The Light that Failed Ivan Krastev, Stephen Holmes, 2019-10-31 A landmark book that completely transforms our understanding of the crisis of liberalism from two pre eminent intellectuals Why did the West after winning the Cold War lose its political balance In the early 1990s hopes for the eastward spread of liberal democracy were high And yet the transformation of Eastern European countries gave rise to a bitter repudiation of liberalism itself not only there but also back in the heartland of the West In this brilliant work of political psychology Ivan Krastev and Stephen Holmes argue that the supposed end of history turned out to be only the beginning of an Age of Imitation Reckoning with the history of the last thirty years they show that the most powerful force behind the wave of populist xenophobia that began in Eastern Europe stems from resentment at the post 1989 imperative to become Westernized Through this prism the Trump revolution represents an ironic fulfillment of the promise that the nations exiting from communist rule would come to resemble the United States In a strange twist Trump has elevated Putin s Russia and Orb n s Hungary into models for the United States Written by two pre eminent intellectuals bridging the East West divide

The Light that Failed is a landmark book that sheds light on the extraordinary history of our Age of Imitation X That Ex

Kristin E. Carmichael, LISW, 2013-01-03 Hell no It s over I am done Saying it to him felt so damned good God knows he deserved it Still deserves it So why is it that only a few weeks later I doubt if I can stand by what I said X That Ex is the long awaited answer for women who have left a bad relationship and don t want to go back It is incredibly common for women to leave partners who are emotionally unavailable disrespectful immature selfish or even abusive but then struggle to stay away Women might be tripped up by their exes schemes to get them back their own self sabotaging ways or even by our society which seems to glorify a just give him one more chance philosophy To their family and friends dismay huge numbers of women go back to toxic relationships wasting years and the possibility of happier lives on men who can t give them what they deserve If the post breakup world for most people were logical fair regulated and well defined there would be no need for X That Ex As most of us know however the time after a breakup is emotionally messy sometimes chaotic and filled with conflicting feelings motivations hopes temptations and realities that must be dealt with X That Ex focuses on this confusing time demystifying why it is so difficult to stay away from a problematic ex and distinguishing itself by making personalized predictions for readers about what to expect from their exes and themselves in the tumultuous time right after a relationship ends This book is a unique roadmap that guides readers through the sometimes perilous time when a woman's ex might try time tested tactics to tempt her back when self sabotage may make a woman her own worst enemy and when even our culture gets in on the action by making reunification seem reasonable

Earliest Christianity within the Boundaries of Judaism Alan Avery-Peck, Craig A. Evans, Jacob Neusner, 2016-02-02 Twenty two essays written by top scholars in the fields of early Christianity and Judaism focus on methodological issues earliest Christianity in its Judaic setting Gospel studies and history and meaning in later Christianity These essays honor Bruce Chilton recognizing his seminal contribution to the study of earliest Christianity in its Judaic setting Chilton's scholarship has established innovative approaches to reconstructing the life of Jesus a Jew whose religious ideology developed and therefore must be understood within the Judaism of the first centuries Following upon Chilton's approaches and insights the essays collected here illustrate the centrality of the literatures of early Judaism to the critical exegesis of the New Testament and other writings of early Christianity

African-Centred Management Education David N.

Abdulai,2016-04-01 In African Centred Management Education Professor Abdulai looks critically at the failings of management education in Africa and how that has impacted growth and development efforts especially at this critical stage in the continent's positive growth and development trajectory He concludes that Africa's current positive economic growth cannot be sustained without a significant contribution from its human capital He adds that the outstanding economic record of Asian economies in recent decades dramatically illustrates how important human capital is to growth These countries lacking natural resources and importing practically all their energy requirements have grown rapidly by relying on a well trained educated and conscientious workforce Professor Abdulai believes that Africa too can sustain its current growth and development by effectively combining its abundant natural resources with its human capital to attain its economic development but this will require an African cadre of well trained managers at the helm of both private and public sector institutions For this to become a reality management education in Africa will have to play a significant role but the author argues that it cannot be effective by continually mimicking the West in the programmes it delivers It must come up with innovative and relevant pedagogy that will address the special challenges that the continent faces and deliver an African centred management education As well as pointing to the failures of management education in Africa Abdulai offers suggestions as to how to make management education really contribute to the education of Africans in order to sustain current and future development
