as life forms on our planet. Today our book has a theme: Inspiring the youth of America. This theme was our way of telling the world: Let's hold hands and prepare our children for a better life today. I continue to write for the Registry. My life has irrevocably changed for the better. I volunteer for any thing all the time. I enjoy moments of quiet and the appreciation of our environment. I read these biographies in amazement as everyone else does and it never seems to get uneventful. Either way I sincerely hope you enjoy these biographies and use them to strengthen your spirit and confidence about our existence as a species on this planet. I patiently wait for divine intervention in order to write my next biography and am happy to serve the brilliant members of the Remington Registry of Outstanding Professionals. El-Hi Textbooks and Serials in Print, 2006. The Secret Garden [by] Frances Hodgson Burnett. Although Frances Hodgson Burnett published numerous works for an adult readership, she is mainly remembered today for three novels written for children: Little Lord Fauntleroy (1886), A Little Princess (1905), and The Secret Garden (1911). This volume is dedicated to The Secret Garden. The articles address a wide range of issues, including the representation of the garden in Burnett's novel in the context of cultural history, the relationship between the concept of nature and female identity, the idea of therapeutic places, the notion of redemptive children in The Secret Garden and Little Lord Fauntleroy, the concept of male identity, constructions of Otherness, and the redefinition of Englishness. Film and anime versions of Burnett's classic, Noel Streatfeild's The Painted Garden as a rewriting of The Secret Garden, attitudes towards food in children's classics, and
