Taming Time, Timing Death Rane Willerslev,Dorthe Refslund Christensen,2016-04-01 Departing from a persisting current in Western thought which conceives of time in the abstract and often reflects upon death as occupying a space at life's margins this book begins from position that it is in fact through the material and perishable world that we experience time As such it is with death and our encounters with it that form the basis of human conceptions of time Presenting rich interdisciplinary empirical studies of death rituals and practices across the globe from the US and Europe Asia The Middle East Australasia and Africa Taming Time Timing Death explores the manner in which social technologies and rituals have been and are implemented to avoid delay or embrace death or communicate with the dead thus informing and manifesting humans understanding of time It will therefore be of interest to scholars and students of anthropology philosophy sociology and social theory human geography and religion Sports Events, Society and Culture Katherine Dashper,Thomas Fletcher,Nicola Mccullough,2014-07-25 This innovative and timely volume moves beyond existing operational and pragmatic approaches to events studies by exploring sports events as social cultural political and mediated phenomena As the study of this area is developing there is now a need for critical and theoretically informed debate regarding conceptualisation significance and roles This edited collection explores the core themes of consumption media technologies representation identities and culture to offer new insight into how sports events contribute to generation of individual and shared meaning over personal community and national identities as well as the associated issues of conflict resistance and power Chapters promote a critical re evaluation of emerging empirical research from a diverse range of sports events and locations from the international to local level A multi disciplinary approach is taken with contributions from areas including sports studies media studies sociology cultural studies communications politics tourism and gender studies Written by leading academics in the area this thorough exploration of the contested relationship between sports events society and culture will be of interest to students academics and researchers in Events Sport Tourism and Sociology By Noon Prayer Fadwa El

Guindi,2008-08-01 A groundbreaking anthropological analysis of Islam as experienced by Muslims By Noon Prayer builds a conceptual model of Islam as a whole while travelling along a comparative path of biblical Egyptological ethnographic poetic scriptural and visual materials Grounded in long term observation of Arabo Islamic culture and society the study captures the rhythm of Islam weaving through the lives of Muslim women and men Examples of the rhythmic nature of Islam can be seen in all aspects of Muslims everyday lives Muslims break their Ramadan fast upon the sun setting and they receive Ramadan by sighting the new moon Prayer for their dead is by noon and burial is before sunset This is space and time in Islam moon sun dawn and sunset are all part of a unique and unified rhythm interweaving the sacred and the ordinary nature and culture in a pattern that is characteristically Islamic Time and the Technosphere José Argüelles,2002-08-03 A groundbreaking study that distinguishes the natural time of the cosmos from artificial mechanistic time Reveals September 11 as the signal of the end of artificial time according to the Law of Time Long awaited sequel to the author s bestselling book The Mayan Factor Explains the Great Calendar Change of 2004 and its enormous potential for the future of humanity In Time and the Technosphere Jos Arg elles presents a groundbreaking study that distinguishes the natural time of the cosmos from the artificial mechanistic time under which we currently live Arg elles defines the actual nature of time as the frequency of synchronization Applying this Law of Time to an understanding of the entire system of life on Earth he shows that in order to not destroy Earth s ability to sustain life we must change our definition of time and adopt a natural harmonic calendar based on the 13 moon 28 day cycle Until the creation of the Gregorian calendar and the 60 minute hour most of humanity lived by the 28 day cycle of natural time The adoption of artificial time has subjected us to a 12 60 time frequency that governs the entire global industrialized civilization the technosphere With the collapse of the Twin Towers on September 11 a fissure was created in this artificial technosphere opening up the noosphere Earth s mental envelope Humanity has a golden opportunity to leave the strife of the past and enter a time of peace by adopting a harmonious natural calendar that will repair the damages caused by the irregular tempo of technospheric time Our last best chance to adopt this natural time and step into the bright new future promised by the galactic shift of 2012 is the Great Calendar Change of 2004 a new discovery based on the author s mathematical research into the Mayan calendar first begun in his landmark work The Mayan Factor In Time and the Technosphere Arg elles reveals the clear distinction between third dimensional astronomical time and the fourth dimensional synchronic order of the Law of Time which holds enormous potential for the future of humanity Elixir Kapka Kassabova,2023-05-16 A search for a cure to what ails us in the Anthropocene by the award winning author of Border In Elixir in a wild river valley and amid the three mountains that define it Kapka Kassabova seeks out the deep connection between people plants and place The Mesta is one of the oldest rivers in Europe and the surrounding forests and mountains of the southern Balkans are an extraordinarily rich nexus for plant gatherers Over several seasons Kassabova spends time with the people of this magical region She meets women and men who work in a long lineage of foragers healers and mystics

She learns about wild plants and the ancient practice of herbalism that makes use of them and she experiences a symbiotic system where nature and culture have blended for thousands of years Through her captivating encounters we come to feel the devastating weight of the ecological and cultural disinheritance that the people of this valley have suffered And Kassabova reflects on what being disconnected from place can do to our souls and our bodies Yet in her search for elixir she also finds reasons for hope The people of the valley are keepers of a rare knowledge not only of mountain plants and their properties but also of how to transform collective suffering into healing Immersive and enthralling Elixir is an urgent and unforgettable call to rethink how we live in relation to one another to Earth and to the cosmos Chase's Calendar of
